WANTS.

Gazette Want Ads Pay. Try em And Get Results.

OLD PAPERS for sale at THE GAZETTE office 5 cents a bundle. WANTED-Country penvine hay and fodder. J. A. Glenn Co.

OUCHES-A big line at Williams Furniture Company. tn S IT A LEATHER Chair you want? Then see the Williams Furniture

JUST RECEIVED—A shipment of Weathered Oak chairs and rock-ers. Williams Furniture Company.

FOR SALE—at reasonable prices, Brown Leghorn hens and pullets. J. D. Derr, Dallas, N. C. tn.

GET COUPONS while they last. Williams Furniture Co. CHINA CLOSETS and book cases, new lot just recieved. Williams Furniture Co.

S PRING MATTING 50 rolls will be on hand this week. Williams Furniture Co.

O5T—Between Bessemer City and Dallas, watch fob with Elkemblem. Reward for return to E. E. Detter, Bessemer City, N. C. —J1504

LOST-Between J. G. Shannon's farm and Gastonia, on the night of Dec. 24th, two good laprobes. Finder will be rewarded on returning same to Jno. F. Davis & Son, Livery-

WANTED—Names of all parties owning old style talking machines. Will make you cash offer for your old machine. Victor talking machines sold on easy payments to responsible parties by J. A. Glenn Co. Jilc4

1 907—To our many friends and customers we extend a most cordial and hearty greeting with our best wishes for a happy and prosperous New Year. Realizing that merit is the only foundation of honorable business success, we shall endeaver in the future as in the past to business success, we shall endeaver in the future, as in the past, to maintain the highest standard of quality in all of our products. Relative to our Soda Water Business: after many years of hard work and Practical Experimenting we have to-day two of the finest non-intoxicating drinks on the Market: namely RED STAR GINGER ALE the finest on the Market. (J. B. B. Pure) Strawberry. (It's simply fine.) We put up nothing but the best and ask a part of your business. Yours to please, J. B. Beard & Co. Known as Koca Nola Bottling Works. We are also headquarters for orcherade syrup and in bottles a fine drink.

J4c2.

FRIDAY, JAN. 4, 1907.

Gastonia Cotton. These figures represent the prices'

paid to wago	08:	Jan	4th
Good middlin			1014
Strict middli	ng		1014
Middling Tinges and	stains	9	to 10
Cotton Seed	Status		28 1/4
Gastonia	Produc	e Marke	t.
A CONTRACTOR OF THE PARTY OF TH	SHOW		0.00

. 18c.

20c Turnips 750 .65c to 70c. Sweet Potatoes Peavine Hay.

Netices of New Advertisements. Southern Securities & Trust Co. Stocks wanted and for sale. Opera House, Chas. H. Cavis, Mgr.—Joshua Sinikins Jan. 10th. Gazette Publishing Co.—For sale, Olds Gasoline engine.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

-Watch Gaston and Gastonia grow in 1907.

County commissioners meet at Dallas Monday.

opera house Thursday night, days in Gaston last year. How many for 1907?

The city schools resume active work Monday after a two-weeks holiday.

-The friends of Miss Irene Loughridge will regret to learn that she is quite ill at her home from pneumonia. -Many of the young people who have been spending the holidays in Gastonia with homefolks are returning this week to the various schools over the

-Have you taken that building and loan stock yet? In the rush attendant upon the opening of the new year don't forget that it is time to make a start toward owning your own home.

—In renewing his subscription to The Gazette this week Mr. J. T. Spencer remarked that he was doubtless the oldest subscriber the paper has. He sub-scribed for it before the first is sue appeared and has read it continuously since.

-Two handsome electric us have been installed by the Citizens National Bank. They were put into operation last night for the first time. One reads "We pay 4 per cent on savings," while the other says "We pay 5 per cent on certifi-cate deposits." PERSONAL MENTION.

-Mr. S. D. Youngblood, of Clover, was in town on business Wednesday. -Dr. J. W. Campbell, of Clover, was in town yesterday on business. -Mr. Hal Garrison, of Bessemer City, was in town Wednesday on ousiness.

Rev. R. A. Miller, of Lowell, was a business visitor in town Wednesday.

-Mr. Marvin Cornwell, of Dallas, eft Thursday for Raleigh to enter he A, and M. College. -Mrs. John Lindsay spent Vednesday and yesterday with iends in Yorkville.

-Miss Minnie Costner visited her sister, Mrs. W. C. Garibaldi, in Charlotte, yesterday.

-Mr. T. N. Kendrick and Miss Helen Riddle spent Wednesday night at Yorkville, the guests of Miss Hazel Grist.

"-Mr. Hardaway Stowe and Mr.J.F. Thomson, former Gastonians now located at Yorkville, were business visitors in town yesterday.

-Mr. R. L. Swan returns to-day from Augusta, where he and Mrs. Swan spent the holidays with friends. drs. Swan will remain for a longer

-Mr. F. W. Brawley, formerly in business here but now a merchant at Statesville, was shaking hands with old friends on the streets yes-

-Misses Della and Myrtle Nolen were the guests Tuesday of Mr. B. F. Leonhard's family at Lowell.

-Mrs. A. T. Lyda is expected to arrive to-day from Hendersonville to spend some time with the family of her brother, Mr. C. M. Nolen.

-Miss Susie Carroll, of Newton, returned to her home this morning after spending several days with friends at Lowell.

-Mrs. Clarence Little, of South-side, and sister, Miss Florence Rhyne, of Laboratory, are visiting friends at Belmont.

-Mr. Tommie Oates, of Tirzah, S. C., is the guest to-day of Mr. R. W. Carson. He will return home to-night.

-Dr. M. Jordon McFadden, of Woodruff, S. C., spent Wednesday in town the guest of his father, Mr. I. R. McFadden. -Mr. John B. Sloan, of Rock Hill, S. C., district deputy organizer of the Heptasophs, was in town

Wednesday. -Mr. N. E. Aull, of Hickory, a member of the Phoenix Manufactur-ing Company, spent Wednesday in town, returning yesterday.

-Mrs. Anna Bell and four children returned Wednesday to their home at Blackstock, S. C. They spent the Christmas holidays at Pisgah with Mrs. Bell's father, Mr. J. B. Carson.

-Mr. George H. Sherer, formerly with the Walters Brothers' barber shop, has moved to Yorkville, says The Enquirer, and has purchased an interest in Baber's barber shop.

-Mr. Robert Glenn, of the Union neighborhood, returned yesterday to Lenoir College, Hickory, after spend-ing the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Glenn.

-Mr. Ed W. Killian returned yes-terday to Atlanta to resume his pos-ition as linotype operator on The Atlanta News. He has been spend-ing a week or more with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. W. L. C. Killian.

-Prof. E. J. Hoffman, of the chemical department of the A. and M. College, was in town yesterday en route to Raleigh. He spent the holidays with his father, Mr. L. M. Hoffman, at Dallas.

-Miss Bessie Puett, of Dallas, and Miss Bessie Puett, of Dallas, and Miss Lucia Hoyer, of Milwaukee, Wis., returned Wednesday to Baltimore, Md., where they are students at the Baltimore Medical College. They spent their holiday vacation with Miss Puett's father, Mr. John C. Puett, at Dallas.

-Mr. Clarence Rhodes, Miss Callie Rhodes, Mr. Roy Summey, Miss Effic Hoover and Mr. Howard Rhyne, all of Dallas, returned Wednesday to Lenoir College, Hickory, having spent the holidays with homefolks.

-Miss Mabel Patrick and Miss Mary Wilson, of the Union neighborhood, returned Wednesday to the Presbyterian College, Charlotte, after spending the holiday vacation with their parents, Dr. and Mrs. G. R. Patrick and Mr. and Mrs. W. C.

-"Joshua Simkins" at the pera house Thursday night, ne 10th.

-Miss Pearl Henderson, of Union; Miss Annie Craig, of the Point, and Miss Elva Hall, of Belmont, returned Wednesday to Asheville to resume their studies at the Normal Institute after spending the holidays with homefolks.

-Mr. R. E. McFadden, son of our townsman, Mr. I. R. McFadden, who has been with the Southern Cotton Oil Company, of Columbia, S. C., for the past three years, has resigned his position to accept a place as bookkeeper for the Beaumont Manufacturing Company, of Spartanburg, S. C.

Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Carson returned yesterday to Mississippi after a pleasant holiday visit to the former's father, Mr. J. B. Carson, in the Pisgah neighborhood, and other relatives. Mr. Carson has, until recently, been pastor of the A. R. P. churches at Cotton Plant and New Albany, Miss., but the work has grown to a point where it became necessary for New Albany to be made a charge within itself and Mr Carson was made pastor. His many friends in Gaston were glad to see him on his native heath once more.

With Mrs. Wetzell.

The Friendly Matrons were delightfully entertained yester-day afternoon by Mrs. L. F. Wetzell at her home on West Main street. Trail was the game for the evening and the prize, a beautiful silver bon bon prize, a beautiful silver bon bon dish, with the inscription, "Friendly Matrons, January 1907," went to Mrs. D. A. Page. In addition to the club members the following were present as guests: Mesdames S. A. Robinson, H. B. Moore, J. P. Culp, I. B. Calwelll, T. B. Brown, A. A. McLean, W. T. Rankin and E. H. Tuttle. WILSON-SHUFORD WEDDING.

Miss Osle Leigh Shulord Becomes Bride of Mr. George Wood Wilson-Many Witness Protty Ceremony in Main Street Methodist Church.

Main Street Methodist church was the soene Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock of a brilliant wedding when Miss Osie Leigh Shuford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hiram Shuford, was married to Mr. George Wood Wilson, of Gastonia. Long before the appointed hour the auditorium was filled with friends of the contraction parties who came to tracting parties who came to witness the joining together of their lives. The church had been handsomely decorated by deft fingers with palms and ferns. Over the two doors, one on each side of the altar, hung floral wreathes and white wedon each side of the altar, hung floral wreathes and white wedding bells. Mr. W. Harvey Overcarsh, of Charlotte, presided at the organ and rendered several selections preceeding the ceremony.

Weaker In the end came.

Mrs. Adams was the widow of the late Joseph Adams, who preceded her to the grave a number of years. She moved with her family to Gastonia from Huntersville about 12 years ago and had resided. the ceremony.

flower girl; then the bride, leaning on the arm of her brother. Mr. Sam S. Shuford, who gave groom entered from the pastor's study, accompanied by his best man, his brother, Prof. E. N. Wilson, of Hayerford, Pa. The two were met at the chancel by the officiating minister, Rev. E.

and groom, who spoke impres- to her many friends to all of sively the words which made the whom her death brings a two husband and wife. During shock. the ceremony Mr. Overcarsh played softly Schubert's Ser this atternoon (3.30 o'clock) in enade. The party left the church to Mendelssohn's wedding march. The bride looked charming in Bertha of real lace. She wore tery. a veil caught up with bride's roses and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. The maid of chiffon with baby Irish trim-

the bride's parents on Franklin. There are several bidders for it avenue where they were ten- but so far it has not been leased dered an informal reception. They left on No. 40 for a bridal Gray-Gattis. trip to points in Florida. On their return they will reside on home weddings of the season Air Line street, occupying the took place at the home of Mr. residence now occupied by Mr. Eli Kendrick.

A large array of handsome presents consisting, of cut glass, silver, bon-bon dishes, rugs and many other articles both useful and ornamental attested the popularity of these young people. Space forbids individual mention of all of these. The present of the groom's family was a handsome chest of silver; the ushers, a coffee set; Mr. S. S. Shuford and Dr. and Mrs. R. M. Reid, a handsome dining room set; the U. C. Club, of which the bride is a member, a large silver tray. As a mark of compliment the members of the U. C. Club were present in a body. Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were: Miss Alice and is very popular with a large Wilson, sister of the groom, Lenoir; Mr. Robert Wilson, brother of the groom, Guilford College; Dr. L. R. Wilson, brother of the groom, librarian of the State University, Chapel Hill; Prof. E. N. Wilson, a W. A. Ridenhour, Kings Mountain; Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Mason, Dallas; Miss Essie Sitton, Easley, S. C. The bride is one of Gastonia's most deservedly popular young ago from Lenoir and has won for himself an enviable position at the Gaston bar. The Gazette joins their hosts of friends in wishing for them a long, pros-perous and happy married life.

Poultry Judge Chosen.

At a meeting of the Gaston County Poultry Association last night Mr. R. L. Simmons, of Charlotte, was chosen to act as judge at the poultry show to be held here Jan. 22-25. Mr. Simmons is an expert judge of lancy fowls and has acted in this capacity at many shows in this and other States. Preparations for the event are going forward rapidly. The officers of the organization are meeting with much encouragement in their efforts to give a creditable show. A number of special prizes have been secured.

MRS. L. L. ADAMS DEAD.

Well-Known Gastonia Lady Expires Alter Brief Illness-End Was Unexpected and Brough Shock to Family and Friends With unexpected suddenness leath came to Mrs. Laura L. Adams yesterday evening at 6.45 o'clock at her home on Main street and many of her friends, who did not know that she was critically ill, were shocked when they heard she was dead. She had been sick for a month or more but had rallied and, on the day previous, was thought to be much better.

years ago and had resided bere At the hour appointed the continuously since. Prior to bridal party entered, to the her marriage she was a Miss strains of Lohengrin's march, in Hunter. She was in the fiftythe following order: Down the left aisle—Mr. W. T. Love, Mr. J. Oscar Shuford, brother of the bride; Mr. Robert Wilson, of teller of the Citizens National ation has more than doubled Rank and Mr. Harry Adams, since the last meeting. The Guilford Collège, brother of the groom; Miss Lowry Shuford, sister of the bride, maid of honor; little Miss Aline Reid, daughters, Misses Lida and assets have grown from $18, 101.00 to $38,621.16, while the assets have grown from $19,333,daughters, Misses Lida and assets have grown from $19,333.-Rosebud Adams, of Gastonia; 15 to $42,357.59. two sisters, Mrs. J. J. Ransom and Mrs. W. W. Orr, of Char-consistent member of the Asso- named succeed Messrs. Juo. F. ciate Reformed Presbyterian church. Hers was an exem-plary Christian life and her sympathetic kindness and L. Bain, pastor of both bride nobility of character had drawn

The funeral is being held the Associate Reformed Presbyterian church. The services are being conducted by Rev. Dr. J. C. Galloway. Interment a gown of white silk radium with | will follow in Oakwood ceme-

J. A. Spencer the tinner honor wore a dress of wash and contractor, is moving from his present quarters in the -Miss Helen Jenkins, who has been spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Jenkins, returned yesterday to Oxford to resume her studies at Oxford Female sume her studies at Oxford Female tions. The gentlemen were attended to the same block just vacated by the Singer Sewing Machine Company, where he will have larger and better facilities for handling his work. It is not handling his work. From the church the bridal known who will occupy the party repaired to the home of rooms vacated by this concern.

One of the most beautiful W. H. Gattis on Oakland avenue last night at 8 o'clock when Miss Katie Gattis became the bride of Mr. Frank Gray. The marriage ceremony, which was performed by Rev. R. C. Anderson, took place in the presence of the members of the family and a number of very intimate friends of the young couple. The Gattis home was handsomely decorated for the occasion and the ceremony was both beautiful and impressive. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Gray and is well known in and around Gastonia, having been raised here. He is now employed by the Southern Power Company. The bride is the beautiful daughter of Mr. W. H. Gattis circle of friends. The young couple will reside with the bride's faiher for the present.

Stockholders Meetings.

Many corporations, especially the banks and the cotton mills, brother of the groom, of the will hold their annual stock-Haverford Fitting School, holders' meetings next week. Haverford, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Following is a schedule of those Following is a schedule of those to be held in Gastonia, so far as announced: Citizens National Bank, Tuesday, the 8th, at 10 a. m.; Gaston Loan & Trust Co. directors' quarterly meeting the 15th, annual stockholders' meetladies and is prominent in club ing is held in March; First and social life. The groom is a National Bank, Tuesday, the young attorney of ability. He 8th, at 3 p. m; Morowebb Cotcame to Gastonia several years ton Mills, Tuesday, the 8th, in ago from Lenoir and has won the afternoon; Arlington Cotton Mills, Thursday, the 10th, at 2 p. m.; Trenton Cotton Mills, Wednesday, the 9th, at 2 p. m.; Gray Manufacturing Company, Tuesday, the 15th, at 2:30 p. m.; Clara Manufacturing Company, Tuesday, the 8th, at 2 p. m. Modena Mills, Monday, the 14th in the afternoon. Many other mills in the county have their annual stockholders' neetings this months but the dates for them are not at hand,

> -Mrs. S. Ella Armstrong this week purchased from Mr. W. S. Lay's two-acre farm, located two miles east of town, the con-sideration being $1,575. Mrs. Armstrong will move from the Ozark to her farm and Mr. Lay will build a new residence on his property on the opposite side of the railroad.

MORE THAN DOUBLED.

Report of Secretary and Treasurer C. B. Armstrong of Gastonia Building and Loan Association Shows Gratifying locrease - Stockholders field Annual Meeting and Elect

The second annual meeting of the stockholders of the Gastonia Mutual Building & Loan Association was held in the offices of the secretary and treasurer, Mr. C. B. Armstrong yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. About 35 of the stockholders were present and the following report was submitted by the secretary and treasurer:

ASSE IS.
Cash on hand $ 381.47 Loans 38621.16
Expense 998 96 Interest paid to bank 483.00
Withdrawn 1873.00
Total $42357 59
LIABILITIES:
Entrance fees. $ 395.00 Installments 33716.50
Interest collected 2246.09 Borrowed money 6000.00
Total $42357.59

The following were elected directors for the year 1907: her away; entering by the right aisle were Mr. E. G. McLurd, Prof. Joe S. Wray, Dr. L. R. Wilson, of Chapel Hill. The ter, of Charlotte.

No. W. W. Ori, of Charlotte directors for the year 1907:

S. N. Boyce, C. B. Armstrong, J. E. Page, T. M. Fayssoux, T. N. Kendrick, J. F. McArver. S. A. Robinson, R. M. Reid and er, of Charlotte.

Mrs. Adams was a loyal and T. L. Craig. The five last Love, G. A. Gray, A. M. Smyre, > Johnston. The following officers were reelected: President, S. N. Boyce; vice-president, J. E. Page; secretary and treasurer, C. B. Armstrong.

Jno. O. Rankin and R. M.

-Houses are still about the scarcest things on the Gastonia market. One cannot be had for love or money hardly. In recent years the building of dwellings has not kept pace with the rapid increase in population. New comers are forced, along with many who are already here, to board. There seems no prospect that there will be a sufficiency of houses at an early

Thursday Night

Jan. 10th, 1907 THE GREAT NEW ENGLAND PLAY

Joshua Simpkins

Big fun and musical Show

Special Scenery and Mechanical See the Great Saw Mill Scene Hear the Joshua Simpkins Orchestra.
Best of Singing and Dancing Specialties.

WATCH FOR THE BURLESQUE BAND PARADE

Seats on sale at Torrence's Drug Store Monday.

As we are installing electrical power with which to op-erate our machinery we have for sale one 3 horse-power Olds Gasoline Engine. In good running order. Bargain to quick purchaser for eash. Write or Call for Particule

GAZETTE PUBLISHING CO. JAS. W. ATKINS, Mgr. ASTONIA. - - - N. C

SLAUGHTER SALE

LADIES' CLOAKS

SEMEN'S SUITS

We are determined to carry over just as little of winter goods of any kind as possible. The prices we are making on them means a big saving to you.

BIG REDUCTION IN MEN'S CLOTHING

7.50 to	$ 8.50	Men's	Suits		4.98
10.00 "	11.50				7.50
12.50 "	15.00		41		10.00
18.00 "	20.00		*		12.50
NL				ALTERNATION OF THE SECOND	46 (8 6)

These suits are special values at prices named. Our object is to sell them regardless of former price.

Ladies' and Children's Coats AT PRICES THAT WILL INTEREST YOU

			 100
$10,00	Coats.		 $ 7.50
12.50			 10.00
15.00 to $17.50) " .		 12.50
7.50	41	····	 . 5.00
			25510250

These special prices will go into effect Wednesday Morning, January 2nd, 1907. : : : : : : : : :

Will Last for Ten Days

Don't Miss This Opportunity to Buy a Suit under the cost of making.

J. M. BELK CO.

FURNITURE

FOR 1907

The advent of the new year finds us better prepared than ever before to take care of the Furniture trade. Our stock is bigger and better than ever before; our prices are right.

ONE HUNDRED SUITS

We have 100 bed room suits ranging in price from $15 to $100. Something to suit every taste and every pocket book. Splendid assortment of - - - -

Hall Racks, Kitchen Cabinets, Princess Dressers and Combination Book Cases

A TALKING MACHINE FREE

For every FIFTY DOLLARS' worth of furniture bour and paid for we will give a handsome Natural Tone Talking and Singing Machine FREE. Cail and let us explain how you may obtain one of these. - - -

The Gastonia Furniture Company Gastonia, : : : : : : N.C. * - + - + - + - + - + - +

1906 Our Banner 1906

The year just closed has been our banner year and we take this opportunity and method to extend to all our friends and customers our sincere thanks for their generous pationage. It has helped us to carry a larger stock, a better stock and consequently has aided us in giving you better service. While thanking you for your past patronage we also desire to tell you that we intend to make the new year, 1907, even better and bigger than the one just closed. It is our intention to make each year a year of development and growth in the jewelry line. It is our intention to give you the advantage of a stock of goods unsurpassed in aum town the size of Gastonia in North Carolina-unsurpassed in quality and price. : : : : : : : : :

We wish each and every one of our Friends and Customers a happy and prosperous New Year

Torrence -- Morris JEWELERS & OPTICIANS GASTONIA, : : : : NORTH CAROLINA

II You Went Gasten County News