The members of the Adelphian Literary Society are very busy preparing for their cele-bration, which will take place the 25th of March.

John Bullard was hanged Friday at Marietta, Ga., for the murder of his 17-year-old daughter last September. He was a victim of consumption and it had been a question whether he would die before the day of his execution. He was so weak from the disease that he had to be supported on the scaffold and with his dying breath he declared that the death of his daughter was due to an accident.

Current Turned On.

The current was turned into the power house at the Monarch Cotton Mill, Dallas, Sunday morning over the Southern Power Company's line via Clover and Gastonia. Mr. Frank L. Moser, inspector of the construction department of the company, was readiness for the popular game of present to see that everything worked right.

Mrs. J. W. Blackwood Dead.

Mrs. Annabella Ware Black-wood, wife of Mr. John W. Blackwood, died early Sunday morning from an attack of apoplexy, in her sixtieth year. She is survived by a husband and eight children as follows: Misses Janie, Mollie, Maggie Nancy and Helen, and Messrs. Joseph, James and Charles Blackwood. Two brothers, Mr E. B. Ware, of Philipsburg, and Mr. W. A. Ware, of King's Mountain, and two sisters, Mrs. W. A. Pearson and Mrs. Robert Falls, of Pisgah, also survive. Deceased was a daughter of the late Alexander Ware, of Pisgah; who died a score of years ago, and who was one of Gaston's pioneers. The funeral was held from the Pisgah A. R. P. church, of which she was a member, yesterday morning, Revs. A. T. Lindsay and J. J. Kennedy officiating.

North Carolinians Reported Drowned in Panama. Charlotte News.

Intelligence has reached friends in this county that the entire family of Mr. J. O. King, who lived for several months in Long Creek township, was drowned on February 11th while returning to the Panama canal, where Mr. King has been superintending a squad of hands in construction work for the past two years

Mr. King left this country early in 1905, leaving his family at Mocksville, so it is understood. After spending nearly two years on the canal he decided to work permanently there and returned for his family—his wife and several children. They were on the return trip to the canal, according to the report, when the vessel in which they were sailing sunk, carrying them all to a watery grave.

It is reported that Howard Gould will purchase a large tract of land adjoining Vanderbilt's Biltmore estate and erect thereon a handsome and costly man-sion. The Asheville Citizen says that agents of either Van-derbilt or Gould have, within the past few days, secured options on large tracts of land near Skyland, eight miles southeast

Find a man who does not advertise, and you will find a man who is as rusty and old-fashioned as the goods which he is trying to sell.

-Friday evening at 8:30 o'clock about twenty young people gathered at the Thomasson House with the intention of giving the Misses Davis a surprise party. The party itself, however, was surprised and not the young ladies whom it was intended to take unawares. On arriving at the home they were ushered into a room which had been prettily decorated and where refreshments in the shape of apples, oranges, bananas, etc., awaited them. Tables were in trail which furnished amusement for all. At 11:30 o'clock the "surprisers." who had been surprised, took their to their hostesses for a most enjoyable evening.

-We presume that some people think newspaper men are persistent dunners. Let a farmer place himself in a similar position and see if he would not do the same. Suppose that he raises a thousand bushels of corn, and his neighbor should come and buy, and the price was one dol-lar or less, and says, "I will pay the amount in a few days." As the farmer does not want to be small about the matter, he says, "All right." Another comes the same way, and another, until the whole thousand bushels of corn is trusted to a thousand different people and no one of the different persons concerns himself about it, for it is a small amount they owe the farmer and of course that will not help him any. He does not realize that the farmer has frittered away his entire crop of corn, and that its value is due in a thousand little driblets, and that he is seriously embarassed in his bus-iness, because his debtors treat it as a little matter. But if all would pay him promptly, which they could as well as not, it would be a large sum to the farmer and enable him to carry on his business without difficulty.

Following a fall of one to four inches of snow in the section around Roanoke, Va., last Thursday, and with freezing weather that night, Roanoke experienced a thunder storm that been driven out of existence lasted several hours. The peals of thunder were loud and long and the flashes of lightning most vivid. The like has not been witnessed there before. The thunderstorm was accompanied by hail and rain.

MISS CARRIE WRAY DEAD.

Sister of Supt. J. S. Wray Passes Away at Haw River After Illness of Several Weeks-Burial at Shelby Yesterday-City Schools Closed Out of Respect to Her Memory.

Miss Carrie Wray, of Shelby, sister of Supt. Joe S. Wray of the Gastonia City schools, died at Haw River Saturday evening at 7 oclock, following a desperate illness of five or six weeks. Death was due to a complication of diseases and there had been scant hope for her recovery from the first. Prof. Wray was notified by wire Saturday afternoon that she was sinking and he left Gastonia on No. 12. The end came, however, before he had gotten well started on the trip and when he reached Haw River the funeral party was preparing to start on the return trip. Accompanied by her mother, Mrs. George Wray, of Shelby, who had been at her bedside for some time, and three brothers, Mr. A. V. Wray, of Lynchburg, Va.; Mr. Chevis Wray, of Ridgeway, S. C., and Prof. J. S. Wray, of Gastonia, the body was taken on No. 11 Sunday to Blacksburg and thence to Shelby where the funeral was held and interment made yesterday. Deceased is survived by her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. George Wray, of Shelby; one sister, Miss Elva Wray, a student in Converse College, Spartanburg, S. C., the three brothers mentioned above and one brother who resides in Oklahoma. She was the oldest child. She taught for two or three years in the Shelby graded schools before going to Haw River where she taught the first grade in the public schools. She was very popular both as a teacher and for her many excellent qualities of womanly charac ter. She was born and reared in Shelby and had hosts of friends there to whom her death is a Together source of sorrow. with her sister she had visited Mrs. W. J. Clifford and her brother, Prof. J. S. Wray, here and made many friends.

Out of respect to her memory and to the grief-stricken brother departure, being under obligations the city schools were closed yesterday. Prof. Wray returned last night and the schools resum-ed work this morning.

Tom Harris, alias Tom Childers, from North Carolina, who some time ago murdered and robbed Mrs. Hortensia Morgan, an aged woman who lived alone near Gaffney, S. C., was last week convicted of murder and sentenced to hang on the 29th. Mrs. Morgan kept a good deal of money in her home. Harris went to her house in daylight, killed her and got part of the money. He was arrested soon after the crime was committed.

EFFECT OF THE FOOD LAW.

Driving Many Worthless Catarrh Medicines Out of Existence.

The Pure Food and Drug Law, which went into effect the first of January, has already shown the good that will tollow its enforcement.

Many worthless remedies, that have been advertised for the cure of catarrh, a disease that is universally prevalent, have by the Pure Food Law.

The effect of this is to increase the sale of remedies that are valuable and that fulfill the provisions of the law. Hyomei, for example, is meeting with a larger sale than ever before, and J. H. Kennedy & Company are still selling it under a guarantee that it will cure catarrh or the money will be refunded. Hyomei is a scientific treatment that is recommended by the best physicians. It cures catarrh without stomach dosing, through inhaling medications that go right to the affected

By breathing Hyomei three or four times daily through the neat pocket inhaler that comes with every outfit, its medicated, healing air penetrates to the most remote parts of the nose, throat and lungs, searches out and kills all catarrhal germs, and soothes and heals any irritation in the mucous membrane.

The complete Hyomei outfit costs $1.00, extra bottles if needed, 50c, and is sold by J. H. Kennedy & Counder the guarantee that it will cure or costs M12-26.
