LOCAL AFFAIRS.

—Change B. G. Rhyme to C. B. Rhyme on your phone list.
—Don't forget to meet the tax-listers at the city hall Friday.
—Central Committee meeting at four o'clock to-morrow afternoon.
—The Fourth of July is coming with a whoop and will get here on the 2nd.
—A sore foot has been about to lay off Mr. W. O. Gattis for a day or two. A troublesome abscess seems to be following a bruise.
—A big sewing party consisting of Messrs. J. J. Falls, Mosca Roman, John F. Holland, L. F. Groves, T. M. Faysoux and Capt. Geo. F. Bacon, spent last night at Tuckersege.
—We hear that a gray bachelor of Stanley has been plowing up his yard to sow peas and enrich the soil, so that he may have a lawn and a fence and a swing and a rustic and a girl.
—The telephone which was removed from the freight depot several months ago by order of Supt. H. Baker was re-installed June 1st. The phone was put in and is paid for by the Southern. The number is 73.
—"I want you to state on my authority," said Rev. W. L. C. Killian the other day, "that Mr. Anderson Davis has the best garden in town. I've seen it and know." And Bro. Killian mounted his wheel and rolled noiselessly away.
—A list of young men who have recently enlisted in the United States Army at the Charlotte recruiting station, published in Sunday's Observer, contains the name of Gaston Mitchell of Gastonia. He enlisted for the infantry and was sent to Columbus, Ohio.
—A new $500 cash register attracts attention at the Baltimore Kacket. It is mounted on a beautiful piano-polished quarter oak cabinet, which contains six money drawers, in which the money for as many salesmen is separately deposited. It has the usual means for registering the sale on a slip for the customer, and retaining a copy for the store.
—The following young people will return the latter part of the week from Due West where they have been attending Erskine College and Due West Female College: Miss Beattie Anthony, Miss Amelia Crawford, Miss Willie Falls, and Mr. Grier Carson. Mr. Edgar Long will go from Due West to Waynesville as a delegate to the Southern Students' Conference of the Y. M. C. A.

Mrs. Samuel Clements (Mark Twain) died in Florence, Italy, Sunday. The body will be brought to the United States for interment.
THE LADIES favor painting their churches, and therefore we urge every Minister to remember we give a liberal quantity of the Loggman & Martine Paint toward the painting.
Wear and cost like gold.
Don't pay $1.50 a gallon for Linseed Oil (worth 60 cents) which you do when you buy other paints in a can with a paint label on it. 8 & 8 make 16, therefore when you want fourteen gallons of paint, buy only eight of L. & M. and mix six gallons pure Linseed Oil with it, and thus get paint at less than $1.20 per gallon.
Many houses are well painted with four gallons of L. & M. and three gallons of Linseed Oil mixed therewith.
These Celebrated Paints are sold by GASTONIA HARDWARE Co., Gastonia
LINDSEY & PHIPPS, Stanley

PERSONAL MENTION.

—Mrs. G. W. Kagan spent yesterday with friends in Charlotte.
—Miss Annie Plank left yesterday for Charlotte where she will attend a business college during the summer.
—Mr. Frank T. Ferguson and his daughter, Miss Alice, were in Gastonia Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Kell.
—Messrs. R. W. Padden and Fred Cahay went to Charlotte Friday night to take the Rehearsal degree in Oddfellowship.
—Mr. T. M. Kendrick will leave Friday for a three weeks' stay in the mountains, principally at Lenoir and Blowing Rock.
—Rev. J. W. Brown left yesterday morning for the city of Raleigh where he has accepted the pastorate of the Presbyterian church.
—Mr. W. W. Moore, Supt. of the Manchester cotton mill at Rock Hill, was here Friday guest of Mr. M. D. Wane at the court.
—Mrs. J. C. Waldron of Hendersonville is expected to arrive the latter part of the week to visit the family of her sister, Mrs. M. H. Shafter.
—Dr. J. C. Galloway went to Due West yesterday to attend the closing exercises of Erskine and Trinity Colleges. He will return home Thursday.
—Miss Jessie Shelton left yesterday morning for Charlotte where she will attend the latter part of the week.
—Mr. Ralph Rankin returned Thursday night from Charlotte where he has spent several months. He has accepted a position at the University of North Carolina.
—Messrs. John B. Ferguson and Robert W. Carson returned home Saturday night from Raleigh where they finished their examinations and did not care to linger.
—Col. and Mrs. Alexander Savage, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Davis, left yesterday afternoon to visit Col. Savage's sister, Mrs. Bryan, in Spartanburg.
—Mr. L. L. Hardin left on No. 11 yesterday for Spartanburg to attend the commencement exercises of Wofford College. His brother, Mr. R. J. Hardin, Jr., is a member of the graduating class.
—Mr. Jno. H. Smith of York, was in Gastonia Saturday evening on his way home. He had been to McAdenville, where a child of his sister, Mrs. Campbell Roberts, died at one o'clock Saturday afternoon.
—Prof. J. S. Wray, Miss Ocie Shuford, and Miss Mamie Love left yesterday morning for Raleigh to attend the Teachers' Assembly and will return Saturday.
—Mr. P. F. Hall leaves for Marched this morning.
—Mr. R. L. Deas and wife arrived Saturday afternoon from Pell City, Ala. and will probably make Gastonia his home. Mr. Deas is a master machinist and had charge a few years ago of the electric light plant in Birmingham.
—Mrs. J. C. Galloway, Miss W. C. McKemy, Mrs. R. M. Stephenson, Miss Belle Crawford, Miss Lela Lettie and Mr. J. T. McMill left Saturday afternoon for Due West to attend the commencement exercises of Erskine and Trinity Colleges.
—Mr. Leslie M. Adams, who has been at the Printer's Home at Denver, Col., for some time for treatment, writes his friends here that he is next improving his health and expects to return home soon. He is a native of Gastonia and worked in Charlotte for several years.—Charlotte News, 4th.
—Mr. T. M. Cooper, of the Elmfield Lodge, arriving today in response to a telegram notifying him of the serious illness of his little sister Hannah with diphtheria as caused by Mr. Cooper's father. She is now much better and apparently out of danger from the disease. Mr. Cooper returned to Elmfield Sunday night.
—Mr. Hugh Ware arrived Saturday from Birmingham to spend a two weeks' vacation with his mother, Mrs. A. Ware, and his mother, Mrs. J. A. Ware, at Kings Mountain. Mr. Ware is a clerk for the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad Company at Birmingham. His mapy friends in Gastonia are glad to greet him again and to know of his success in his chosen work.

Medical Men Meet.

The physicians of the county had their monthly meeting yesterday in the city hall. A paper on "Flux in Children" was read by Dr. J. M. Sloan, and one on "Malaria" was presented by Dr. S. A. Wilkins of Dallas.

Miss Stokes Organist.

At a meeting of the Board of Stewards of Main street Methodist church held Tuesday night Miss Elise M. Stokes of Yorkville was elected organist. Miss Stokes is a member of the graded school faculty and has filled the position of organist at this church acceptably for the past month or more. Prof. J. H. Separk, Mr. C. M. Nolen, and Mr. J. K. Dixon were appointed as a committee on music.

THE CHANCE OF A LIFETIME

To furnish your home for a nominal sum. We are selling all furniture at cost. Williams Furniture Co. 7tn

Rev. J. W. Griffin Married.

Rev. J. W. Griffin, who has been making his home with his sons in Gastonia, has joined the order of ex-widowers. He was married last Sunday morning and is now keeping house at his home in Stanley. His bride is Mrs. Rosa Hamrick, daughter of Mr. Joseph Stroup of Iron Station, and the ceremony was performed at 9 o'clock Sunday morning, by Rev. C. W. Pasour, near Cherryville, at the home of Mr. Wade Holmes, who is a brother-in-law of the bride. It is hard to get ahead of the widowers when they make a start.

A Word from Texas.

"Please find enclosed $1 for my renewal," writes Mr. Jno. E. Ferguson from Texas, "I don't want to miss an issue. Crop prospects are good. Wheat and oats very good, but too much rain at present. Harvesting has begun."

List Your Taxes.

The following appointments for listing taxes have been posted by Mr. W. A. Falls, Jr.: He will be at Spencer Mountain the 9th; at the City Hall in Gastonia the 10th; at the Arlington cotton Mill the 11th, Fisgab the 14th and Crowder's Creek post office the 16th.

Mr. Aaron Pierce Married.

In Dallas Thursday afternoon, Mr. Aaron Pierce of the Old Mill became an ex-widower by marrying Mrs. Alice Warren of the same mill. They drove over to Dallas to have the ceremony performed and took nearly all of their Gastonia friends by surprise. May they enjoy much happiness.

Dedication Services.

The first of the services preliminary to the dedication of the Main Street Methodist church will take place on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock when Rev. C. M. Campbell, of Thomasville will preach. Rev. W. M. Bagby will preach on Thursday evening, Rev. H. L. Atkins on Friday evening and Dr. G. H. Detwiler on Sunday evening. The dedicatory sermon will be preached on Sunday morning by Bishop A. W. Wilson of Baltimore, Md.

Baby Sleeps by its Mother.

Four months ago Mrs. Jasper Rhyme was buried at Chapel church, leaving three little children, one of them a babe just a week old. Yesterday this little babe, William Boger, was laid to rest beside his mother, after funeral services conducted by Rev. W. J. Boger. Mr. William V. Lineberger, the father of Mrs. Rhyme, was in town yesterday to get a casket. The little one died at three o'clock Monday morning. Since the mother's death in February the little babe has been cared for by Mr. Rhyme's mother, who came to live with him. With those who sorrow over the death of this little babe their friends sympathize deeply.

Does Your Piano Need Tuning?

Why let your pianos go to ruin when you have a chance to have them looked after and properly tuned and regulated by one who understands his business and has built up a reputation by giving his patrons the fullest satisfaction. See testimonials of prominent citizens of Merion, Newton, Lincoln, and surrounding towns.
Lincolnton, N. C., May 18, 1904.
We, the undersigned, have had our pianos tuned and repaired by Mr. Chas. C. Burger, and we cheerfully recommend him to any one needing such work done, as he has given perfect satisfaction in every respect, and we recommend him as a competent reliable tuner.
Judge W. A. Hoke, Mrs. Samuel Lanier.

Mr. R. H. Hoke, F. D. Hissam.
Mrs. S. H. Hopkins, R. M. Rosman.
Newton, N. C., Mar. 30, 1904.
I had Mr. C. C. Burger to tune my piano, and am very much pleased with his work. I cheerfully recommend him as a competent piano tuner.
Watson
I can safely recommend Mr. C. C. Burger as a skilled and competent piano tuner, he having overhauled an old piano for me, and made it sound as if it had just come from the factory. Guy S. Kirby, M. D.
