I beg to thank you for the counterly entended me in giving me the opportunity of denying totally in the columns of your esteemed paper, the truth of cer-tain statements against the Catholic Church, appearing some time ago over the signature of Rev. Mr. Morgan. I now ask you to insert in your next issue the following final communication from me on the subject. I shall be very brief; and shall bere state that information as to what Catholics really believe and have slways believed, will be most cheerfully siven at the Catholic Church in Gastonia; and books supplied freely to any one desirons of knowing Catholics and their religion as they really are. In your last issue Rev. Mr.

Morgan states that he does not desire to wrong Catholics, but to know only the truth and that he is sincere. We will not doubt his words; and since he has given what he calls authorities for those old misrepresentations and calumnies against the Church, we are quite able to realize that Mr. Morgan can not of course be wiser than such so called authorities as he may have. We hope he will not consider it a discourtesy when we say that these so called authorities are quite worthless, and notoriously so, as regards their treatment of Catholic doctrine and history; and that to invoke them is in most cases, merely to substitute the statements of one preacher for those of another. The whole procedure illustrates excellently the propagation of these old misrepresentations and calumnies. Once made they were copied by generation upon generation of preachers, without any per-sonal and conscientious investigation of their truth: They have been handed down on trust from one to the other, and though proven untrue, by unimpeachable historians, Protestants as well as Catholics, they die hard, because those making use of them do not wish to lose their In refutations of these calumnies, I tefer those desirous of knowinig the truth, to the acts of our conncils, to our most ac-credited authors on doctrine, and to the most recent scholarly Protestant historians, English and German, who have, from the copius stores of documents now available, rendered those long cherished misrepresentations aud calumnies against Catholics untenable. Cyclopedias and ancient popular text books, no matter how many editions of them may have been publiched them may have been published, are no authorities for Catholic history and doctrine. Rev. Mr. Morgan holds the same language on this subject, as those aucient, discredited text books, or even as a modern Cyclopedia, but to use these as authorities for Catholic history and doctrine provokes only a smile among well-read men. Catholics do not now and never did, believe such stuff as is contained in those books, a thousand caluminous repitions to the contrary notwithstanding. Authorities, your correspondent should know, are not counted but, weighed. I maintain that none of the charges contained in the so called authorities are THE PENSION LIST. oldaboro Annua est Figures Which Show Bate a high New Suslauss to Coming In. The Sounded war is responsible for a opsiderable number of new presions, says the New York World. From the commissioner of pensions' latest report (for 1905) the following figures, which show the rate at which "new business" is coming in, are taken:

The army, savy and pension expendi-tures of the United States added together already amount to $318,000,000 per year, stated in round figures. Secretary Moody's recould again estimate calls for $35,000,000 per year more for the navy, and the Ganad Army's tweive dollar a month service pension would doubtless call for $35,000,000 more. If congress yields to both de-mands our total expenditure for army. navy and pensions will very soon be close to $400,000,000 a year. That amount will far exceed the present ce footing expenditure for military and naval purposes of any other nation, excepting only Great Britain, whose estimates still include provision for a standing army of 450,000 men, where prior to the Boer war only 140,000 were provided for. On the peace footing (1805) the British expenditure for both irmy and navy was about $255,000,000. It is proposed to speud nearly as much on the United States army and mavy and as much more besides for pe as would give us a second navy larger than Great Britalo's.

Beserigtion of Congressman T. D. Sullivan's Estry into the House. Alderman Timothy P. Sullivan re-Osmed to New York recently from Washington, where he saw "Hig Tim" Sullivan sworn in as a member of the house of ropresentatives, says the New York Post.

"It was great," said the aiderman. "The New York city members of the house are the finest looking lot of mon in congress. They are the flowers of the capitol, and Timothy D. Sullivan is the orchid of the bunch. He and McClelian got great sendoffs." One of Sullivan's Sixth district lieutenants, who also witnessed the opensaid:'
