The Charlotte Chronicle does this county great honor when it declares that in all things pro-greasive Gaston is pushing Meck-lanburg mighty close.

It is pleasing to note that Gaston's good example is being used in other counties to stimulate sentiment in favor of buildg permanent roads. The ille Landmark and the Albematie Enterprise have taken our action as a text for talks to their own people, and last Friday the writer had a re-quest from a prominent South Carolina editor for all the back mbers of TRE GASETTS which neve contained campaign matter in favor of good roads. The articles from the Raterprise and the Landmark we hope to print. in next issue.

THE SLEEPING SWORD.

One of the most - amusing skits ever put into verse-amusing because so smart and so eared anonymously E D .----in Tom Watson's Magazine for May. It was directed by the anthor to President Roosevelt, whom we all know to be a "man of prace" with decidedly robust and abnost insubordinate pro-pensities in the opposite direction, a man who believes in maintaining peace by keeping the other fellow straid. The felicitously satirical skit is a quatrain as follows:

During the past week there has been several and constant rains throughout this vicisity. The farmer's are bothered of "Gen. Green." During the wet spell very little farm work can be done and in the mean-time grass gets a start of the hos hands and the plows. An old saying is a dry May foretells a good cotton crop while a wet one will cause the opposite. So far this May has been a wet one and conditions are unisvorable and it may be that the crop will command a fancy price this coming fall.

Mr. Robert Alexander, who was so brutally assaulted in Rickory by Robert Jackson, a Salishney bar keeper, last week, was taken to Charlotte for treatment but it was found that his left eye was damaged be-yound recovery and its removal become necessary.
