picking is the order of the day in East Gaston now, except you can occasionally hear some one mention politics.

Prof. P. P. Hall, of Belmont, superintendent of schools for Gaston county, was over in East Gaston this week, and when passing through Open View farms and seeing some of Col. formed that it was cotton, he said it beat any thing he had ever seen and placed an order with the Colonel for some seed will average over 40 lbs. lint to the hundred pounds of seed cotton. He also makes a specialty of corn, and Prof. Hall and also Mr. E. L. Wilson of Dallas, have placed an order with him for a bushel each.

Colonel Abscriptly has already Colonel Abernethy has already got his seed corn selected for next year by going over his fields and selecting just such as he wanted, and marking it so as it can be designated from the other. He selects no ears from any stalks unless it has two or selections this year he found many stalks with 6 and 7 good ears on them.

Swift-foot Labe Rankin has been on the sick list all this week, and we regret it too, for it burts Labe to be sick.

Miss Blla Phelin, one of the handsomest and most admired girls of all this section of country, has been on the sick list for several days. We hope she will soon be entirely well.

Mrs. J. F. Caldwell of the Bissel place has not fully recovered from her recent spell of sickness.

Mr. Ira Lineberger, a splendid young man, has peen for several days cutting pea vines for his fa-ther-in-law, Mr. H. W. Under-wood. Mr. Lineberger is one of the men of East Gaston that is doing well, and so is Mr. Un-

Judge Parker the other day, in speaking to the visiting edi-tors, said this:

tors, said this:

The governmental expenditures last year mounted up to five hundred and eighty-two millions, which is not equaled by any year since the civil war, with the exception of the year of the Spunish war. Instead of a surplus in the annual receipts of about eight millions, which the present executive found on assuming control, there is now a deficit to be found of forty-two millions. There is an inevitable result to such extravagance.

Two or three days later Mr. Roosevelt caused the following order to be issued;

By direction of the President, officials will neither discuss nor give out any information regarding the annual estimates until further or-

The figures given further along in the speech of the Demannually as was spent during Cleveland's last term. Commenting on this, the New York Herald says: "Judge Parker, however, only touched the national sore of excessive taxation with a gentle band. The immense increase of governmental expenditures in the last few years is evidently one of the bitter first fruits of a costly imperialism toward the vortex of which the country has been insensibly drawn. As a single and conclusive proof of the immeuse costliness of imperialism it is only necessary to note in the official statistics that the appropriations for the War De-partment alone in the last four years have been more than double what they were in the two Cleveland administrations, or in any year from 1868 to 1897.
