FRIDAY, APRIL 26, 1907.

The Raleigh Evening Times did itself proud Monday by sending out a very attractive 36-page industrial edition. Raleigh and its environs are shown up in a pleasing manner, the paper being profusely illustrated throughout. Congratulations to The Times on this exhibition of push and enterprise.

The Charlotte papers now have some more grist for their editorial mills. Some cold-blooded, hard-hearted, narrow-minded, unreasoning fellah has gone and writ a book to prove that the Mecklenburg Delaration of Independence is not the genuine article. When Brother Caldwell and Brother Wade Harris get through with this villainous gent he'll look like thirty cents, we bet.

Soon the college graduate—he who knows it all—will be giving the statesmen, and all the rest of us for that matter, floods of advice, put up in pretty packages of oratory, as to how to run the government—and everything else. It won't hurt, sonny. We're used to big annual doses of it and somehow don't feel like summer's really here until we've taken it. It won't hurt us and it will do you good. You'll recover after while and so will we.

A conference between Mr. W. L. Hall, in charge of the Appalachian and White Mountain Forest Reserve Survey, and a number of influential business men is being held at Asheville this week to discuss plans and prospects for the proposed survey. Mr. Hall left Washington Thursday for Asheville. Before leaving the capital, which he had just reached from Boston where he had been in attendance on a combined meeting of a number of clubs and associations interested in the work of forestry preservation, he told the Washington correspondent of The Charlotte Observer that the movement is rapidly gaining ground. The South, he says, is rapidly awakening to the vast importance of the movement. New England, he added, is already unanimous in its favor. This is indeed a matter of vital import to the South and the sooner our people are brought to a realization of the fact the less cause will the coming generations of people in this country have for regret at our stupidity. The ruthless commercialism that is denuding our forests with no thought of economy and scarcely a care as to the ill consequences to be suffered in the future as a result thereof, stands as a crying indictment against an age and a people who can see nothing but the dollars their hands can reach.

Zach McGhee, The Charlotte Observer's Washington correspondent, writes his paper a most interesting letter regarding the approaching Southern tour of Hon. Francis H. Hitchcock, first assistant postmaster general. The prime object, according to this writer, of "General" Hitchcock's visit to this section of the country is to repair, if possible, the damage done by Secretary Taft when the latter declared, at a big banquet in Greensboro a year ago, that it would be better for Southern Republicans if Democrats held all the offices. The Southern Republicans, in North State at any rate, didn't take very kindly to this view of the situation. Since then Republican fences in the Old North Carolina have tumbled down in some places and have grown pretty shaky on others. Mr. Taft, you know, is a prospective candidate for the presidency, presumably the candidate of the administration. Mr. Hitchcock, by the way, by reason of his position as first assistant postmaster general, has in his hands the disposition of the majority of chunks of Federal pie—little hunks they are, in the shape of fourth-class postoffices—he is chosen as the best man to square Mr. Taft with Southern Republicans. He is described as a smooth politician but he will need all of his shrewdness if he accomplishes the desired results. He has a pretty big job on his hands.

Masquerade Party.
Next Tuesday night from 8 to 10.30 o'clock there will be a masquerade party at Williams & Duff's skating rink. The party will be chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Michael, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Sifford and Mr. and Mrs. William King. To the young lady who wears the best masquerade will be given a box of Huyler's candy while to the best masqueraded young man will be given a box of cigars. The chaperones will be the judges. There will be about 25 young couples present and the occasion is expected to be a most pleasant one. The skating rink will close for the season Saturday night, May 4th.

Noble, of the chair of pedagogy at the University of North Carolina, has accepted an invitation to deliver the annual commencement address at the closing of the city graded schools May 27th. Prof. Noble is a teacher of even more than State-wide reputation and Superintendent Wray was successfully in that he was able to secure for this occasion such a speaker. The commencement exercises will take place Monday night, May 27th, in the opera house. The annual sermon before the students will be preached Sunday, the 26th in Main Street Methodist church by Rev. E. L. Bain.

GUARANTEED Stomach REMEDY
You may ask why J. H. Kennedy & Co. are able to guarantee to refund the money unless Mi-o-na Stomach Tablets cure when no other remedy for stomach troubles is sold in this manner.
If the stomach is only given a rest by using a digestive, the muscles soon become weak, and it is necessary to continue taking a digestive tablet after every meal. On the other hand, Mi-o-na used before eating, strengthens the stomach so that you will soon be well enough to give up the use of medicine.
Mi-o-na costs but 50c a box, and makes positive and complete cures. The best proof of its merits is the guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure that J. H. Kennedy & Co. give with every box.

SMALLPOX AT CROUSE.
Town Just Across the Line in Lincoln Has Several Cases.
A report came to Gastonia yesterday that there were twenty cases of smallpox at Crouse station, which is just across the line in Lincoln county. This report seems to have been exaggerated but had foundation in fact.
A telephone message from Cherryville to The Gazette this morning brought the information that there were several mild cases of the disease at Crouse, possibly six or seven, around the factory of the Burke Manufacturing Company. The name of only one victim, however, could be learned, that of Mr. M. M. Burke, proprietor of the Burke Manufacturing Company.
In a card published in The Cherryville Eagle of this week, issued yesterday, Supt. S. P. Wilson of the Cherryville graded schools announces that, on account of this outbreak of the disease, the commencement exercises will not be held. An interesting program for this event had been arranged and its cancellation is a matter for regret to the Cherryville people.
—Though it has been only a week since The Gazette announced its intention of giving free trips to the Jamestown Exposition to two young ladies, much interest is already being manifested in the contest. Watch Friday's paper for the first list of candidates and their respective votes. In the meantime, when you remit for subscriptions vote for your favorite among the fair sex. Every issue of the paper also contains a coupon worth ten votes by itself. Don't overlook these.

The Year Around Your Money's Worth

Talking of what has been, we hear a lot these days of advancing prices, and everything going skyward, but stop a minute to investigate.

The Swan-Slater Co's stock was never in fuller flower.

$10 never bought more of style or tailoring than it does this spring at Swan-Slater Co's. Nor $15 or $20 or $25.

The man who lets a store foist something on him that isn't up to the mark, because "everything is higher" is missing his suit opportunities.

He is not getting that great "money's worth" that Swan-Slater Co. finds it possible to give him.

Eight Cars Ditched.
Early Wednesday morning a freight train on the C. & N.-W. came to grief just north of the trestle over Bradley's branch above town. Eight loaded cars, seven box cars and one flat car, were derailed and thrown into a ditch. Wednesday the passenger train made its round trip over the Southern's tracks via Charlotte. A track, about 175 feet long, was built around the wreck and is now being used. It is expected that the debris will be removed and the old track put in use again by Monday. All of the freight was transferred, the damage to it being trifling. The cars were injured very little and the entire loss is estimated at about $250.
