desintation of Charley and a published at the Thomsoville trage, that the utildres is that ; are field, clothed, sheltered, and and and an desired less than five cheested at a cost of less than five bolings per councils is an interesting cas. from when it is considered that is-event on the money invested in the speed on the money invested in the speed on the money invested in the speed angle south of the footieution and interest are not invited in the calculation. The abovelog is still remarkable shough to arrest studies Attention. At the present cost of tir-ing, these of us who stay at home and try be invo there and it different or even impressive to make the investit manual sever the base cost of the lood and its about the mass cast of the tood and his properation, to say nothing of rests, chething, and graded achool tames. And jot there are some to whom the statement of the orphanage paper, as a bread and mest problem, will appear remarkable in mething encept that if was thought worth making at all. It was a matter of common discussion among the brunchropers who heard of it that a lady in Gastonin, not so many means ago, livel on 30 canto a week while saving meany to go to the Paris Repeation on. This did not include rent for the confectable room she bird, ner do up suppose the cost of the fuel communed by the oil store and in cost-ing was counted in, but it was under steed to cover her grocery bills for a week. In mother instance we learn that a citizen of Gastratia has sent his ten to a distant county to a good contracts to a contract county the restore that he could support and educate his children there for less than the cost of apporting them alone at home. Such results as those or bare assued in des partly to economy, as is blue-seted in case of the lady with whom not many of us would like to board, and partly to the lower seat of home raised supplies at the orphanage and the raral school. But the big argument in the achievements of the orphanage in the constitut school is the same as and the boarding school is the marveloue the argument for trusts -the marveloue ower of economy in well organized

If nobudy else enjoys reading an article from the Torkville Enquirer on the first puge, estitled "As to the Rights of Way," we feel sure that our board of County Commissioners will. In an ers o' good road building, it does seem that the citizan whose estate is benefitted more than harmed by good ronds would say to the outhorities "Here, here is my land now, just put the road exactly where it belongs." But they do not always my that. Still, the Enguirer lays down a propestion very difficult to dispute when it says that the only means by which good reads can be secured in by in-dividual liberality. The opposite spirit, so often born of "unudulterated mesoness" is the one that gives the county authorities trouble. It is so well illustrated in the story of the fellow who traded his eggs for a duraing meedle, that we refer our readers to the article named on our first page for the excellent moral that adorns the tale and the apposite tale that so heppily points the moral.
