Kings Mountain, Aug. 20.—
News has just reached here of what appears to have been the cowardly, cold-blooded saurder last Wednesday evening, near Morganton, of Parris Burton, a quiet, inoffensive farmer, who lived shout four miles above here on the Cherryville road, by his brother, Josh Burton. The details of the tragedy could not be learned uptil this morning when a nephew of the dead man was in town and gave the following account; About ten days ago Parris and Josh Burton, hruthers, started on a trip into the mountains above Morganton to look at some land which Parris was negotiating for. On the way back home they fe.l in with a man by the name of Green and a woman walking. Green told them he wanted work and Parris employed him to help gather the crop. Josh hired the woman to cook for him. After they had traveled together for some distance, Josh, who was sitting in the rear of the wagon with the woman, became bointerous and Parris saled him to behave himself while in his wagon and on tiary for it. He has an unsavory reputation. The dead man leaves a wife and seven or eight children. He was between 50 and 80 years of age.

IMP OF INDIGESTION. New to Get The Better of This

Cause of Misery. A scientific writer upon stomach troubles says: "If you have ever suffered from indigestion, ever suffered from indigestion,—and who has not?—your imag-ination has probably pictured a ferocious little imp dancing in the pit of your stomach, causing that organ to neglect all of its duties, with a result that is not only painful but fills you with misery from day to day." This writer certainly had suffered with indigestion, for there is no more disagreeable, nerve-racking and sick-all-over disease than in-digestion.

A great many people who have been treated for years for dis-cases of the heart, liver or kidsays, when they used Miona stomach tablets found that not only did Miona cure the stomach dis-order, but it made them well all over and the other troubles were also

LOCALS FROM THE LORAY.

The tent meetings have come to a close. The tent was taken down last week and removed. The meetings were well attended and resulted in a number of conversions.

A number of our people attended the campuseting at Rock Springs. Among the number was Mr. Juo. L. Jenkins and family who report a good time and extra good preaching.

The West Rad Sunday school will enjoy a wagon ride Saturday evening and a picuic afterwards in the Loray park. This Sunday school is in a bealthy condition and the average attendance is good although the weather has been very hot lately.

Our Baptist Brethren have rented the Bradley hall and are preparing to seat it until they get their church built which they expect to do pretty soon.

Well we notice that the night shadows are creeping both ways now pretty fast and are shortening the days considerably, which reminds us that the time will soon be here when we will not require the visits of the ice wagon. But even winter has its charms for it brings Christmas and Christmas brings Santa Clans.

Senator Tillman, of South Carolina, spoke at Seven Hills Chantauqua last night. He was given a most cordial welcome and his accusations against those who were responsible for a better railroad bill not being adopted by Congress were end thusfastically applauded. In giving the review of the rate rate bill he related the incident which caused him to "cut" the acquaintance of President Roosovelt. "If I was a gentle-man when McLaurin called me a liar I was more a gentleman after I had resented it," said the Senator He declared that no well-bred gentleman would have recalled an invitation and that he would never speak to Roosevelt again until he apologized. In the matter of the rate bill he said that Roosevelt surrendered, walked down and gave up. He paid an eloquent tribute to Senator Bailey's defense of the constitutionality of fense of the constitutionality of the limited court review.

Here is a new profession for The field is bound to be limited, however, as it is quite essential that one must ossess brains in order to succeed in the new business. At a recent dinner a young woman distinguished herself by clever afterdinner speech, winning the applause and admiration of every one, and of one gentleman in particular, by her wit and brilliant epigrams.

Later in the evening this gentleman sought the hostess and, expressing his profound admiration for the ability of the fair speaker, he confessed that he had always had a great desire to shine as an after-dinner speak-er himself, but that he lacked

DISPOSSESSED BY BEES.

A Swarm Dislocated from a Chimney Drove Women from Home.

Morristown, N. J., Aug. 20. While George Vanbilliard, pro-prietor of the Greystone Farm at Califon, was away from home yesterday his family was dis-possessed without the formality of legal proceedings While Mrs. Vanbilliard and her two daughters were getting dinner they heard strange noises in the chimney. They took out a damper to investigate and found that a swarm of bees had taken possession.

When the chimney was opened the bees immediately swarmed into the kitchen. Efforts were made to stop up the orifice, but the women were forced to re-treat, leaving the bees in full possession of the house.

While waiting for the return of Mr. Vanbilliard the women camped out on the lawn and applied mud to the places where they had been stung. When Mr. Vanbilliard came home he smoked the bees out with sulphur.

Herses Dying in Hyde.

Por several days the papers have contained news items from eastern Carolina, particularly Hyde county, stating that horses are afflicted with a disease resembling blind staggers and it becomes fatal in many cases. A large number of borses have een taken with the disease.

It is now said that the malady is spreading. Cases have been reported in Beaufort, Craven, Jones, Onslow and Lenoir counties and most of them are a virulent type. The cause is attributed to rain soaked grasses in the lowlends which are be-lieved to have some poisonous motild growing on them. It is mould growing on them. It is noticed that horses and cattle feeding on the higher lands are not affected in this way.
