LOCAL AFFAIRS

Remember the Veterans reunion in Gastonia next Thursday.

The Gaston county Bible society meets Thursday at the Lutheran chapel church.

The Gaston county Bible society and the Veterans reunion both come next Thursday.

A big crowd enjoyed Mr. Bert Ormond's picnic and speaking at Old Furnace Saturday.

Court week Sep. 12. List of jurors drawn yesterday by commissioners will appear Friday.

Gastonia Masonic Lodge No. 309 will do second degree work to-night and third degree work Friday night.

The ladies on what was formerly Narrow Gauge street have changed the name of it to South Broad street. The men will take due notice.

A nine weeks' drought in the Bethel section was broken Thursday by good showers, to the great delight of the farmers, whose crops had begun to suffer.

Odd Fellows Gastonia Lodge No. 188 will have a meeting Thursday night at which the initiatory degree will furnish some important work. A full attendance is desired.

A very interesting letter from a brave old veteran on the battle of Chancellorsville was crowded out of this issue. It will appear Friday along with the report of reunion day.

A fine lot of apples was a gift to THE GAZETTE from Mr. W. A. Hendrick Saturday. He said they were of the rattie-bow variety, the seed cutting inside when the fruit was thoroughly ripe.

Fuller's big barbecue and joint speaking and general solicitation comes off at Bessemer City Saturday. The Bessemer folks are preparing for a big crowd and are not likely to be disappointed.

After the first of September, Mr. Jacob Ormond, formerly Register of Deeds, but now keeping books in Kings Mountain, will be book-keeper for the Trenton mill. Mr. E. H. Tuttle, the present book-keeper, will open a cotton broker's office down town.

The Champion Roller Mill belonging to Mr. G. L. Riddle at Bethel, S. C., is in operation again after being closed down for a year. Mr. Riddle informs us that his mill has been completely overhauled and equipped with the most modern machinery obtainable.

A neat new handy telephone list has just been issued by the Piedmont Telephone and Telegraph Company. Superintendent Robinson wishes the patrons reminded once more to call always by number and not by name. Get the number habit. You will not go to your list many times before you will "know by the numbers" you call most frequently. And get it now—THE GAZETTE's number is 50, even 50, same it has been since the first phone was put in away back yonder.

The Road Force.

"I dropped in just to say a word about the road force," remarked Mr. G. M. Shives yesterday. "We Mount Holly folks are pleased with the work. I want you to write it out and sign my name to it, that Eddie-man, Todd, Craig and the other boys are the right squad in the right place. They are pushing the work for everything its worth—they are grading the new road right along. Our folks are well pleased."

A Birthday Party.

On Wednesday night, July 20th, Miss Myrtle Smith of Crowders's Creek, gave a pound party and ice cream supper in honor of her 18th birthday. Miss Beulah Quinn also celebrated her 18th birthday at the same time. Games were played and refreshments of cake and cream served. It was a most happy occasion and was greatly enjoyed by all present. The guests were Misses Ferris Forbes, Emma Carroll, Jessie Nolen, Beulah and Lena Quinn, Lena and Gertrude Glenn, Ethel and Nettie Parham, Bright and Lillie Stroup, Annie and Agnes Gransom, Messrs. —Rev. Brady L. Stroup arrived Friday evening from Corydon, Ind., to spend a week or two with his parents. Mr. and Mrs. Cephas Stroup. During the summer he is supplying the Lutheran church at Corydon. In the fall he will return to the Lutheran Theological Seminary at Chicago. His many friends are glad to see him again.

—Mr. G. M. Shives, of Mt. Holly was a welcome caller at THE GAZETTE office yesterday. He came to mill bringing some last year's wheat along with some new wheat. Mr. Shives adds his voice to the chorus of praise for crops in that section. "They were never better before. I have the finest crop in River Bend and 23 acres of the finest corn in the United States."

A Happy Occasion.

Miss Mamie Love and Mr. Grier Love most delightfully entertained a hundred or more friends last Friday evening with a garden party at the elegant home of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. F. Love. Mr. T. Gary Jordan, of Alabama, was the guest of honor. The spacious, shady lawn with its velvety carpet of green was a scene of unusual beauty over which fell the mellow glow of numberless Japanese lanterns and incandescent lights. Trail and Trix were played, and with happy talk and laughter the hours went swiftly by. Watermelons were served as refreshments.

Mr. Daniel Lowe is no longer a widower. He and Mrs. Celia Holt, both of the Arlington, were married at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed at the bride's home by Esquire W. I. Stowe in his usual happy style.

Hovis's Store Picnic.

A good crowd gave attention Saturday to the splendid speeches of Hons. E. Y. Webb, Wm. H. Lewis, and O. F. Mason at Hovis's store Saturday. The dinner by Mr. Farnsworth was abundant and well barbecued. The best of order prevailed and everybody had a good time.

Mr. Morgan Remains.

Rev. C. I. Morgan, the popular and successful pastor of the Lutheran church here, was recently called to a pastorate near Salisbury. He tendered his resignation to his people here, but they declined to accept it. Sunday morning, much to the delight of his congregation, he announced that he would remain as their pastor.

Dues for Wm. Gamble Camp.

The veterans will meet in the Opera House at ten o'clock sharp Thursday morning. Secretary W. I. Stowe requests us to remind the members of William Gamble Camp to bring their annual dues along. The amount is small, but it helps the cause to have it paid in promptly.

Ice Cream Supper at Plagah.

On next Friday afternoon and evening (the 5th.) the young Peoples Christian Union of the Pisgah Presbyterian church will give an ice cream supper on the lawn at the parsonage for the benefit of Home and Foreign Missions. The hours are from 5 to 10 o'clock, and all members of the congregation and friends generally are cordially invited and urged to attend. Cakes, cream and sberbets will be served, and all may expect a pleasant occasion.

Birthday Found Party.

Miss Rosa Ann, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Stacy at the Loray gave a pound party Saturday July 30, when she was nine years old. About 30 little folks responded, bringing candies, cake and other good things, and while they sang and played the older people looked on and enjoyed it thinking of their own childhood's happy days, and the lines of that famous poem.

*Backward, turn backward, oh time, in thy flight, And make me a child again just for to-night.

A Mountain Party.

A party consisting of the following gentlemen will leave Gastonia Friday, August 5th, in wagons for a ten days' trip into the mountains: Messrs. J. Frank McArver and two sons, J. E. Page, H. H. Spencer, J. A. Hunter, Albert Rankin, Tobe McArver, Robert Jackson, Capt. J. Q. Holland, Dr. H. F. Glenn and Capt. W. I. Stowe. Others may join the party later. They will visit Chimney Rock and other points of interest, probably going as far west as Asheville. The party contains a number of members of the piscatorial fraternity who will take their reels and rods along. They expect to feast every day on mountain trout.

Women of the Twentieth Century Sweeter than their Ancestors.

Statistics prove that the men and women of to-day far exceed their ancestors in health, cleanliness and sweetness. Physical culture is practiced by so many in their own homes, that nature works like a well oiled machine. Outdoor exercise, where practicable, is indulged in frequently. Rubbing and bathing makes them clean, and white odorless powder is dusted on the body or clothing to prevent any unpleasant odors which arise from the body. It is a disagreeable combination to use perfumes to try to conceal perspiration or other odors, so a well known and reputable firm has placed this powder on the market. Women of refinement use it after the bath or when changing garments, and the result is that women were never so sweet as to-day. It is but natural that their disposition should be brighter for they are not in constant fear their acquaintances will discover that they are afflicted with bodily odors and thus shun their society. Men too, are happier, for what lady cares to associate with a man whose toilet seems to be neglected.

No matter how frequently one bathes, the odors are sure to arise, unless this powder has been dusted on the clothing or body. Refined people everywhere use it and this accounts for the increase in health, cleanliness and sweetness. We have a FREE Sample of Spiro Powder, a souvenir post card of Niagara Falls, and a booklet, "Use of Spiro," for every one who calls at our store. J. H. KENNEDY & Co., Druggists, Gastonia, N. C.

Every Old Soldier Wanted—Dinner and a Grand Time for All.

Gastonia wants every old soldier in the county, with his wife and daughters, to be here next Thursday. Some have thought the reunion would be on the second Thursday in August—but it is the first Thursday—next Thursday, August 4th. Let all remember this and be on hand.

The veterans will hold their meetings in the Opera House. The officers of the camp are on the look out for a good speaker for the occasion.

Capt. J. D. Moore will deliver the address of welcome to his comrades.

After the morning exercises, dinner for the veterans, their wives and daughters, will be spread in Dr. Adams' new store building, so rain or shine the dinner will be on hand.

Let every veteran come and be welcome.

The following ladies have been appointed by Mayor Dixon as an entertainment committee to prepare the spread for the old soldiers: Mesdames M. H. Shuford, J. D. Moore, L. A. S. Adams, C. I. Gresham, W. T. Rankin, G. W. Ragan, J. H. Kennedy, M. H. Carry, Frost Torrence, J. K. Dixon. These will appoint twelve young ladies to assist them.

To assist the ladies Mayor Dixon has appointed Messrs. S. M. Morris, Moses Messer, and L. Thompson.

The following little boys have been designated to dispense lemonade to the veterans in the hall: Charles Adams, John Rankin, Averitt McLean, Francis Whitesides, Charles Gray, Harry Shuford.

Mr. Shields To Leave.

Called to the work of Evangelist in Albemarle presbytery, Rev. M. McG. Shields has tendered his resignation as pastor of the Gastonia Presbyterian church. The congregation will be requested next Sunday morning to concur with Kings Mountain presbytery in assenting to his release. Albermarle is a large Presbytery, covering nearly all of the State east of Goldsboro. The Presbyterian cause is not strong in the eastern counties and the work of evangelist appealed so strongly to Mr. Shields that he felt Providentially impelled to accept it. His congregation here, though refusing heretofore, will probably consent to a dissolution of the pastoral relation Sunday morning.

Cut this Out!

Cut this out and paste it in your new telephone list. The following numbers were by error omitted: Line 101—2, S. W. Bradley. —4, J. B. Carson. —5, J. R. Carson. —36, S. A. Lewis. —26, W. A. Robinson. —3, J. R. Shannon.

Change Alexander House to read 149 instead of 249. Call by number always and not by name.

NOTICE.

To the Congregation of the Presbyterian Church: You are hereby notified that at the request of the pastor, Rev. M. McG. Shields, the Session has called a meeting of the Congregation to be held next Sabbath morning, August 7th, 1904, immediately after the morning service, to act upon his request that the said Congregation concur with him in his request to the Presbytery of Kings Mountain for the dissolution of the pastoral relation now existing between him and the said Congregation.

M. MCG. SHIELDS, Moderator. J. Q. HOLLAND, Clerk of Session.
