FOR GOVERNOR

al Address to file Felw Citizana he Asseunce: didacy for the Des

To the People of the State:

Unable to answer all letters sectived. I take this method of anouncing to my file ad a broughout the State, that I will chroughout the State, that I will be I candidate before the next Democratic State Convention for the office of Governor.

Having been actively canvassing the State for twenty-six years, the people know me, so I will open no headquarters and eater into no acramble for the nomination. I can campaign for my party and beg votes for my fitends, but it is a new role to electioneer for myself, so I will submit myself into the people hands, asking them to let my candidary be known, so that those descript to aid me can do so or meeting that I get, in the primaries, all the votes to which I may be autified.

To be Governor of North Casolina, in a high and landable ambition, and I must carnetly desire to attain the high office, as both a others of the people's estem, and a proof of their confidence in me.

If nominated, I will canvass the State, using every effort to make Dameratic success, which means, the State's safety

lev. John Crisp, an Agud Wa-Minister, Has Two age Things to Happen to Him in Gastenia Says Old Pharach Was a Ruscal.

Control of the sense of the sen frame, smooth shaven, and has but one good eye in an eagle-like face. His voice is strong and deep. He is hale, hearty and jovial, notwithstanding his and jovial, notwithstanding his seventy-three years. When he tells you he was clearing a new ground in August a year ago, one can easily believe it—in fact could just as easily believe it if he had said August a mouth ago. He is a man of strong character, but of good-humor, and he loves the companionship and he loves the companionship of his fellowmen. Though not learned after the manner of men who have had better opportunities, Mr. Crisp, is still well read in the plain Scriptures and necessarily better versed in practical exposition versed in practical exposition than in fine-spun theological theories. Take that Scripture, for instance, wherein it is said that the Lord hardened Pharaoh's heart. "I don't believe," says Mr. Crisp," that the Lord hardened Pharaoh's heart to make him a rascal so that He could punish him, but I believe He punished old Pharaoh because he was a rascal."

For years and years this

For years and years this eteran minister has toiled with his big strong hands through the week and preached the gospel with his big strong voice on Sunday. He toiled on his farm and preached to his neighbors far and near. Far and near over the mountains of Watauga, Caldwell, and Wilkes, they know him, and like him, and honor him for his work's sake. The towns are few and far apart in these mountain counties, and Mr. Crisp found his trip to Gas-tonia an interesting one.

"What brought you to our town, Mr. Crisp," THE GAZETTE man.inquired.

"The steam cyar," he said, looking sternly at us to see if we were right in the upper story.

We explained.

"Oh, yes," he said. "I don't know that I ever would 'a' come but for Jim Moore. He brought me. Saw him at the Caldwell Association. Had'nt seen my aister in twenty years—she's George Bowman's wife, here and I never expected to see her again in this world. But Brother Jim Moore, he asked me to come, he brought me with him Saturday evening."

"Two strange things happened to me yesterday," said Mr. Crisp with a gleam of mischief on his countenance, "things that never happened to me before—I wore a neck-tie and preached in a city."

Mr. Crisp returned to Lenoir yesterday morning on the steam car.

Good luck to you, Uncle Johnie! Don't wait so long to come again. Long may you live and continue to be useful, blessing the world with your sunsy face and golden heart!

The proprietors of the botel at Hamlet who gratified Booker Washington's appetite with a breakfast some weeks since, have been invited by citizens of that town to seek another abiding place, it is said.—Wilmington Star.

Laneir Cotton Mill Boubled.

Lenoir cotton mill, which is under the management of Capt.

J. D. Moore and Superintendent

J. O. White was stopped last week to make connection with the engine to start up the new mill. The mill is a 3,360 spindle plant, using Egyptian cotton and spinning fine yarn. The mill when it starts next week will have 6,270 spindles. It is one of the best managed and most desirable mill properties in the State. F. P. White, of Gas-tonia, and T. A. Wright, also of Gastonia, are the capable day and night superintendents.

Death of Mrs. J. F. Reinhardt.

Mrs. Lechy Reinhardt, of Lincoln county, died on Mon-day the 21st inst and was buried on Tuesday the 22nd, at New Hope Methodist church, the Rev. W. H. Wilson, of Stanley, conducting the services, the Rev. J A. Gray, her pastor, being too unwell to officiate. A large number of friends and relatives from Lincoln, Iradell, Mecklenburg, and Gast counties attended the funeral. Gaston

Mrs. Reinhardt was a daughter of the late Mat Smith, and was born at Vesuvias Furnace in the year 1848 and was married to Jno. F. Reinhardt in 1871. Ten children blessed this happy marriage, eight of whom with the father survive.

She was a woman richly en-dowed with those Christian virtues which make the world seem brighter and linger in the memory of those who knew her. A loving husband, three daughters and five sons must suffer this great loss.

Mr. Reinhardt has represented Lincoln county for a number of times in the State Legislature and is one of the State's most progressive farmers. C. F. S.

RAILROAD FARE PAID TO CHARLOTTE

With the opening of our two Millinery Departments the plans for the Wall opening throughout Charlotte's Big Department Store; will have been completed. Hower before in the commercial life of Charlotte, has there been such a display of everything usually carried in the city's Big Department Stores as will be shown at this opening. We believe our stock is the largest, and the heat celected one ever shown in the city of Charlotte. Our one great sim has been to interence the volume of business and we are doing his by putting the lowest possible price on every article handled in the twenty-hye departments of our stores.

In order that our patrons living outside of Charlotte may attend this Grand opening we are going to offer the following inducement which will be good for six days.

BEST ALWAYS :: CHEAPEST.

And the best in photography can be had only at our. studio. No one can turn out firs, class work without good instruments and a direct north sky-light, and it fitted with ground glass.

Why are all first-class galleries up stairs? Because the light is so much better—no reflection from the ground. And we needn't waste time telling you now to dress—we make correct pictures, we turn out beautiful and artistic work, and let you be the judge.

Just a word here—judge a man by his work, not by his ads, for often they are copied from men who know their business.

We guarantee to please you and to give you all that there is in photography. We are now making 200 cabinet photos for two of the great Barlow's Minstrels. They claim that the negatives made by us are the best they ever had out of hundreds of sittings.
