That Gastonia made no special demonstration in honor of President Roosevelt's flying trip through town last night is not to be taken as showing any lack of patriotism at this time. Nothing short of a Fourth of July celebration gets our people to let themselves loose any more.

The visit of President Roosevelt to the State makes him the fifth President to so honor North Carolina. On a trip South, Washington stopped at Salem—there was no Winston then—and made an address to the people of the town. In 1847 President Polk delivered an address at his Alma mater, the University of North Carolina. James Buchanan in 1859 and Andrew Johnson in 1866 also delivered addresses in Chapel Hill, speaking at Raleigh also en route.

Men still grow to great old age in North Carolina. In some of our western counties the stranger who attends public assemblies, especially in the country districts, is distinctly impressed by the large number of old people—men and women—who seem yet to be in the active enjoyment of life. An incident which prompts the observation that there is active old age in other sections also is cited by the Raleigh Post. At the opening of the State Fair Tuesday, notable among those present was Major J. M. Crenshaw, of Wake Forest. He was present at the first State Fair in 1847 and has attended every one since, thus making a record equaled, says the Post, by no other man in the State. Major Crenshaw was an old man twenty-five years ago, but is reported to be hale and hearty still. On his rich broad acres he has found strength of body and length of years and usefulness.

That the Patterson memorial cup was justly awarded to Mr. John Charles McNeill there will be few or none to dispute. But what those who delight in reading after him want to know is, in which one of the numerous productions of Mr. McNeill's in the past twelve months that were good enough to entitle him to the cup did the judges find the greatest merit. Or did they choose to perform any such difficult task as making a decision on this point? At all events we take the occasion to congratulate Mr. McNeill and the Charlotte Observer, whose strong and ornate staff he both strengthens and adorns, upon the honors which have come to them in this just award. No Homer's fervent fancy nor Shakespeare's ever minted a finer phrase than "night veiled with her stars" which set itself in one of J. C. M.'s poems early last summer; and as to the editor of the Observer, who labors to recognize and encourage gifts which in their exercise shed lustre upon his state and his people, he may, if he keeps on long enough, win the appellation of prince of letters in North Carolina.

THE STATE FAIR.
Governor Glenn Formally Opened Exercises at Noon Tuesday.
 A Raleigh special dated the 17th says: Governor Glenn formally opened the State Fair at noon to-day. He was escorted to the grounds by President Ashley Horne, Chief Marshal Frank Hebase and over one hundred assistant marshals. The fair is very extensive though the agricultural exhibits by no means represent the entire State. People are pouring into Raleigh and thousands witnessed the opening exercises to-day. The amusement features promise to be very attractive.

An Asheville special of the 16th says one of the most daring, most successful and most shrewdly planned jail deliveries that ever occurred in Western North Carolina was effected in the Buncombe county jail, of that city last night, when eleven prisoners, five white and six colored, sawed their way through the solid steel walls of the cages, cut through the iron bar across an outer ventilator, climbed down the brick walls of the building and escaped into the darkness. The white prisoners who escaped were John Pais, of Madison county, charged with the murder of a woman and one of the most desperate men in Western North Carolina; Steven Ray, Henry Ray, David Christopher, Bob Duncan, who is charged with assault with deadly weapon.

THE GREAT VAN ANSBURG SHOW.
 Our citizens will soon have an opportunity of viewing one of the grand shows of the country. The Great Van Ansburg Show will open its tent in Gastonia on Tuesday, Oct. 31st. The show promises to come this year larger and better than ever before. The many up-to-date features presented by this show are novel and startling. The horses and trained ponies are the best. Elephants, camels, dogs and a large collection of trained animals are to be seen in the grand free street parade, in the forenoon on the day of exhibition.

MOORE-WELCH.
Marriage in Which Gastonia and Waynesville are Inter-ested.
 Wednesday morning witnessed the marriage in Waynesville, N. C., of Miss Miriam Love Welch of that city to Mr. Andrew Evans Moore of Gastonia. The happy event was brilliantly celebrated in the First Baptist church at 11 o'clock Wednesday morning, and the bridal couple left immediately for a trip north.

After the first of November they will be at home in Gastonia, where they will occupy the Johnson residence on South street.
 Mr. Moore is the general manager of the Loray Mills and has made many friends during his stay here. Their congratulations and good wishes attend him, and it is with feelings of sincere gratification that his Gastonia friends are enabled to tender a welcome to his bride.

New Social Club.
 A number of young ladies met at the Hoffman Springs Saturday afternoon and organized a new social club. The name selected for the club is the "Gee Whizz Club". The object of the club is just for fun. Miss Edith Faysoux is president; Miss Minnie Costner, secretary; Miss Margaret McLean, vice-president; Miss Kathleen Boyce, treasurer. The members are Misses Minnie Costner, Cora Costner, Rose Abernethy, Kathleen Boyce, Margaret McLean, Mary Page, Edith Faysoux and Helen Jenkins. The club colors are to be green and white, and the flower white carnations. The first meeting will be held to-morrow afternoon with Miss Rose Abernethy.

GEN. JAMES D. GLENN DEAD.
Brother and Secretary of Gov. Glenn Passes Away as Result of Acute Indigestion.
 Charlotte Observer.

Raleigh, Oct. 18.—Just after mid-night General James D. Glenn, brother and private secretary of Governor Glenn, died as the result of an attack of acute indigestion suffered Sunday morning. This will necessitate a change in the reception of President Roosevelt here, who was to have taken breakfast with Governor Glenn. General Glenn was about sixty years old and was prominent in military and political life, having been adjutant general of the State and a State Senator. He is survived by his wife and several children.

Cotton Picking Machine.
 Raleigh Cor. Wilmington Messenger.
 Mr. Hill, of Memphis, who is introducing the gasoline machine which picks cotton is here, and President Roosevelt and Governor Glenn will have an opportunity of seeing it at work beside the roadway at the fair grounds. Mr. Hill says that the three greatest inventions of this character are the Whitney cotton gin, McCormick reaper, and this cotton picker. He says that a small boy can pick 500 pounds of cotton with this machine in a shorter time than a man can with his hands pick 80 pounds. He says it will revolutionize cotton planting. Governor Glenn expressed special interest in the machine, and said he intended to give it careful inspection.

The Carolina Northern Railroad, extending from Lumberton to Marion, S. C., a distance of 42 miles, was sold at Lumberton Tuesday at public auction and was bought in by a committee of first mortgage bondholders, of which Howard S. Graham, of Philadelphia, is chairman, for $268,000.

The Patterson loving cup given by Mrs. Lindsay Patterson of Winston-Salem to the North Carolinian producing the most notable literary production during the year was awarded to Mr. John Charles McNeill by the North Carolina Historical and Literary Association. The presentation took place in Raleigh Thursday. At the end of ten years the cup becomes the property of the one who shall have won it the greatest number of times.

Payne's New Discovery
 During the Autumn and Winter months when sudden changes take place in the weather, and the constitution is exposed to chilling blasts which force their way through the pores, freezing the blood, Nasal Catarrh is a disease of frequent occurrence, often presenting the most distressing features. Payne's New Discovery cures this ailment in its most advanced stages.
Hear What Others Say.
 I was reduced by Nasal Catarrh and General Debility to the condition of a wreck when a few months ago I used Payne's New Discovery, one bottle of which cured me, and twenty-seven pounds have been added to my weight.

MR. TILLMAN BEAM DEAD.

Taken Sick in the Field, Went Home, and Died Suddenly.
 Wednesday morning, Mr. Tillman Beam died almost suddenly at his home three miles from Cherryville. He had gone out to the field to plow that morning, and was soon attacked by pains like cramp colic, which became so severe that he stopped his plow and went to the house. After he lay down he gasped once and was dead.
 Mr. Beam was a prominent and popular citizen of Cherryville township, and was about 68 years of age. He was a brother of Mr. Peter Beam at the Loray, Mrs. Geo. Sellers at the Trenton, and father of Mrs. John Bryson. Mr. and Mrs. Bryson left here Wednesday afternoon to attend the funeral which was held at St. Mark's chapel yesterday.

GOATS WILL ARRIVE SATURDAY

Mr. N. J. Sherrill Imports Three Togenberg Swiss Milk Goats at a Cost of $50 each—Will Operate a Goat Dairy, Selling Milk for 25 cents a Quart.
 Charlotte Observer, Oct. 17.

The three Togenberg Swiss milk goats imported by Mr. N. J. Sherrill are in quarantine at New York and will arrive in Charlotte Saturday or Monday. Mr. Sherrill ordered the hardy little animals about three months ago from Togenberg Valley, in the midst of the high mountains of Switzerland, of which place the goats are native. The cost of the animals delivered in Charlotte will aggregate $50 apiece.
 The Togenberg goat is undoubtedly the greatest milk giving animal in the world, the milk excelling both in quantity and quality. The goats give from one and a half to two gallons of milk a day and the milk is of about twice the nourishing strength of cows' milk.
 Mr. Sherrill will raise goats and run a goat dairy. He will sell the milk for 25 cents a quart and it will be disposed of almost entirely to invalids and infants. He anticipates no trouble in selling the milk for that price, which will make the business a very profitable one for him.

The daughter of Governor Fowle, Mrs. Mattie Fowle Wyatt has instituted divorce proceedings in Wake County Superior court.

The Carolina Northern Railroad, extending from Lumberton to Marion, S. C., a distance of 42 miles, was sold at Lumberton Tuesday at public auction and was bought in by a committee of first mortgage bondholders, of which Howard S. Graham, of Philadelphia, is chairman, for $268,000.

THE VITAL CENTER
No Man Stronger Than His Stomach—Let His—Strengthen Your Digestive System.
 The stomach is your vital center. No man is stronger than his stomach.
 The average man measures his physical vitality by his heart, his kidneys, or his lungs. Yet it is the stomach that should first be considered when you cast up the account of health.
 Every organ of the body is sustained and nourished by food which is converted into nutrition in the stomach and conveyed to every part of the system in the form of blood. For this reason, when the stomach is strengthened with M-I-O-S and is able to convert the food into nourishment, all other organs soon become well. This explains many cases of heart, liver, or kidney disease in the cases where M-I-O-S is used.
 It is the most wonderful health restorer known, and is sold by J. H. Kennedy & Co. under an absolute guarantee that it costs nothing unless it restores health. Just one little tablet out of a 50 cent box of M-I-O-S for a few days, and you will soon see a great improvement in your health.

LORAY LOCALS.

Loray Mills, Oct. 18—House rolling is still going on, three houses have been moved from near the pond to a more desirable place near the mills and still others are to be moved.
 Lumber is coming in to build more new houses so we see our town is not finished yet.
 Mr. S. C. Whitaker is building a store room near Mr. S. Seitlemyers and will embark in the mercantile business as soon as his building is completed.
 The Adams Drug Co. is building a wing to the east side of their drug store which we understand will be used for a fruit and fancy grocery store.
 Mr. Bradley is having logs hauled to his pasture about a hundred yards from the mill to have sawed into lumber. He is going to build a residence for himself and there are other improvements to be made soon which will be reported later. We think we ought to have street cars running through our town although we are not putting on metropolitan airs but wish to have the conveniences of a street railway.
 Mr. J. H. McDowell spent Saturday and Sunday at Henrietta visiting friends and relatives.
 Mr. Andrew Evans Moore has gone to Waynesville where he will be married to-day to Miss Miriam Love Welsh. Mr. and Mrs. Moore will depart immediately on their bridal tour to New York and Boston and thence to Jacksonville, Fla. They will probably be gone a month. We wish them a long and happy life and in this we are joining a large number of Mr. Moore's friends here.
 Mr. Will Knight of Henrietta has accepted a position as second hand in the spinning room here.
 Mr. Steve DeBrule, also of Henrietta, has accepted a position in the mill here.
 A number of our friends from McAdenville were here Sunday visiting their friends and again to-day a lot of the young folks were up sight seeing.
 Mr. Henry Rabb of Henrietta, will move his family here to-morrow and cast his lot with us.
 Mr. W. S. Talbot and family, of Lancaster, are moving here to-day.
 Mr. Lowe has concluded a ten nights writing school here which was attended by a large number of the young folks. He is teaching another term now and is getting along well. Mr. Lowe is a fine penman and knows how to teach others to wield the pen also.

Story of the Play.
 "The Denver express" is a western play, depicting both the bright and the shadowy sides of life in Colorado, as well as the efforts of Gilson Payne, afterwards Lord Tynemouth, an English swindler to rob the wife and child of his half brother of an extremely valuable mining claim. The dastard's schemes are foiled by the heroes, Deadwood Dick and Hiram Garvey, sheriff of Cool county, and owner of "Garvey's Luck." The piece abounds with thrilling situations and startling episodes. The Denver Express will be at Opera House on Saturday night, Oct. 21st.
