May Your. Oct. 17.—Mrs. Mary E. Lann, of Kinnes, "Mother of Populism," has visited the McKinley shrine at Canton and grasped the hand that ones held the soffee pot.

Discribing the adventure in a communication to the New York World, Mrs. Lense ways that Major McKinley's land is not a gird hand.

"The handshake gives at meeting and parting," who avere, "is no perfunctory that I inaghingly suggested that the routine of Methodist church sevies must have been at axcellent proparation for his present duties. He (the Major) admitted that as a Mothedist he had seen service in the art of handshaking, and he added:

"It is very much more thresome to most and greek those who come to the some than to address the unlittede in the open air."

"Ignoring any personal application that might be contained in this remark.

meet and great those who come to the some than to address the multitude in the open six.

"Ignoring any personal application that might be contained in thin remark. I loquired, with an air of interms sympathy: 'You are much surroyed, are you not, by the calls of professional politicians?"

"You,' he admitted wearly; 'they come frequently and I receive from them but little impiration. But the absence who come to see me with no other object in their hearts than the pood of the nation help me wonderfully. I never speak to them without receiving some case thought, some fresh atimulus of ideas;' then drawing his hand reflectively across his eyes, he added: 'Lodgs of Massachusetts. Roosevelt of New York, Dingley and others were here yesterday.'

"Whether these gentlemen belonged to the common people who insufered him or to the professional politicians who bosed him is conjectural.

"After discussing Kannes polities, in which discussion the Major became the inferviewer and elicited a synopsis of the political situation in that State, we disting pleasantly of our Scotch lineage, till I remarked:

"Scotland is the only nation of the diplical world upon which the money treaters have not placed the octopus of neutranged indebtedness.'

"A startied look, half fear, lost be had given utterance to an unguarded statement, half definess, lest I should pursue the subject further, leaped into Major Hellinley's eyes.

"What a pity," I continued, 'that we have not initiated in this country the transple of the Scots. The gold owners have purchased us body and soul."

"Ho raply. Every effort to continue the conversation was further, leaped into the conversation was further, leaped into the conversation was further, leaped the replical:

"Beyond all doubt she has a great future. Who can doubt the advance."

the conversation was futile. I changed the thame. In reply to the question, 'Has woman a future in politics?' he replied:

"Beyond all doubt she has a great future. Who can doubt the advancement along every line when we view the wenderful progress she has made in the past?"

"As effort to obtain some expression on sconomic questions was void.

"I am not being interviewed at present,' he said. 'I think it to the part of wisdom to remain silent."

"It it is true, as Dr. Arnold of Rughy fame says, 'that a man cannot act unless he know,' then action cannot be expected from Rejor McKinley, for apparently he is not in possession of any knowledge. He impressed me as being a mile stone having engraved upon it the distance more or less from the fational expitol.

"Major McKinley in a living example of disreption of self. The atmospheric power which protosts individuality has been broken down by the fooed conditions which have brought him into contact with and made him dependent upon others. A lack of self-confidence marks the man. You do not need to ask him questions to know that he is a stubilification. 'I refuse to the part on record,' is in his manner and larks in his eyes. ONE CAUSE OF REJOICING.

It is one of the things that we rejoice at in this contest, that we do not have the support of the trusts, or combinations, or syndicates of this country.

A CAUSE IS KNOWN BY ITS COMPANY.

W. J. Bryan, at Indisnapolis, Oct. 6.

If you will look at the company which the cause of our opponents keeps you will get some idea of the true character of the cause. Every man who has profited by special legislation, every trust that seeks to impose upon the people, every syndicate that fattens on public adversity and every corporation that thinks it is greater than the law which created it-all these are opposed to us and give us a certificate that we are doing good work for the people.

THE PEOPLE VS. THE SYNDICATES.

W. J. Strynn, at Partnersburg, W. Va., Oct. 1.

We have to meet the combined influence of money in all the money centers of the world. But, my friends, this campaign will demonstrate whether the people are to have a Government of the people, by the people and for the people, or whether it is going to be a Government of syndicates, by syndicates and for

BRYAN'S WORTHY AMBITION.

W. J. Bryan to Democratic Clubs, St. Louis, Sat. Night, Oct. 3.

I read you briefly from the teachings of Thomas Jefferson to show you, my friends, that it ought to be the ambition of every member of these clubs to carry our Government back and place it again securely on the foundation which was established by the founders of this Government. If you should ask me what is my highest ambition, I would say that above any office that human hands can give, above any honors that human confidence and human esteem can bestow, if I could choose a name by which I could be known I would have it this: That I have done my best to make this Government what Jefferson desired that it should be.

Commenting on this eloquent passage the St. Louis Republic

The greatest applause during the course of the speech was when Mr. Bryan declared earnestly that his highest ambition in public life was to do his best to make this Government what Thomas Jefferson, the founder of the Democratic party, would

"You"ll have the chance !" a man in the audience shouted, and at that a mighty cheer went up, and again the assemblage was on its feet, calling out its certainty that Bryan was to be the seethelity That the Southern May Laue the Seaboard After All.

It is correctly reported here among holders of Southern Bullway securities that while the friends of the Southern, that wante the Friends of the Southern, Meesrs. Ryan, Thomas and Gill, have secured the absolute control of the Seaboard Company's stock, events may occur within the next few hours, which may change the whole situation and convert the Seaboard from a friend and cause the outbreak of another rate war. Mr. Ryan has been in Bultimore ar. Hyan has oven in Battimore since last Friday night and has held numerous conferences with President B. Curson Hoffman, during which, it is understood, all the details concerning the transfer of the Seaboard's stock were completed.

Tank night has and solve returned to

In all the conflicting statements of political conditions in Illinois one fact stands out prominently, and that is the solid popularity of Governor Altgeld with the masses of the State.

This popularity means votes for the Democratic party, because it is not founded upon a fancy which may yanish in a day, but upon a firm foundation of proved wisdom and honesty in the administration of State government. The administration of Glovernment. ment. The administration of Gover-nor Aitgeid, in marked contrast with Republican rule, is the guarantee to the people of Illinois of the efficiency the people of Illinois of the efficiency and the integrity of Democratic government. It has given to the Illinois people a taste of the economy and sound administrative judgment which has established and maintained the faith of the people of Missouri in the Democratic party of this State.

Our neighbors across the river find at the close of the Democratic administration every institution in the State.

at the close of the Democratic administration every institution in the State and every department of public business in better condition than when the Democracy went into power. Not only have they seen the Democratic administration attempting great reforms affecting the welfare of the people, such as the equalization of taxation and the prevention of tax dodging, but they see practical and beneficent reforms accomplished.

This record is a tower of strength in This record is a tower of strength in the Democratic campaign. It adds the evidence of experience to the force of conviction. It convinces the people who favor the movement of the Democratic party that performance follows Democratic promines and that the men at the head of it is Illinois can be intrusted with the interests of the people. The demonstrations attending the

The demonstrations attending the tours of Mr. Bryan and of Governor Aligeld, taken with the untelstakable Altgeld, taken with the untristakable signs of the sentiment of the people, give emphasis to the remark of the Governor that nothing but Hanns boodle stands in the way of Democratic seccess in Illinois. There is good reason to believe that the majority of bonest ettizene supporting the Democracy this year is too great to be overcome by the vote which Hanns can control with boodle.

Your Uncle Russell is a man of Your Usole Rassell is a man of great expectations. In claiming his own election, however, by 40,000, and that McKinley will carry the State by 8,000 to 10,000, he is talking through his esteemed hat. In 1892 Cleveland had a plurality of 33,000 in North Carolina, and Weaver received 44,000 yotes. Mr. Russell can judge somewhat from these figures as to what Major McKinley has to overcome this year.

Charolite Observer, hith.

That was a talented muse up in New Jersey, told of in yest-rday's paper, who started his son off on a bicycle trip before daylight and then followed him in the darkness, barking like a dog. The boy, it will be remembered, whipped out his gun, fired at the supposed dog, and killed his old man. It is a common saying and a true one that all the fools are not yet dead. But there is one less of them above ground than there was before this old citizen barked.

It is surprising to many that foot-ball players and other athletes regard a sprain or bruise of an little consequence. One reason of this is, they know how to treat such injuries so as to receiver from them in a few days, white others would be laid up for two or tires weeks, if not longer. Writing from Central State Normal School, Lock Haves, Pa., Mr. W. H. Losch, captain of the base ball club and symmatism says: "I take pleasure in stating, that members of our base ball club and symmatism says: "I take pleasure in stating, that members of our base ball club and myself have used Chamberlain's Pain Sala with most excellent results.
