

Interview With Congressman Mitchell on the Fifth District—Discussion From the Fifth District—

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 8.—No member of the House is more assiduously at attendance at the sessions than Congressman Mitchell. He is among the first arrivals in the morning and he invariably remains until adjournment.

"I want to know, sir," the lawyer said, very much exasperated, and very stern now, "how Mr. So-and-so rides when he is alone."

The laugh at the questioner ended the cross-examination.

Actual payments through clearing houses in January made a remarkable showing, being much larger than any previous month, $63 per cent, larger than the same month last year, and 7.1 per cent, larger than in 1922.

The statement by branches of business given this week shows a surprising gain in most departments of manufacture and trade. No failures appear in the woolen manufacture, and in several branches only an insignificant aggregate compared with the failures of previous years.

Perhaps the most striking feature of the week has been the decline in the price of silver, which has fallen from 57.50 to 56.50 cents.

Through a private source comes the information that the proprietor of the English would say "dirty rag," as the English would say for money alone and rich, but thought it would be more interesting to own a newspaper than to race stable and a yacht.
