A destructive ball storm ewept through the Linecile and Indian Creek Mills method by a tefrific roaring and wind. At Lincola Mills all the glass in the north end of the mill was beaten out and in a number of houres. the glass was not only knocked out, but the said the way of crops and fruit was literally destroyed. At the same time another hail storm raged a mile or two lower down, run-ning a pirallel course, and extending as far as Long Shoals Mills, where hall fell for taenty minutes, bat owing to the smallness of the soces, did no serious damage. On the farms of W. M. Gutes, Henry Carpenter and A. M. Beep, everything growing in its path was heaten to the ground and de-struyed. The Carolina and North-Western

LINCH MENTION. It has been decided to open the State Fair, this year on Mondav and con-tinue it through the entire week, be-ginning October 22. Friday has been designated as "Educational Day." Secretary Pogue states that the out-look points to one of the most success-ful fairs in the history of the Associa-tion. The Carolina and North-Western Bailroad people are getting to work in earnest broadening the gauge. Several contractors with large forces of hauds are at work on the usper end between Hickory and Lanoir and that part of the road will be of standard guage within 90 days. Lieutenant R. louk points to eue of the most success-ful fains in the history of the Associa-tion. Solicitor, Ed. W. Pou, has formally success nomination for Cos grass in this the 4th (Raleigh) District. The race now appears to be between him and Congressman Atwater, though Messa. Shaw of Yance and Sprull of Franklin will also be in the race. The vote of Wake County will be divided, ehiefly between Pou and Atwater. A hot political and personal quarrel between editors Ballay and Daniels, of the Biblical Background (as and Observer, the former utilizing the col-ame of the Morning Post, has en-live and things in this sect o' the woods during the past week, originating in the controversy of whether the negro issue should be revived in the Presi-dential campaign in this State. Mr. Balley's letter to the Post hast Friday is one of the severest 'documents'' printed on a linotype this season and is "bot enough to have melted the type the controversy baving some dars ago developed inte a personal one. The Democratic State Executive Committe has been called to meets here on the seaning of September 5th. 'to provide machinery for holding a 'seas-torial primary and for the transaction of other business connected with the national campaign.'' It is intimated that the quantion of making the 'unig-ger' as 'innou'' again may also be sei-tied by the committee at this meeting. Judge George H. Brown denies the report that he is to be a candidate for U. S. Senator at the primary, or that he intends to meek tho nomination for Chief Justice two years hucca. The Lathersan of N. Shelby Aurora : Chief Jones has on exhibition at his office an immense rat-tissnake, which was killed last week by Mrs Fins McCurry on Luckadoo Monutain the Golden Valley section, Butherford County. His anakeship measures 5; feet in langth and is nine inches in circumference, with 14 rat-ties and a button. In staffing the skin 2; gallons of brau was used. The trait of this monster hid been frequent-iy seen in the valley and it has been sppropriately named, the "King of Butherford." Mrs. McCurry was walk-ing along the road when ahs heard the weird and blood-curdling rattle of the reptile. Just ahead of her in the mid-de of the road lay the "King" colled, ready for battle and sending out his deadly warning. Nothing danned, the coursgeous woman procured a long pole and attacking the sake soon dis-putched him although he showed signs of fight. Mr. McCurry brought the skin here Saturday and it was pur-chased by Chief Jones. It is one of this section, and is a genuine "diamond rattler" one of most deadly and danger-ous known. S. M.
