Is the sheriff's office the only one to run for? Where are the other boys?

There are no new developments in the case between the editor of this newspaper and the aldermen of Gastonia.

The editor of THE GAZETTE is grateful to numerous exchanges and to a number of correspondents, far and near, for cordial expressions of their interest in his connection with recent local events. In good time we hope to make proper acknowledgement to each one.

In Louisburg Wednesday they were burying the dead schoolmaster. He was a good man and a just, firm always but kindly, upright in his walk and conversation among men, full of the graces which compel the regard of men, wearing the stamp of truth upon his soul. When the clouds were heaped over the grave of President M. S. Davis that day they hid away from the sight of men the form and likeness of a scholar, a gentleman, and a Christian. Though at the head of Louisburg Female College, when he was stricken down at the hale old age of 75, his best powers were spent as principal of the old Louisburg Male Academy, which stood across the street from the college and, like the college, in a large grove of stately oaks. Twenty-six years ago, one fair soft morning in waning summer the writer of these lines bade the noble schoolmaster goodbye, and with his blessing left the play-grounds and the deep sweet shadows of the dear old grove never to return again save in memory. And full often has memory taken him hither again. This great teacher impressed himself finally upon all who received his instruction, and when his gentle courtesy, his wisdom, his dignity, his just perceptions, and his surpassing nobility of mind are remembered, those who have known him as a friend cannot but sorrow that they shall here see his face no more.

MISS Bess GALLANT.

Saturday the 17th Miss Jane Crawford lost a note for $500. She went to Charlotte that day but does not know whether she lost the note there or in Gastonia. She had it in her handbag, and it is supposed that she dropped it while taking out some other articles. The note is drawn in her favor, signed by Mr. William A. Falls, and endorsed by Mr. T. W. Wilson. Warning is published elsewhere concerning the lost paper.

Ensnaring Victims

Steps Should be Taken at Once to Prevent Further Trouble. Here in Gastonia, as in other cities and towns, dyspepsia or stomach troubles are ensnaring victims in a most insidious way. Nearly every mother's son of us and daughter, too, expects the stomach to accustom itself to all manner of ill-treatment, but the time comes when we cannot abuse it with impunity. How much better it would be to take steps at once to strengthen the stomach and prevent further trouble. Use Mi-o-na now and soothe the irritated walls of the stomach and strengthen the gastric follicles so that they will pour out their daily supply of digestive materials with regularity. Then the headaches, sleeplessness, specks before the eyes, poor appetite, tired feelings and nervousness will disappear, and you can eat what you want at any time you like. Mi-o-na is a combination of remedies, some of which are but little known in this country, and is a positive guaranteed cure for all diseases of the stomach excepting cancer. Just one little tablet out of a 50 cent box before meals, for a few days, and you will soon regain perfect health and strength, and have no fear of indigestion or stomach troubles. Ask J. H. Kennedy & Co. to show you the guarantee under which they sell this remedy. F16-M2

PRETTY HOME WEDDING.

Miss Bess Gallant and Mr. Parks Reid Huffstetter Married Wednesday Afternoon. There was a very happy occasion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Gallant Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock when their third and youngest daughter, Miss Bess Gallant was given in marriage to Mr. Parks Reid Huffstetter. Only relatives of the families and intimate friends were present to witness the event and extend congratulations. Rev. R. C. Anderson of the Presbyterian church, the young people's pastor, performed the ceremony in a simple but beautifully impressive ceremony. Before the entrance of the bride party into the parlor Mrs. Jno. F. Love sweetly sang "O Promise Me." Miss Ida Purley presiding at the piano. The final notes melting into the strains of Mendelssohn's march announced the approach of the wedding party. First came Misses Ethel Gray Hattie Cooper, Laura Page and Pearl Gallant, then the pretty bride, who was joined at the foot of the stairway by the groom, entered and standing in front of a handsome embankment of smilax, palms and ferns, the words were pronounced which made them husband and wife. The bride, who is one of the most popular and beloved members of the younger social set, was charming in a handsome tailored suit of blue cloth with hat of blue and white beaver to match. Her flowers were a magnificent bouquet of Parma violets with a shower of exquisite white violets suspended from the stem. Throughout the hall and parlors violets were lavishly and attractively arranged, enriching the scene with their dainty beauty and fragrance. Many valuable presents were received. Following the ceremony there was an informal reception after which the happy young couple took the 6 o'clock train for Washington. The out of town guests were Mrs. A. M. Herron of Steele Creek, Misses Hattie and Ada Cooper of Charlotte. Mr. C. H. Gattis travelling Passenger Agent of the Seaboard Airline will be appointed a Major on the Staff Adjutant General T. R. Robertson. The appointment will be made by Governor Glenn. Subscribe for the GASTONIA GAZETTE

TWO ARITHMETICAL PUZZLES.

Arrange Nine Digits in Numbers so That the Sum Will be 100 - Arrange Them Again in a Square of Three Figures Each Way Whose Sum is 15. A friend of THE GAZETTE dropped in the other day to pound us with some puzzles. We are glad to pass them along to those who are given to figuring and have an aptitude for unpalpable puzzles. 1. The first puzzle is to arrange the nine digits in numbers so that when added their sum will be 100. It is to be remembered that no digit is to be repeated, and that two or more successive additions are allowable if necessary. 2. The second puzzle is to arrange the nine digits in a square of three figures each way so that, take them in any direction you will, the sum of each row is fifteen. Establishment for the manufacturing of mirror plates is the latest in Statesville. The concern is to have a Capital Stock of $20,000, $10,000 of which has been subscribed by Mr. O. W. Stain of Pittsburg Pa.

Mrs. Neal and Mrs. Payne Dead. Long Creek, Feb. 28.—Mrs. Caroline Neal died the 12th of February and was buried next day at Long Creek church. Mrs. John Payne also died the same week. Mr. Neal is some better now; and is able to sit up. Mr. Tom Payne's little girl is quite ill yet. A movement is on foot among the colored people of Winston-Salem for the establishment of a State banking institution. The bank will comply with all the provisions of the state law, which means that subscriptions amounting to $25,000 must be taken and half of that amount paid in before the bank is open for business. To the Trustees of Stanley Baptist Church. Gentlemen:—It is hoped that we tell you. It will cost less dollars to paint your church with L. & M. Paint, because more painting is done with one gallon of L. & M. than with two gallons of other paint, and the L. & M. Zinc hardens the L. & M. White lead and makes the L. & M. Paint wear like iron. Any church will be given a liberal quantity free whenever they paint. 4 gallons L. & M. mixed with 3 gallons Linseed Oil will paint a moderate sized house. L. & M. costs only $1.20 per gallon. W. H. Webb, Painter, Hickory, N. C. Notes:—House painted with L. & M. 15 years ago have not needed painting since. Sold by FRI 2-8; A13-30. Gastonia Hardware Company—Gastonia. Thomson & Pogram—Stanley
