PERSONAL MENTION.

—No new cases of smallpox have been reported this week at Mt. Holly. The negro, Sam Farror, one of the last cases reported, seems to be in a critical condition. —On account of a heavy run of advertising and other matter we are forced to omit our railroad story which should run to-day. Another one will appear next Tuesday without fail. —A large crowd of Gastonia boys and girls went to Charlotte last night to attend the play "Marrying Mary" which was presented at the Academy of music last night by Miss Marie Cahill and company. —Miss Virgie Davis is confined to her home on account of injuries received in an accident Saturday in the custom department of the Yeager-McLean Manufacturing Company. —Landscape Architect Leigh Colver, of Charlotte, arrived yesterday to begin work of beautifying the grounds of the Main Street Methodist church and parsonage. A force of men began work yesterday morning and the work is now well under way. —Mr. W. E. Morrison, of Statesville, who recently purchased the old brick plant at Stanley, moved to the latter place yesterday. His machinery has been shipped from Statesville and he expects to have the plant in operation in a very short time. —Mr. J. D. Ford, of Charlotte, who has the contract to build the residence and storehouse at the Southern Power Company's sub-station, near the Modena, spent yesterday in town. He put a force of hands to work on these buildings yesterday morning. They are under the foremanship of Mr. O'Daniel. —Gastonia will be represented in Charlotte Wednesday night at the presentation of "The Clansman" at the Academy of Music. Advance Agent Henry I. McMahon, who was in Gastonia last week, said to The Gazette reporter that the company would present "The Clansman" in Gastonia if the opera house facilities were adequate, but the stage is too small. The play was presented in Concord Saturday night. —Mrs. Nancy Oates, wife of Mr. Thomas M. Oates, died Saturday, March 2nd, at the home of Mr. J. E. Carson in the Pisgah neighborhood. The funeral was conducted by Rev. A. T. Lindsay at Pisgah A. R. P. church Sunday, the 3rd, and the body was interred in the cemetery there. She is survived by one brother, S. A. Shelley, route No. 2, Bessemer City, and two sisters, Mrs. Ambrose Rhyne, residing near Dallas, and Mrs. Margaret Thomas. —A few days ago we quoted a gentleman to the effect that the operation of the new 2 1/2 cent flat passenger rate on the railroads would save Gastonians $200 a month. Another figure that it will reach at least $400 a month. The passenger receipts at the local depot amount to $2,000 a month and he says the savings will be at least 20 per cent on an average. This would bring the figures up to $400 or $4,800 a year—quite a neat little sum; one worth saving. —Mr. A. S. Anderson, of the Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, Va., who came to Gastonia for the purpose of looking over the field with a view to taking charge of the work of the Presbyterian church in West Gastonia, preached in the Lora school house Sunday afternoon and at the First Presbyterian church Sunday evening. Mr. Anderson made a good impression upon both congregations and many are delighted with the prospects of having him as the pastor of the new church. He left for Richmond yesterday afternoon. —Senator O. F. Mason, of Dallas, was in town to-day en route home from Raleigh. —Messrs. John F. Davis & Son have received a lot of new buggies and surreys, all rubber-tired and brand new. They are also adding to their already large stock of fine horses. —The C. & N.-W. Railway has paid Messrs. J. F. Davis & Son $200 for the fine horse which was killed at the crossing near the plaster factory several weeks ago, this being a compromise settlement. —Sergeant James Gattis arrived Friday from Fort Douglas, Utah, to spend several weeks with homefolks. Mr. Gattis has just entered upon his third enlistment with Uncle Sam and is now on a three-months leave of absence from his regiment, the 2d U. S. Infantry, stationed at Fort Douglas, Utah. Mr. Gattis has seen service in the Philippines and many Western States. After the recent seismic disturbances at San Francisco he was on duty there. —The Alaska Packers Association, who can the Argo Red Salmon, has the largest fleet in numbers of any shipping firm sailing under the American flag. It owns 55 steamers and 15 sailing vessels and charters many more.

FIREMEN'S FUND.

With Campaign Just Begun $68.50 of the Desired $500 Raised—The Contributors. Subscriptions to the firemen's fund are beginning to come in, although the committee has not yet been out in earnest soliciting subscriptions. By the time for the next issue of The Gazette it is hoped the list will be much larger. The committee which has charge of the subscription list is composed of Messrs. J. A. Spencer and W. L. Coon. Anyone desiring to contribute to the fund, which will be used to give the town and suburbs better and more adequate fire protection by providing a pair of fine horses and harness for the new wagon, should not fail to give his name to one of the members in order that the contribution may be properly entered. The following subscriptions were on the list this morning: John F. Love, $25.00; Craig & Wilson, 25.00; Adams Drug Co., 5.00; Williams Fur. Co., 5.00; John P. Davis, 5.00; V. E. Long, 5.00; L. H. City and was highly respected by many friends and acquaintances. New Horses and Carriages. In order to take care of its rapidly increasing business the Gastonia Livery Company is enlarging its equipment by increasing the number of its horses and vehicles. Saturday ten new single buggies, rubber-tired and all brand new, and five carriages were installed. The company also purchased from Craig & Wilson two pairs of fine horses which are added to the already large number of good animals in the stables. All this is directly in line with the policy of the firm, which is to furnish high-class livery at all times to the public.

New Law Firm. Messrs. A. C. Jones and P. W. Garland, of Virginia, are the members of a new law firm for Gastonia. The former is a brother of Mr. D. M. Jones, the cotton broker, and is from Abingdon, Va. These young men arrived Saturday from Charlottesville, Va., where they have completed the law course in the University of Virginia. Recently they have been engaged, under the direction of the law faculty of the university, in doing some special work. Gastonia welcomes these additions to her circle of legal lights. The Gazette extends to them the glad hand and wishes them all kinds of success in their profession here.

Your Eyes Ready? Now that the Holidays are over and the New Year beginning, we must get down to serious things again. The first and most important item—your eyes. How about them? Are they in good shape for another year's hard work? Hadn't you better have us make a careful and complete test and if glasses are needed, have them fixed at once? Torrence-Morris Co.
