Little Mine Joannal. daynes was the ring girl.

The beautiful and impressive ceremony was conducted by Dr. J. R. Howerton of the First Presbyterian church, Charlotte N. O. and Bav. D. M. Austin of the Baptist church.

The bride wore white, a lovely creation of tucks, satin ribbon, and lace. Her well was held in place by white the sers and maides hair fern, and carried a bosquet of brides roses tied with white satin ribbon. The maid of honor was diessed in green organdy with white satin sash and her bonquet was white carnations. She organcy with white satin sash and her bouquet was white carnations. She was lovely and striking in appearance. The brides maids wore white organdy with green suches and they carried graceful ferns. The little ring girl was dressed in pink silk and bore the ring upon a silver waiter. There were four little ribbon girls dressed in white and they handled the ribbon most gracefully.

and they handled the ribbon most gracefully.

The bride and groom left on the 11 a. m. Carolins & Northwestern train for an extended tour to Washington. New York, Saratoga, Niagara Falls and Montreal, Canada. On their return they will make their home at Spencer Mountain.

The bride is one of Lincoln's loveliest girls, justly esteemed for her lovely and amin's e character, her beauty and vivacity. She is the daughter of Mrs. Joannah Wilkie and the late L. T. Wilkie, who was at the time of his death and for many years previous, the treasurer of this county.

The groom is secretary-treasurer of the Spencer Mountain Cotton Mills, a finally equipped and successful business man, an exceedingly popular young gentleman.

CLIPPINGS PROM EXCHANGE

The News From Surrounding Connile Lincoln Journal: Charles Manney lost about 200 hushels of wheat near Crouse Thursday of last week. The engine of the thresher set fire to the straw, and destroyed all the unthreshed wheat. About 70 hushels which had already been threshed was saved.

The woods near Whitener's were set on ite by sparks from a threshing machine one day last week and burned over eight acres of woodland before it could be extinguished.

could be extinguished.

A bridge on the Carolina & Korth-Western near Cliffs was destroyed by fire on Thursday night of hat week. It caught from a coal from the engine.

We regret exceeding to learn that Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Woodward will soon leave Lincolnton for a new home in Georgia. Mr. Woodward for several years past has been superintendent of the Blm Grove Cotton Mills which position he has resigned to accept a like position with a much larger salary in Georgia. He is not only a very fine mill man, but he is a deservedly popular gentleman and a dervoted church worter. In their removal Lincolnton and the Methodist oburch will sust-in a distinct loss. They will heave in about four weeks.

Yorkville Yeoman: It will be news to those of our readers who have not already heard it, that Miss Ella C. Davidsoo, who is now in the Chinese mission field, is to the married about October let to hev. Lacy L. Little, who amisted Bev. W. G. Neville with services at the Yorkville Presbyterian church during the past weet. We are informed that Miss Davidson had addressed a letter to the ladies missionary society of the Presbyterian church at this place stating the fact as we have given it. Mr. Little is a charming gentleman and made a good impression Youkville Yeoman: It will be news given it. Mr. Little is a charming gentleman and made a good impression on our people during his short visit here. He, like Miss Davidson, is a missionary to Chlua, and is now in this country on a visit.

A prominent farmer living within four or five miles of Yorkville, but who has bound us to secreey so far as his name is concerned, because of the notoriety attached, has secured the best return from his wheat crop. He had several acres sowed, all of which he treated alike. One half acre of this was measured off and teated. It yielded 15½ bushels, or at the rate of 51 bushels per acre. He is a thoroughly reliable man, and we would accept his statement about anything as tree.

Cleveland Star: The Street Fair and Carnival to be held at Shelby on the 7th, 8th and 9th of August has a two fold advantage; one is the advertising and money making the town gets on the week of the fair, while the other is the fact that the prime object of this fair is to collect products of the farm, fovests, mines, etc., of this section to be used on the great tour through the North and in the Southern Expositions to be held in Northern cities to to show the wonderful natural resources of the territory covered by the Seaboard Air Line. Hence it can be readily be seen why the business men of Sheiby have raised a contribution of more than two hundred dollars to secure this fair and why the industrial department of the Seaboard Air Line is co-operating in this great work of Grover last Saturday night and made a raid on everything in the store. The safe was blown open and every cent of money taken. There is no clew to the soosy taken. There is no over to be-robbers, but they are supposed to be-long to a gang of professional thieves.

Ming Humbert Assessmented.

A cablegram from Rome, Italy, mys:

King Humbert, of Italy, was assessinated at Monaz Sunday night. He was shot three times by Angelo Bressi, an anarchist, who was promptly arrested and who narrowly escaped violence at the head of the case. the hands of the people who witnessed the assessination.

The king had been attending a dis-tribution of prizes in connection with tribution of prises in connection with a gymnastic competition which took place about 10 o'clock. He had just entered his carriage with his nid-de-camp, and the cherrs of the crowd, when he was struck by three revolver shots fixed in quick succession. The effect of the latest news from China was to freshen the bope that the ministrs were still alive, and that our government would soon be in direct communication with Minister Conger The reason of the brightening of the hope is a letter from Mr. Fowler, American consul at Che Fu dated noon July 29.

"A letter from the German legation, dated Sist instant, received at Trendated Sist instant, received at Trendated

"A letter from the German legation, dated Sist instant, received at Trentrain. German legated to dead and 13 wounded. Chinese ceased their attack on the 19th. Baron Von Ketteler's body said to be safe. The Austrian, Italian, Dutch and Spanish legations destroyed and the French partially. A letter from the Japanese legation dated 23d, arrived at Tien-Tein on 25th. Ten battaiions of Chinese shelled the legations consecutively from the 30th Ten battaions of Chinese shelled the legations consecutively from the 90th of June and stopped on the 17th, but may renew. The enemy are decreasing. The German, Russian, American British and half the Japanese and French legations still defended. Jaranese say they have food for six days but little ammunition. The Emperor and Empress are reported at Pekin." But all is not so bright as would seem. The sdvance on Pekin has not yet commenced, and many think all the foreigners in Pykin will be murdered as soon as the advance is commenced.

as soon as the advance is commenced. If the ministers have been murdered or are murderd before the allies reach them, we will never know when the event took place. The Chinese of course would say that it happened after the advance on Pekin was begun.

The anti loreign sentiment appears to be spreading all over China, and every tadication points to the opinion that there is going to be a war and a

New Orleans' Stlot.

New Orleans for the past week has been the scene of one of the most ter-ritle riots witnessed in that city since the assessination of Chief of Police Hennessey by the Musica.

There have been several racial strains

There have been several racial strains between the negroes and whites of late in consequence of the measures of the Legislature directed against the negroes, and complaints that the negroes had grown impertinent and insulting to the whites in the public parks and places. A number of burglaries have been reported here the last two weeks. The public and police suspected negroes of being the burglars and have been on the lookout for all suspicious blacks.

Thursday night at mid-night they were

Thursday night at midnight they were notified that there were two suspicious negroes at the corper of Dyrades and Washington streets. Sergeant Aucoin Washington streets. Sergeant Aucoin with two officers went to the corner. Only a few words were exchanged, when the negroes drew their revolvers and opened fire. Some fifteen shots in all were fred, when it was discovered that one of the negroes, who was subsequently identified as Robert Charles, had shot and fatally wounded Officer August Mora, one bullet penetrating his arm, the other his thigh. After receiving a slight wound himself, he escaped in the darkness.

Charles was afterwards located in a house and in the attempt to arrest him 4 policemen were killed and 4 fatally wounded. The excitement grew so intense that the mayor ordered out 1500 extra police. Quiet was restored with difficulty after several days riot and disorder. Several hundred preces were frightened out of the city.
