—People take newspapers nowadays, read them and then throw them away. They never think what a source of pleasure and profit—or reminiscence and thought, a file or even a few numbers of such a paper would be to them twenty or thirty years afterwards. Pay for your pa-pers and then keep them.

Mr. B. H. Massey, who has had charge of the construction force of the Southern Power Company in Gastonia for the past six months, will move his squad of men to the falls near Fort Mill, S. C., where they will go in camp for the summer. This force of men will build a line to connect the Gastonia-Clover line with the power station at the dam with the power station at the dam near Fort Mill:

—It has been frequently suggested and the suggestion is a good one, for every farmer to place his name and the name of his farm on his roadgate. Not only would persons driving to a place more easily find it, but it would add more pleasure and interest to people driving from place to place. This last result would have special effect with regard to well kept and pretty houses. An observing person will seldom pass a beautiful farm without desiring to know who is its enterprising owner.

—Attention is directed to the advertisements of the Buck range now running in this paper. The E. L. Little Furniture Company are the local agents. There is now on exhibition in the company's show window a handsome miniature Buck range which will be given to the little girl who draws the best picture of the Buck trade-mark. Particulars may be had from a pamphlet which any little girl can have for the asking at the store and from reading ing at the store and from reading the advertisements each issue in The Gazette.

Rev. J. R. Moose, Methodist missionary to Korea, will conduct services at Main Street church Thursday and Friday, March 21 and 22, unless providentially hindered. Mr. Moose is a North Carolinian and has been in Korea several years. At present he is at home on a year's leave of absence and while in his home country is devoting much of his time to disseminating missionary is time to disseminating missionary information. He will visit other churches in the Shelby district dur-ing the four days following his visit to Gastonia.

-Mr. C. C. Inman, until recently depot and express agent at Lowell, has resigned has position and has been succeeded by Mr. J. R. Busch, formely of Gastonia. Readers of The Gazette will remember that some weeks ago, while Mr. Inman was agent at Lowell, a package containing $1,200 in currency, which was expressed by the First National Bank of Gastonia to the McAden Mills, mysteriously disappeared from the Lowell office and so far no trace of it has been found. The trace of it has been found. The thief or thieves have never been ap-perhended. Mr. Inman had been agent at Lowell far a year or more and was greatly liked by the people there. From Lowell Mr. Inman went to the home of relatives at Greenville, S. C., and it is understood that he has been transferred to other work on the same system. to other work on the same system.

-Rev. Dr. J. G. Kennedy, who has been supplying the pulpit of the A. R. P. church for some weeks, will return to his home at Allegheny, Pa. after the fourth Sabbath of the present month to resume his pastoral work. Rev. Dr. Kennedy has greatly endeared himself to the Gastonia congregation and to the town as well. He is an excellent preacher and has been heard here with great pleasure by members of all denominations. He has been in the South for the past two months and during for the past two months and during that time has gained steadily in strength and flesh. He is heavier now, he says, than he has been at this church including the third Sabbath in April.

-Rev. J. J. Kennedy will preach at the Loray school house Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. A baptismal seruice will be held in the First Presbyterian church at 4 p. m. Sunday. The pastor requests that all parents

A SURPRISE WEDDING.

Claude A. Eury, The Gazette's Local Reporter, and Miss Cora Kincald Surprise Their Friends by Getting Married - Ceremony Witnessed by Only a Few Friends-Oll on Bridal Trip.

-Among those who attended "The Clansman" from Clover, S. C., were Mrs. Margaret Ford, Misses Emma Ford and Janie Barnett. paper, stole a march on their friends last night. They were married at the home of the bride's father, Mr. J. J. Kincaid, on Franklin avenue, at 8:30 o'clock last night and left on No. 35 at 10:30 for a bridal trip South. Some of their close friends suspicioned that Cupid was holding a surprise of some kind up his sleeve (we don't believe Cupid has any sleeves but we had to rig him up for this purpose) but no hint of the time had escaped him. Consequently there was some surprise among their intimate friends when the latter were summoned late yesterday evening to be at the home of the bride-to-be at 8:30 o'clock. Only a few were present to witness the ceremony, which was impressively performed by Rev. R. C. Anderson, pastor of the bride. It was a very simple home affair. There were no attendants.

Following the ceremony congratulations were extended the happy young couple and they left on a southbound train for a Gazette's job office, spent Wednesday week's absence. On their rewith homefolks at Lincolnton. turn they will continue to reside in Gastonia.

The groom is well known in Gastonia, where he has resided for a number of years. At the conclusion of his course in Oakland High School he enlisted in the United States Navy and served four years, attaining the rank of gunner's mate and making an enviable reputation. Since his honorable discharge nearly two years ago he has been engaged in newspaper work. He was for a short while with The Charlotte Observer but has been connected most of the time since his return with The Gazette. The bride has been for several years a compositor on The Gazette force, in which capacity she won the esteem and confidence of all with whom she came in contact and her absence from the shop is a matter for regret on the part of all connected therewith. She is a young lady of many charms of person and manner and has a large circle of friends with whom those of the groom join, together with The Gazette, in wishing a long, happy and prosperous wedded life.

Music Recital.

Invitations have been issued to a recital to be given this evening by the members of the Etude Music Club in the rooms of A. D. Jones & Co., on Main street. The club is composed of the pupils of Mrs. B. T. Morris. An excellent program has been arranged for the occasion and the recital promises to be a delightful affair.

To Fill Vacancies.

Mr. G. A. Gray and Mr. John O. Rankin, nominees for aldermen from the fourth and fifth wards respectively, have tendered their resignations to the citizens executive committee. To fill the vacancies thus created a second primary will be held and it is probable that it will be called for next Thursday, the desperately ill with the same 21st. The committee has had disease at this writing. Funeral no formal meeting as yet to services were held in the Presbyname the date but the day above terian church at Belmont mentioned has been practically Wednesday and interment was agreed upon. This mass meeting or primary will also be for the consideration of any other business that may come up.
