Mr. Groundhog is making good; witness the weather we're having.

The following from The Concord Tribune of Friday will be of interest to many Gastonians, this being Mr. Carroll's home town: "At the meeting of the stockholders of the Glenn & Carroll Grocery Company yesterday, Mr. M. L. Buchanan was elected president with Mr. R. H. Carroll, secretary and treasurer. The report of last year's business was very satisfactory to the stockholders."

In relating the incidents in last Tuesday's Gazette, pertaining to the obstruction of the main-line of the Southern Railway's track opposite the Trenton Mill last Sunday by thirteen boys, who ran two or three box cars past the "clear" post on the mill siding, the fact that Mr. R. W. White flagged No. 12 and rode to the depot on the engine was not noted. Mr. White says as soon as he saw the situation, knowing the train was about due, he hurried down the track and stopped the train.

If all the patrons of all the rural routes would use "return" envelopes when writing letters the local postoffice and Uncle Sam's clerks in the dead letter office would be saved an immense amount of labor and the writers would also be saved no little worry and inconvenience. Envelopes with printed return corners can be had just about as cheap as plain envelopes and are very much more satisfactory. Patrons of rural routes would help their carriers by heeding this advice.

"This is the time of year," said a gentleman who keeps up with things in general to The Gazette reporter, "when calves, horses and other animals get lousy. There are several remedies for this but farmers should beware of using kerosene and fire as Mr. B., in a neighboring town, did. Mr. B. poured kerosene on a calf and then, in order to burn some superfluous hair from the calf's legs, applied a match. The affrighted animal ran through the barn and it was merely an accident that the barn and its contents were not destroyed by fire."

Messrs. John F. Davis & Son, the liverymen, lost a very valuable horse, one of the best in their stables, yesterday morning. It was struck by a wild box car at the crossing on the Dallas pike at the plaster mill. The horse was hitched to a wagon and was being driven by one of the stable drivers. The vehicle was damaged very little and the driver escaped without injury. The car started from a point near the Old Mill and because of the heavy down-grade had attained quite a speed by the time the crossing was reached.

Persons who send communications to this paper relative to social events or matters of any kind whatsoever should be particularly careful to see that where names of persons appear they are written correctly and plainly. Nobody likes to see his name spelled wrong or substituted by that of another. The editor does not know the name of every man, woman and child in the town and if he did he is not supposed to know whether it was John Jones or Bill Smith who was present at Sarah Ann's party. Be careful. Know what you are saying and be sure to write it right.

Mrs. T. A. Wilkins, of Gastonia, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. K. Barnett. Dr. Wilkins spent Sunday here, returning to Gastonia Monday.-Cleveland Star, 22d.

Mr. Stonewall J. Durham, of Bessemer City, was in town on business yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Sifford returned Saturday from Charlotte where they were the guests of Mr. Sifford's sister, Mrs. Florence Davis.

Misses Edith and Margaret McLean left Saturday for Rock Hill, S. C., to spend a week with relatives.

Miss Edith Self, a charming young lady of Newton, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Michael on Dallas Road. She arrived Saturday and will remain for sometime. Miss Self is a cousin of Mr. Michael and has visited frequently in Gastonia, where she has many friends.

Rev. J. N. McLain, of Poplar Tent, Cabarrus county, was in town Saturday, accompanied by his wife, his daughter, Miss Ruth McLain, and his son, Mr. Pascal McLain. Mr. McLain resided in Gastonia six years, having left here nineteen years ago. He at that time owned a half interest in The Gazette, being in partnership with Mr. J. T. Biglan, now owner and editor of The Chester (S. C.) Lantern. He was for six years pastor of Union Presbyterian church, in Gastonia, and later, for twelve years, was pastor of Allison Creek church in York county. For several years past he has been living in Cabarrus county but is now moving to Roland, Robeson county, where he will reside in the future, having accepted the pastorate of the Midway group of churches there. Mr. McLain was a welcome caller at The Gazette office while here. Many old friends were glad to greet him and his family once again.

Agent Caldwell Resigns.

Mr. I. P. Caldwell, depot agent for the Southern and C. & N.-W. Railroad, Saturday tendered his resignation to take effect as soon as his successor is appointed. Mr. Caldwell has been agent here for about a year, having come to Gastonia from Spencer. Mr. W. B. Southerland, at present cashier at the depot, has been mentioned as a possible successor to Mr. Caldwell.

Bill Passes House.

Mr. George W. Wilson, a member of the committee appointed by the recent mass meeting to draw up the bill to be introduced in the General Assembly providing for a bond issue and for improvements of the sidewalks, gutters and streets, informs The Gazette that the bill has been passed by the House, having been amended to the extent that the provision that the board of aldermen be empowered to require property owners to foot one-fourth the cost of macadamizing or paving the streets touching their property was stricken out. As the bill stands it provides that property owners bear the cost of constructing sidewalks, if so ordered by the council, but no part of the cost of constructing gutters or streets falls on them. The bill, it is understood, will pass the Senate without opposition.

ANOTHER CASE OF SMALLPOX.

Jane Woodard, Aged Negro Woman of Mount Holly, Second Victim-George Ross and Wife Placed in House of Detention-County Physician Urges Vaccination.

Another case of smallpox has broken out in the county, the victim being an aged negro woman, Jane Woodard, who lives just outside the corporate limits of Mount Holly and about four miles from Farror Brothers' store, where Mr. Jack Farror is suffering from the same disease, as reported in Friday's Gazette. The disease is not of a very malevolent type, however Friday afternoon George Ross and wife, white, of Mount Holly, were brought to the house of detention near Gastonia and are now under strict guard. They were exposed to the disease Refusing, to come, warrants were issued for them and they were placed in the detention camp by officers of the law.

About forty persons in all have been exposed to the disease in and around Mount Holly and Mountain Island but the majority of these have been vaccinated. So far, there are only these two cases. Should any considerable number of new cases develop in this section of the county, compulsory vaccination will likely be ordered. County Physician L. N. Glenn, who is in charge of the situation, advises that all persons who are likely to be exposed in any way to the disease be vaccinated. There is no excitement over the matter and it is not believed that anything like a general prevalence of smallpox in the county is probable.

VERMONT STARTS UP.

Bessemer City Mill Resumes Operation Under Direction of Receiver Jenkins.

The Vermont Cotton Mill, at Bessemer City, which ceased operation some weeks ago at the time the Southern Cotton Mill went into the hands of a receiver, resumed operations yesterday morning under the direction of Mr. L. L. Jenkins, of Gastonia, receiver. The mill is being operated for the present only in daytime. About fifty operatives are employed. Mr. R. F. Coble, superintendent of the Southern Cotton Mill, is also superintendent of the Vermont.

As yet no arrangements have been made for putting the Whitestone Mill, of which Mr. Jenkins is also receiver, in operation. The Vermont is practically a new mill.

In the Police Court.

Wardell Wilson, a negro believed to be mentally unbalanced, was tried before Mayor Dixon Saturday on a charge of breaking into the residence of Mr. P. M. Gardner Friday. In default of a $50 bond he was committed to jail to await trial at the present term of Superior Court. Wilson's actions Friday would indicate that he is crazy. He put on a wig and went to a number of houses at the Avon and Trenton Mills seeking board, asserting that he had secured work as an operative in the Avon. When he came to Mr. Gardner's house there was nobody at home and he went in. Nothing was taken. Another case disposed of by the mayor Saturday was that of Meek Lindsay, a negro, who was fined $1 and cost, amounting to $3.50 for firing a gun within the corporate limits of the town.

MR. RAWLINGS BREAKS LEG.

Assistant Postmaster Victim of Distressing Accident-Will be Confined to His Home for Some Time.

Assistant Postmaster George R. Rawlings is confined to his bed as the result of a distressing accident which befell him Saturday morning in which he suffered the fracture of the bone in one of his legs. Mr. Rawlings was in the act of taking down the mail sack which had been placed on the crane at the depot for vestibule train No. 37 when he slipped and fell to the ground. The steps were probably slippery from the recent sleet, this being responsible for the fall. Friends went to his assistance and he was removed to his home.

While suffering intensely from the wound, it is not believed that Mr. Rawlings will sustain any permanent injury therefrom. He will probably be laid up for a month or more, however. His work at the post-office is being done by the other members of the force.

There is nothing more dainty for a picnic or luncheon, than Argo Red Salmon sandwiches or salad. The Cook Book tells you how to prepare them. Ask your grocer.

RACE DRAWING TO A CLOSE.

Candidates for Mayor Will Probably Make Last Appearance on Stump for the Campaign at Modena Mill To-Night-Large Crowd Expected.

Probably the last public speaking by the candidates for mayor will take place at the school house at the Modena Mill this evening at 7:30 o'clock. There will be speeches by Mr. Separk, Mr. Armstrong and Mr. Glenn. This meeting is for the especial benefit of the operatives of the Modena and Old Mills and the candidates desire that as large a number as possible come out to hear them. All who come will no doubt be well repaid for their trouble. As this is probably the last public appearance of the candidates on the stump before the primary it is not improbable that it will be the most interesting of the series of gatherings of voters.

Last Friday night the candidates spoke at the Ozark and were heard by a good-sized and interested crowd. No unusual incidents marked the occasion but there was fun and interest for all.

Let all the voters at the Modena and Old Mills come out tonight.
