LOCAL AFFAIRS

School bells ring Monday.
Watch for another Gastonia wedding November 15th.
Let THE GAZETTE follow you when you go off to school.
The first month with an r in it is here. Now for the oyster.
It's September according to the almanac but August by the thermometer.
The Western Union office is again under the management of Mr. Z. B. Harry.
The bill collector was on the war path yesterday trying to effect peaceable settlements in as many cases as possible.
A big white 7-lb. radish was shown us Tuesday by Mr. T. C. Smith. It was about a foot and a half long. It is of the kind that seeds every other year.
The Page Company yesterday shipped to the Unagata Manufacturing Company at Waynesville one of the big planers formerly used in the Gastonia coffin factory. It weighed 4,500 pounds.
A handsome gray granite monument is being turned out by Messrs. Torrence Brothers for the family lot of the late Mr. O. W. Davis in the cemetery. It is seventeen feet high and is a handsome piece of work.
In honor of Miss Etta Spear of Goldsboro, who is the guest of Mrs. Frank Wilson, Miss Ida Purley entertained a few of her friends at progressive trix Tuesday evening. The occasion was thoroughly enjoyed by all present.
The boys and girls are going off to school. These are golden days with these young people; may they use their time well. Loving hearts at home have high hopes for them and THE GAZETTE'S good wishes go with every one of them.
A modern two-story brick store room is to be built by Messrs. Stowe Brothers at Belmont in the near future. Brick for the structure are being made now. It will be erected on the lot adjoining the building now occupied by the warehouse which will be used as a ware house after the completion of the new building.
A card from Rev. R. A. Miller, dated at Tryon, requests us to announce that he will return from his vacation in time to occupy his pulpit at the Lowell Presbyterian church on next Sunday. Mr. Miller has been spending some time at Asheville. He says the weather has been very consistent—raining most of the time.
There is no improvement in the condition of Mrs. E. L. Lieberger. She rests well and under the influence of sedative medicines. Her brother, Mr. Giles Wilson, was here Tuesday night and returned to Spartanburg Wednesday morning. Mrs. Wilson came yesterday afternoon and Mr. Wilson is expected to return shortly.
The school at Hickory Grove taught by Mr. R. W. Carson closed Wednesday. A baseball game on that day between the teams of the Hickory Grove and the Clemmerville school, taught by Miss Mamie Shuford, resulted in a score of 6 to 7 in favor of the former. Mr. Carson will return to Brakely September 13th, where he will this year finish the course.
Temperance Under a Tent.
Gastonia is to have a series of temperance lectures under a tent. Beginning Aug. 29, Dr. N. W. Tracy, advertised as the "Kentucky Temperance Evangelist," will give a course of fourteen lectures in twelve days with moving picture entertainments at night. Mr. F. F. Dawson, the business manager, was in Gastonia Tuesday as the advance agent. He says the tent will seat 1250 people and the entertainment in one night shows 3,000 feet of pictures. Some of the lectures are free, some paid, and at some there will be a "silver offering."

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. Ed Little left yesterday for Rutherfordton to visit relatives.
Mr. R. J. Sifford of Belmont was in Gastonia yesterday on business.
Mr. W. L. Gallant is deputy collector of external revenue for the Gaston Iron Works.
Miss Madge White, of Collettsville, a member of the graded school faculty, arrived yesterday.
Messrs. J. W. and G. P. Stroup were welcome visitors at THE GAZETTE office Tuesday morning.
Miss Annie Watson returned Tuesday to her home at Yorkville after a visit to Miss Edith Adams.
Mr. W. P. Upton is now baggage master at the station. Mr. Raymond Underwood will go to school.
Mrs. R. B. Babington and little Miss Mary Love are spending the week with relatives at Stanley Creek.
Messrs. O. J. E. S. and N. L. Houser, three brothers from Cherryville, were visitors in Gastonia yesterday.
Mr. Frost Torrence is expected to return to-day from a two weeks' trip to St. Louis, Chicago, New York and other cities.
Messrs. Fred A. Cathey and Hope Brison will leave to-morrow for an extended western trip. They expect to be gone a month.
Mrs. Mary Ward, after spending the summer here with her daughter, Mrs. J. A. Hunter, left Wednesday morning for her Charlotte home.
Mrs. I. R. McFadden left Tuesday for Rock Hill to attend the Steele-Cunningham wedding. The bride, Mrs. Ella Steele, is a sister of Mrs. McFadden.
Mr. T. M. Shelton returned to Charlotte yesterday morning. Mrs. Shelton, with the children, will remain for a few days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Craik.
Mr. James Tiddy, now of Shelby, is here on a visit. He was at the Shelby jail when the recent tragedy occurred there, and gives a graphic account of the tragedy and attending events.
Mr. R. A. Caldwell and Mr. James R. Shannon left yesterday morning for Washington to attend the Manassas maneuvers. Mr. Caldwell is one of Lee's old soldiers and Mr. Shannon one of Jackson's.
Prof. W. W. Brass, principal of the Westminster school at Widesmere, spent yesterday in the city on business. While here he purchased a big lot of furniture from the Little-Williams Company for the equipment of a part of his boarding department.
Mrs. Fred E. Garvin and little daughter Aileen of Newton are the guests of Mrs. Garvin's sister, Mrs. Charles Ford. They came from Charlotte, where Mrs. Garvin has been undergoing treatment for a throat trouble.
Mrs. W. H. Reddish returned yesterday from Morganton where she and Mr. Reddish have been spending a month's vacation. Mr. Reddish will return to-morrow and will fill his pulpit at the First Baptist church Sunday.
Mrs. J. H. Adams, of Gastonia, after a visit of some days to her brothers, Messrs. Frank and Whit Query, in Lower Creek, returned to her home this morning. She was accompanied by Miss Mary Query, who will spend the winter with her aunt—Charlotte News, 29th.
Capt. F. B. Bason left Wednesday afternoon for Raleigh to accompany his son, Mr. George Bason, who goes to enter the A. and M. College. Mr. Bason won a scholarship from the Charlotte graded school at the last commencement. He will take a course in electrical engineering.
Mr. H. G. Brown, with the A. D. Jones company of Greensboro, has been here with Mr. M. B. Briscoe the local manager this week, tuning the instruments sold by the company in this section. Mr. Brown is the company's tuner and keeps the pianos in tune free for one year. He left on the morning train yesterday.
Mr. L. L. Hardin and bride, who were married Wednesday at Asheville, were the guests of Mrs. G. W. Ragan, at Mrs. G. W. Ragan's. They went to Clover Wednesday evening to visit Mr. Hardin's sister, Mrs. M. L. Smith. Mr. and Mrs. Hardin are enroute to their home at Rocky Mount from a honeymoon trip to Western North Carolina.
Miss Emma Rose and Miss Jennie B. Brent arrived yesterday afternoon from Asheville and are the guests of a day or two of Miss Rose's sister, Mrs. J. M. Shoen. They are enroute to their homes at Wadesboro from Asheville where they attended the Confederate Reunion. Miss Brent is sponsor and Miss Rose as maid of honor for the Wadesboro veterans.
Mr. J. B. P. Bryson returned yesterday morning from the big tented reunion of veterans at Asheville. He says there were 3,500 veterans in attendance, and that he saw many a one armed and one-legged man. In one of the meetings it was calculated that there was not a man present under 35 years of age. Those whose mothers were living were tied upon to hold up their hands. Very, very few hands went up.
Mr. J. Q. Rhynes of McAdenville was an agreeable visitor at this office Tuesday morning. He had attended the Farmers' institute at Dallas the day before and was guest of Mr. J. M. Hoffman, who is at work on a history of this county. "I learned something from Mr. Hoffman's records that I didn't know before," said Mr. Rhynes, "and that is, that Mr. Hoffman's grand father and my grandfather were brothers."

PRETTY CHURCH WEDDING.

Marriage of Mr. Bidwell William Boyd and Miss Belle Loughbridge at A. R. P. Church Last Night.
The Associate Reformed Presbyterian church was the scene last evening at 8 o'clock of a happy event when a large number of their friends gathered to witness the marriage ceremony joining the hearts and hands of Mr. Bidwell William Boyd and Miss Belle Loughbridge.
At the hour named the bridal party and attendants entered to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Miss Ida Purley, in the following order: First came Miss Annie Scott of Yorkville and Miss Corrie Loughbridge of Clifton, S. C., down opposite aisles, followed respectively by Mr. Ed McLeod and Mr. J. W. Kirkpatrick, then came the groom, with his best man, Mr. E. P. Wilson, down one aisle while the bride and her maid of honor, Miss Irene Loughbridge, a sister, preceded by little Miss Robb Lindsay as flower girl, came down the other aisle; they were followed by Mr. Willie Hope Adams and Mr. Boyce Wilson as ushers. The bride and groom met at the altar where their pastor, Dr. J. C. Galloway, pronounced in an impressive manner the words which made them husband and wife. During the ceremony Miss Purley played softly "Hearts and Flowers." As the party left the church Miss Purley played Mendelssohn's wedding march.
The bride and her maids were gowned in white organdy and carried bouquets of white carnations; the groom and his attendants were attired in conventional black.
A pyramid of ferns and palms in the centre of the altar with flower stands on each side laden with potted ferns and trailing ivy, made a most pleasing and attractive decorative effect. The organ was banked with potted plants and cut flowers.
Mr. and Mrs. Boyd left on No. 40 last night for St. Louis where they will spend their honeymoon at the Exposition. On their return they will be at home with Mr. Boyd's mother, Mrs. John F. Wilson, on Franklin avenue.
The groom, a member of the firm of O. M. Boyd & Co. and the bride, a daughter of Mr. W. S. Loughbridge, both have many friends who wish for them a long and prosperous wedded life.

3,140 Bales.

The number of bales of cotton marketed on the local platform during the year which closed yesterday was 3,140. The first bale, marketed on September 3rd, brought 16 1/2 cents; the last bale, marketed on August 1st, brought 11 cents. The lowest price paid for good cotton during the year was 9 cents.

Election Board to Meet.

The county election board composed of Messrs. E. L. Wilson of Dallas, and Messrs. L. L. Jenkins and John O. Rankin of Gastonia, will meet at Dallas Monday, the 5th inst., for the purpose of appointing judges and registrars for the coming election, making any changes necessary in the voting precincts, and for the transaction of any other business that may demand attention.

Ford-McKnight.

At 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning in the Mary Help Abbey at St. Mary's College, Mr. Isaac Ford and Miss Alice McKnight were united in marriage. Rev. Father Melchior performing the ceremony. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. John E. McKnight; the groom is a prosperous merchant and farmer and lives between Belmont and St. Mary's. They left on No. 12 yesterday afternoon for a bridal trip to Columbia and Charleston.

Johnson-Huggins.

Wednesday afternoon Mr. Miles Johnson of Begonia and Miss Mabel Huggins, a waitress at the Falls House, drove to Bowling Green and were married by Rev. W. A. Hafner. The ceremony was performed at 4 o'clock in the afternoon at the Presbyterian manse. The bride came to Gastonia two months ago from Hickory. A reception was tendered the bride and groom at the home of the groom's mother, Mrs. Violet Johnson, where they will reside.

MODENA ITEMS.

Mrs. J. R. Broom and children have returned from a week's visit to her sister, Mrs. J. A. Smyer, at Mount Holly.
Mrs. R. B. Pinner is very sick at this time.
Misses Laura and Bessie Lenn, daughters of Mr. J. T. Lenn, are improving after an illness of several weeks with fever.
Mr. Parker and family have moved back to the Modena from Crowders Creek.
After spending a few days with his family Mr. Z. V. Harmon has returned to Rock Hill, S. C., where he is engaged in a barber shop.

REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE MEETS.

Dates Fixed For Holding Primaries and County Convention.
The Republican Executive Committee of the county met Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the office of Postmaster Claudius D. Holland, Chairman W. T. Jordan of Mountain Island presiding. All the members were present, as follows: W. T. Jordan, Mt. Island; C. D. Holland, Gastonia; J. F. Joy, Mt. Holly; J. W. Armstrong, Belmont; P. M. Rhyne, Dallas; C. S. Carpenter, Bessemer; A. G. Gantt, Bessemer; J. J. George, Cherryville.
The principal object of the meeting was to determine the dates for the county primaries and county convention. Wednesday, September 7th, was the date fixed for the holding of the primaries. The county convention will be held at Dallas on Friday, September 9th, for the purpose of putting out a ticket for the coming election.
District Attorney A. E. Holton of Winston-Salem and Hon. Jake Newell of Charlotte, Republican candidate for Congress in this district, were present and met with the committee.
Our country friends should never fail to buy or order through the mail "TRITHINA" for their infants. The bill for teaching children a life.
"TRITHINA" Aids Digestion, Regulates the bowels of children of any age and makes teething easy, and costs only 25 cents at Drugists.
The Second Manassas.
It was at the second battle of Manassas that I was present," said Mr. Robert Caldwell yesterday morning as he waited for the train. "I've been reading up on both battles, but I am not sure whether I shall recognize the ground or not. A private, you know, didn't have much chance to take in plans of the battlefields. But if the railroad is there yet, I believe I can go to the spot where I sat down and ate my last grub, and also locate the place where Daniel Webster's son was killed. He was on a good horse riding up and down in front of his men and we poured it into him. We were charging their artillery and they had killed their artillery horses to keep us from getting them."

The Grand Jury and Jail Stats.

The jail stats came in great numbers last week and despite the fact that they are protected by the laws of the State, a number of our gunners took advantage of their coming and many of them were killed. The grand jury may take notice of this at the next term of court, and they will fall in their duty if they let it go unnoticed.

Charlotte as a Trolley Hub.

It will not be long before the principal cities near Charlotte will have trolley lines connecting them up to this city. The water power of the Yadkin and that of the Catawba practically ignores this. Such lines between Charlotte and Concord, Gastonia, Rock Hill, and Monroe would pay now. With the water power available, they could be very cheaply operated. Going through a well-settled agricultural region, they would get much passenger and freight business from the farmers.
Such lines would be as advantageous to us and the cities named as the macadam roads running into the country have been to the country folks and the people of Charlotte.

Surely some one of THE GAZETTE'S readers should know who is the owner of the lot advertised elsewhere by the cemetery keeper to be sold in 30 days. The lot contains one unmarked and unknown grave. Mr. Wylie, the keeper, has been unable after much inquiry to find the owner. The lot is number 25 and borders on the lot of J. M. Hanna on the North; H. H. Hardy on the East; C. M. Dunn on the South, and Mrs. Carrie Curry on the West. Flowers have been set on the border, showing that it was once an object of loving care to some one. Whose lot is it and who is it that sleeps in this forgotten grave?
