NO MORAL RIGHT.

Retiring Governor of South Dakota Proposes Return of Bond Money to North Carolina.

An Associated Press dispatch from Pierre, S. D., under date of January 8th, says: "Samuel H. Elrod, the retiring Governor of South Dakota, in his farewell message to the Legislature today, severely assails the noted North Carolina bond deal, by which South Dakota collected $25,500 from the Southern State on paper which had been repudiated. He says South Dakota has no moral right to the money. The message urges the Legislature to pass a bill returning the money to North Carolina."

Archdeacon Webber Here.

Archdeacon Percy C. Webber, of Boston, Mass., is in Gastonia and is conducting services in St. Mark's Episcopal church. He preached at 11 o'clock this morning and at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon and will preach again this evening at 7:30 o'clock. To-night's service will be the last of the series. Archdeacon Webber preached in Gastonia three years ago and all who heard him then will not miss an opportunity to hear him to-night. He is a speaker of eloquence and power and does not fail to claim the undivided attention and enlist the sympathies of all his auditors. It is a matter for regret that he is not to extend the series of services over several days instead of one.

Mrs. Mary E. Quinn Dead.

At the home of her son, Mr. J. L. Quinn, with whom she resided, a short distance south of town, Mrs. Mary E. Quinn, widow of the late John R. Quinn, died Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock after an illness of three months or more. Owing to the illness of some members of the family the funeral was held at the home Wednesday afternoon, Rev. J. J. Kennedy conducting the services. Interment followed in the burying ground of Olney Presbyterian church, of which the deceased had been a member for nearly 70 years. She joined this church early in life and had ever remained a faithful and loyal communicant. Mrs. Quinn was 87 years of age Dec. 28, 1906. She was married to Mr. John R. Quinn, who preceded her to the grave, having died 30 years ago last August. Only one child, Mr. J. L. Quinn, with whom she lived, survives. Mrs. Quinn was the last member of her immediate family, an only sister, Mrs. Margaret Holland, having died about three months ago. She attended Mrs. Holland during the latter's last illness, since when she had never been well. Though never very strong she lived to a ripe old age and her death brings sorrow to many friends.

TO ENJOY A GOOD DINNER.

How to Avoid Distress and Indigestion After Eating.

Let us tell you how you can enjoy a good dinner, so that the heartiest meal will set well on your stomach and cause no unpleasant and disagreeable after effects.

We will show you how to regain the appetite of your childhood and the enjoyment of food, so that it will taste as well as when mother cooked the dinner.

There is no hard work necessary to do this; no need of a rigid and self-denying diet list; no call for nasty and disagreeable medicines. Simply take a Mi-o-na stomach tablet before each meal and before going to bed, and it will so strengthen the stomach that before long a hearty meal will give you gratification and comfort, without the least fear of distress and suffering.

The strongest proof we can offer of our faith in this advice, is the fact that J. H. Kennedy & Co. give an absolute, unqualified guarantee (applying to two 50c boxes of Mi-o-na), that your money will be refunded unless Mi-o-na cures. A guarantee like this gives you confidence in Mi-o-na. They take the whole risk, and the remedy will not cost you a penny unless it cures.

Mi-o-na is not a mere digestive, giving only temporary relief, but a specific for all diseases of the stomach, strengthening the digestive organs and making a permanent cure. J11-25.

Gastonian Honored.

Mr. Earl S. Pegram, a son of Mrs. T. C. Pegram of Gastonia, and individual bookkeeper for the First National Bank of Charlotte, has been elected cashier of the First National Bank of Statesville and has signified his acceptance of the position. This is an honor worthily bestowed. Mr. Pegram is thoroughly familiar with the intricacies of banking and has had much experience in the business. At the age of 17 he was cashier of the First National Bank of Gastonia, leaving at that time the distinction of being the youngest bank cashier in the State. Ten years ago this month he went to Charlotte as bookkeeper for the First National Bank, of that city and has filled that position most satisfactorily since. The bank of which he becomes cashier and of which he will take active charge about February 1st, has recently increased its capital from $50,000 to $100,000. Mr. Pegram is a brother of Mr. Lamar C. Pegram, teller of the First National Bank of Gastonia. His many friends here congratulate him on his promotion.

New Episcopal Rector.

Rev. W. H. Hardin, the new rector of St. Mark's Episcopal church, arrived in Gastonia with his family Wednesday night from Vale Crucis, N. C. They will board for the present but will later occupy one of the Craig cottages. Mr. Hardin will assume the duties of rector of this church at once. In addition to conducting services at least once each Sunday at St. Mark's, he will also have charge of the High Shoals and Bessemer City churches. The Gastonia church has been without a rector practically all the time since the death of the late Dr. Wetmore, of Lincolnton, the church at the latter place then securing Rev. D. T. Johnson, who was at that time rector here. Rev. J. C. Seagle was rector for a short while and services have been held occasionally by other ministers of the denomination. Rev. Mr. Hardin and family are welcome additions to Gastonia's church and social circles.

Quite the Proper Thing.

Charlotte Chronicle, 9th.

It looks quite the proper thing to see a McAden again at the head of the First National Bank. Mr. Frank Gilreath having retired as president, the stockholders yesterday elected Mr. Henry M. McAden to that position. Mr. McAden is a young man of fine talents and of splendid business equipment. The stockholders have chosen wisely.

Tillman's Sympathy Misplaced.

Charlotte Chronicle.

Senator Tillman is quoted as saying in regard to the proposition to banish the negro troops: "The Philippine Islanders are a conquered people, and wards of ours, whom it is our duty to protect so far as possible from harm of every kind, and if these negro soldiers are too brutal and too dangerous to be stationed among our own people it is an injustice to inflict them upon the Philippine communities." A lot of us didn't know that there was such a thing as a Filipino until Dewey sailed into Manila Bay, but many people who have been reading since about the Filipino will be of the opinion that Tillman's sympathy is misplaced. It's for the negro soldier that he ought to be praying.
