LOCAL AFFAIRS.

—Shelby will have a grand street carnival August 7, 8, 9. Over $10,000 worth of free attractions.
—Don't forget the meeting of the Bible Society, Friday, August 3rd, morning and afternoon session.
—The members of the Dallas social club will give a lawn party next Tuesday night on the lawn of Gaston College.
—The Belmont academy under the efficient management of Prof. F. P. Hall will open September 17. See ad. in another column.
—Hon. M. H. Justice addressed the people of Gastonia Tuesday night in the Opera House. The speech was well received by the audience.
—In another column will be found notice of special term of court in Gaston county beginning Monday 13th of August for trial of civil cases only.
—The Presbyterian excursion passed up the C. N. and W. on Tuesday. The train was well loaded before it reached here. A number from this place joined them.
—The Rhyme Miller Mill which was bought by Craig & Wilson some time ago, has been started. Mr. Calvin Mason has been engaged as miller and the mill will be run every day now.
—Don't forget the big rally at River bend this week, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Col. Abernethy says it will be the biggest in the State. Amusements of all kinds will be furnished.
—Mrs. J. L. Landis gave a delightful party to a few friends Saturday night. The following were invited: Misses Anna M. McDowell, Kate McLaughlin and Madge Walton; Messrs. Lawrence Beal, Arthur Spencer, Robert Murdoch, Matthew Harper and McDowell Walton. Refreshments were served.
—Mr. Chas. Davis went to Wilmington last week to stand the examination before the State board of pharmacy. Mr. Davis had only been in college one year and he passed the examination without any trouble. He will return however next year to Baltimore to continue his studies. This speaks well for Mr. Davis and we congratulate him on his success.
—Rev. J. M. McClain of Yorkville passed through the city Monday on his return from Poplar Tent church. Mr. McClain has accepted a call to that church and will move to Poplar Tent about the first of August. Mr. McClain has been pastor of the churches of Bamah and Beth Shalom near Yorkville for about 8 years. He lived in Gastonia for a number of years and has quite a number of friends here.
Speaking Friday Night.
A good crowd had assembled in the Opera House last Friday night to hear the speeches of Hon. O. F. Mason and Mr. W. Y. Webb. Mr. Webb was quite as well and not able to speak as he did however make a few remarks which were full of good advice, sound doctrine. The narrow gauge train was very much delayed and Mr. Webb did not get here until a late hour. The time was taken up by speeches of Judge Wm. H. Lewis, Mr. W. F. Marshall, Mr. D. L. Russell, and Mr. George Howell of the Trenton mill. Mr. Howell's speech was applauded time and again. Just after Mr. Webb had begun to speak the screams of a lady attracted the attention of the crowd and most all left the hall to ascertain the cause. It was found to be at Mrs. R. L. Johnson's. Mrs. Johnson with her daughters are living in a small house in the rear of their residence while their house is undergoing some changes. They were frightened by some one trying to enter the window. The ladies were taken to Mr. Marshall and Mr. Webb continued his speech which was a fine specimen of oratory and argument.
Sad Death.
Mr. Charles McCarver, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. McCarver, died on Sabbath evening at 8 o'clock. Mr. McCarver was just coming into his father's estate. He was 24 years old and had a bright future before him. He was greatly beloved by the family and a favorite with everybody. The deathly fever did its work quickly. He was sick only 14 days. He has been clerking at Bankin & Craig's store. The funeral exercises took place at the Chapel and were conducted by Rev. Mr. Boger, assisted by Prof. Glina of Lenoir College, of Hickory. Mr. Glina said Charles had gone to school to him and he wanted to testify to his scholarship and Christian character. A very large crowd attended the funeral. We extend our sincere sympathies to the bereaved family.
At Baker's Mill.
By an appointment Mr. L. L. Jenkins was to speak at Baker's Mill on Monday night. He was on the ground at the proper time and so was Hon. O. F. Mason. Mr. Jenkins declined to speak after seeing Mr. Mason there. Mr. Mason told him he could speak first or last but he would not agree upon anything. So Mr. Mason spoke to a large and enthusiastic audience. It seems the other side is afraid to meet us in joint debate.

To Waynesville.
Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kennedy left last week for Waynesville White Sulphur Springs. Mr. Jim Gallant left Tuesday for Waynesville. The Charlotte News of Saturday has the following to say of the Springs etc: The White Sulphur Springs hotel, Waynesville N. C., is enjoying a fine patronage. This early in the season they have the main building nearly full of guests and the new annex near completion is now getting its share of applications. The grounds there are beautiful, the spring itself is a marvel of wonder for its curative properties. The mountain views simply a grandeur of nature that surpasses every visitor and no place in Western North Carolina can boast of more real advantages for comfort than this spot in Waynesville.
A New Hotel.
It seems from envelopes printed in town this week that there is a new hotel here. The envelope has this on it:

JONES SEMINARY.
School will be conducted as before—Rev. A. G. Kirkpatrick, Principal—Open October 1.
Gaston county is to have another school, a school exclusively for girls, the Jones Seminary at All Healing. For some time a correspondence has been going on between Mr. D. L. Jones representing the heirs of the Jones estate and a special committee appointed by the First Presbyterian of the Associate Reformed church. Mr. Jones was very anxious to have a school opened there and conducted on the same lines as before. He was very liberal in his terms. He asked that the building be put in repair and kept in repair and he would allow the use of it for a term of three years.
All arrangements have now been completed. Pugh and Bethany are going to put the building in repair. The committee who has the matter in charge is composed of Messrs. Edward Carson, George Fall and J. T. Crawford.
The committee appointed by Presbytery met last week and elected Rev. A. G. Kirkpatrick, of Prosperity S. C., as principal, and he has signed his acceptance. He will be assisted by his daughter, Mrs. Willie Kirkpatrick Douglas. He has also selected the other teachers, but he will have a full corps of teachers.
The repair work will be pushed to completion, and it is expected that the school will be opened about October 1.
Rev. A. G. Kirkpatrick is a native of Mecklenburg county, and for a long time engaged in teaching. About 10 years ago he entered the Theological Seminary, and has been preaching constantly, since his graduation. He was first pastor of New Hope, Fairfield county, S. C., and is at present pastor of the A. B. P. church at Prosperity, S. C. For some time his health has not permitted him to preach regularly. His daughter is well known as Miss Willie Kirkpatrick. She is a splendid teacher. Mr. Kirkpatrick will come on this week to make all arrangements for an early opening of the school.
The school will be conducted upon the same lines as formerly. It will be a non-sectarian, Christian school, and its terms will be made so reasonable that even those possessed of small means can here obtain a good education. This has always been an admission quality in this school, and it has been one of its distinguishing features, and this distinctiveness will not be lost under the new management.
The Girls School.
As announced in our local column last week Rev. Jesse Siler will have charge of the Gaston Institute for the coming term. Mr. Siler informs us that under his management the school will be known as the Iliad school. The object of the school will be to prepare young men and ladies for entering the best colleges of our land; to give a good servicable high-school training to those who are not preparing for college. Mr. Siler has been hard at work ever since he decided to undertake the management. He is no stranger in our midst, having labored for a number years in Mecklenburg county, but for the information of those looking for school for their children, we give something of the personal of the faculty.
Rev. Jesse W. Siler is a Presbyterian minister of Franklin Macon county. He graduated from Davidson College in 1885 at the head of his class taking 3 medals; one for oratory, one for essay and one for mathematics. He graduated in 1888 from Union Seminary Virginia with distinction and has since been preaching and is well known through western North Carolina as the State Clerk of Mecklenburg Presbytery.
Mrs. Siler who will have charge of the primary department is regarded as one of the finest primary teachers in the State having graduated from Salem Female Academy, and has taught in Waynesville College, in the Grand School in Raleigh, in Guilford College, Tenn. and has the highest recommendations from Prof. Scarborough, Dr. J. L. M. Curry, and all the Principals with whom she has taught.
The music teacher is Miss A. V. McGeechay, a graduate of Peace Institute, a teacher of 5 years experience, and is just now back from taking a course in vocal and instrumental music in the college of music in Cincinnati. All the teachers are thoroughly competent and equipped for first class work.

Catalogue of A. and M. College.
We have the catalogue of the A. and M. College for 1900. There are 302 students, of whom 195 paid for their education by money earned by themselves. Student work at the College during the year amounted to $8,076.96. It included carpentering, gardening, boiler-tending, engine-tending, dynamo-tending, machine-work, stock-feeding, wood-cutting, milking, plumbing, sweeping, shoe-making, teaching, farming, bell-ringing, trumpeting, well-cleaning, dining-room services and janitor's work.
The College includes (1) a high-grade technological department for the education of engineers, architects, chemists, electricians, agriculturists and horticulturists; (2) a manual training department for the training of skilled workmen in all lines of manual labor requiring skill.
The total expenses for pay students are $125 a year; for students holding scholarships, $50. Write to President Geo. T. Winston, Raleigh, N. C., for a catalogue.
The Game that was Not Played.
The Yorkville Equivocal of Friday again takes up that base-ball matter—the game that was never played. We can't see that the further agitation of the subject in our paper would accomplish any good, as we could not convince the Yorkville team that they did not play the game of ball, and so we will drop the matter with this issue.
Registered.
We have endeavored to get the total registration of precincts all over the county but have not been successful. We give those we have.

County Correspondence.

McAdenville.
Little George Dewey the 19 months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Dalling died at their home in Charlotte Friday evening; the remains were brought here to Mrs. Dellinger's father's Mr. L. A. Reynolds, from whence the funeral was conducted by their pastor Rev. B. L. Hoke Sunday morning. The little body was laid to rest in the family burying ground at Hickory Grove.
There was another young life went out here Sunday morning, it was the little year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Mangum. The little one had been ill for some time and steadily grew worse until death relieved its suffering. The remains were laid to rest at Ooshon Monday morning.
Mr. Chas. Lay and Miss Maggie Wilson were married Sunday morning by someone having authority to tie knots in South Carolina where nearly all our young people go to get married lately.
Mr. Coleman Howard of Denver is visiting his mother-in-law Mrs. H. R. Wilson.
Mr. Cleopha McCullum and family have moved here from Hope Mills.
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Browning (not the poet) who have been sojourning in Concord for some time are among us again.
We are glad to see Dr. L. N. Glenn on our streets again after his vacation at Cleveland Springs. He was called into service as soon as he landed.
Mr. E. S. Moore and family went over to Mount Holly Sunday. He says they had a very heavy rain and considerable wind over there Sunday evening.
Rev. W. E. Ware, presiding Elder of the Shelby district was here Saturday evening and presided at the third quarterly conference of the McAdenville church. Mr. Ware preached for us Saturday night and again on Sunday night at which time the Lord's Supper was celebrated.
Mr. James Stowe is taking lessons in the dye house and intends to learn the art of dyeing.
Miss Ella Preamly of Gastonia visited friends here Sunday. McAdenville is her old home.
Mr. Geo. Sherr of Charlotte, was over Sunday on very particular business which could not be attended to by proxy as it is an affair of the heart.
Mr. Mack Kale Superintendent of the Nims mill was over here to see Mr. John Abernathy Sunday evening. Mr. Abernathy has been an invalid for some time.
Messrs. J. H. Walters and brother, M. A. Walters returned from New York where they have been attending a barber's school. Mr. M. A. Walters has accepted a position in a first class barber shop in Greensboro and Mr. J. H. Walters has opened a shop here these young men are worthy and we believe deserve success.
Mrs. Sarah E. Fisher, is on a visit to her son, Mr. E. H. Fisher.
The McAdenville post office is lively, it moves about pretty fast, the last move is to Bethune's store.
The Amendment has gained all the ground there is to gain for all our people are a unit on it and are very much enthused over the prospect of having a white man's government.

Lowell Locals.
(The file for last week's issue.)
Dry, dry weather down this way makes things kind to dull, but still people are going and coming all the time.
Wheat threshing etc, keeps the farmers in a hustle. Wheat is generally good but what has become of oats? farmers are still working in their crops around here but will pretty well finish up this week.
A protracted meeting has been going on at the Baptist church since the second Sunday. Rev. Mr. Smith is assisting Mr. Vipperman.
Mr. Haywood Barry took violently ill last Saturday and had several convulsions but is improving some. He had been unwell for some time.
