The following program is given to indicate the nature of the Institute, but it may be changed or added to, as those present desire. A question box will also be open, into which all are invited to put such questions as they desire discussed. A suestion how will also be open, into which all are invited to put much questions as they desire discussed. A large number of intelligent questions means an internating Institute, and special attention will be given to this feature.

Fellow farmers, it once more becomes my pleasant duty to address you through the press. This is done to recall to your memory that at our last meeting of the Cotton Growers' Associathose who do not know him that you will miss a treat if you fail to be there. He lis a most polished gentleman as well as a fine, well-posted speaker, and is one of the largest farmers in Bastern North Carolina. We have also invited Mr. B. D. Smith, of Magnolia, S. C., who is also a polished speaker, but we havn't heard positively, that he will be with us.

he will be with us. Remember the date, Thesday, August 1st. Pass it around, get your neighbors interested, bring your friends along and lets have a great meeting and one that will be profitable to us all. With kindest regards and best wiahes, I am as ever your obedient servant. ROBT. L. ADDENNETTRY, , Chairman County Cotton Growers' Association.

Herald. Mrs. Lizzie Falls, who has been spending several days at the John Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore, for treatment of her throat and nose, has returned to her home here much improved. The sawmill recently pur-chased by Messrs. Uren has ar-rived at Cherryville and will be set up for business as soon as of our products this fall and to have concert of action as to what is best to do next year. Iw my opinion it is our daty to stand firm during the fall and following spring until after planting time, hence the princi-pal part of our work is to be done in the winter season. I advocate a season running from August until August; that is. I favor a set of officials holding on during that time if they prove themselves competent. Hold-ing this position or these views, it will be necessary on the first of August for you to elect a chairman and other officials for the coming year. I would like to see a great gathering of farmers on that chance to select the men of their choice for all those posi-tions. We want everybody to and the season so that come so as to set the heat men of cotton mill and other manufacturies. The idea seems to be to form a joint stock company and build a dam on the river and there originate the power and build out on the railroad in some nice location.

Mrs. Lucy Garrett, widow of the late I. W. Garret, whose ill-ness has been noted in these columns from time to time, died at about 6:30 o'clock Tuesday evening and was buried in the cemetery here on Wednesday evening beside her late husband, Rev. M. H. Vestal, her pastor, conducting the funeral services at the home of her son-in-law, C. A. Dilliny, where she made her home.

If it had been asserted eighteen months ago that Japan would be able, in an emergency, to raise $787,000,000 for the pur-' to pose of waging warfare against a European nation, the state-ment would have been given little credence, yet this is the remarkable showing made by that nation. Not only that, but the loans negotiated abroad have been upon terms which bespeak the confidence the rest of the world has in the Mikado's people and their future. The initial foreign loans of $110,000,-000 were in short-term bonds, upon which Japan was required to pay 6 per cent, interest and pledge the customs duties as security. These were nego tiated in May and November 1904, but when Japan again Gaston Loan found it necessary to go abroad last March the tide of battle had turned in her favor to a degree that made the placing of $150,000,000 at 41/2 per cent, an easier matter than was the negotiating of the earlier loans at a much higher rate. The recent loan of another $150,000,-000 was likewise arranged on a similar basis without the slightest trouble, in both instances the tobacco monopoly being ne the war $190,000,000, the last in-stallment being over-subscribed by the the patriotic Japanese to the extent of nearly 500 per the extent of nearly 500 per cent. Increased taxation has yielded $108,300,000; economies in administration, $48,200,000; transfers from special accounts, $31,500,000 and from other sources more than $1,000,000. bringing the total amount raised for the presention of the for the prosecution of the war against Russia up to $787, 000,000. the

Even more remarkable than Japan's ability to raise money is the fact that in spite of the war there has come no material depression in industrial and commercial lines at home, the depression in industrial and commercial lines at home, the nation today being in a pros-perons condition. This may be accounted for largely by the fact that the constry derives practically all its incomes from its natural resources, agricul-ture, fisheries, and mining be ing the chief sources of revenue, and the demands upon the former two being increased by the war. The place of the half million men or more who have gone to the front has been taken at home by the women and the younger men, and ac tivity has been sustained in every line. The development of the country has gone forward; foreign commerce has been maintained. In spite of the un-avoidable depression attendant upon war, the nation has pros-pered to a remarkable degree, and promises to come out of the surruggle in a financial and com-mercial condition more favorable comparatively, than would have been possible by any Ruropean mation under similar circum-stances. Such of the above as has not been disposed of by private sale will be sold at anction for cash on the first day of September on
