We are constrained to believ that there would be fewer lynchings in the South if justice were meted out with as much expedition as was the case in Woodbury, N. J., last week when Edward Gibson, a negro who, on the day following his crime, which was assaulting a young white girl, was sentenced to twelve years at hard labor in the penitentiary and to pay a fine of $3,000.

Friday is Memorial Day in the South and, as told elsewhere in to-day's Gazette, will be fittingly observed in Gastonia. The Gazette sincerely hopes that every veteran in Gaston county who can possibly do so will make arrangements to be in Gastonia on that day and participate in the exercises designed to do honor to them and to their brothers who have crossed over the river and are resting under the shade of the trees. Year by year the ranks of the veterans grow thinner and thinner and as the number grows constantly smaller these gatherings, the object of which is to honor the dead heroes and keep the memory of their noble deeds green, should, and doubtless do, grow dearer and more sacred to those that remain.

The cartoon in yesterday's Charlotte News was particularly expressive and represents a condition of affairs which is, alas too true. On one side of a fence stands the farmer, with his broad-brimmed hat and smoking his corn-cob pipe, standing by a large sign which says "Wanted—Farm help." On the rates will apply from Gastonia, N. other side of the fence is a long Season Tickets. procession of fresh college graduates who, turning a deaf ear to the farmer's cry for help, are rushing pell-mell after a profession, one to the law, another to medicine and so on ad infinitum. It is easy to believe that many in this long procession would make good farmersor farm hands at any rate-who will be failures in the professions they so eagerly seek to enter. It is not at all hard to believe, either that years hence not a few in this long procession will sigh regretfully that the farmer's call was unheeded.

A new set of town officials are now at the helm and the management of Gastonia's affairs is in their bands. In the very outset of the official career of the men composing the governing boards The Gazette bespeaks for them the hearty co-operation of every loyal citizen of Gastonia. Our town is growing constantly and every step forward places an hunter. It was in a fair state of extra burden upon the men at the helm; they need the good will and help of the entire citizenship to enable them to accomplish the largest possible results for the town. As the with fire. The disappearance of town expands along various the boy and the belief that he lines the problems of its life become more complex and less easy of solution. Let all shoulders go to the wheel in an effort to push Gastonia to the front with all possible speed. The Gazette has no criticism to make of the retiring board. They were men who labored earnestly and conscientiously and discharged their duty as they saw it. They retire with the confidence and esteem of the citizens and the record they leave behind they are not ashamed of.

Every once-in-awhile, however, from some remote section comes such a story with all the earmarks of truth. Such a story was carried by the daily paper of Saturday under a Greenville, S. C., date line. It told how a party of revenue officers slipped into the "Dark Corner"-famous as the home of illicit-whiskey makersand captured a big still and two blockaders. While holding their captives at bay pending the arrival of assistance, the officers were surrounded by grizzly mountaineers armed with Winchesters who demanded the release of the prisoners. They also told the revenuers to skiddo and the advice was taken without any parleying. It was a real romantic performance and, if embellished with a few scenes from life, would make good copy for a wild and wooly dime nov-

LITTLE POCKET PHYSICIAN.

Thousands who have been cured by Hyomei call the inhaler that comes with every outfit the 'Little Pocket Physician," as i is so small that it can be carried in the pocket or purse.

There is really no excuse whatever for anyone having catarrh now that Hyomei is so readily obtainable. If you have any doubt about its value, J. H. Kennedy & Co. will let you have a complete outfit, with the understanding that unless it cures catarrh, it will not cost you a cent. The complete Hyomei outfit consists of the "Little Pocket Physician" and a bottle of Hyomei and costs only $1.00.

Resolutions endorsing William J. Bryan for the Democratic nomination for the presidency were adopted by the Florida State Senate last week.

A new company of the National Guard has been organized at Shelby, to take the place of the one disbauded last week for failure to appear for inspection. It seems that the failure to appear is owing to some local trouble. In a few days the new company will be mustered in and will take the old place in the regiment.

OLD OFFICERS OUSTED.

The Smith Faction Wins Out in Bessemer City Election-A Celebration Last Night.

There was a general jollification at Bessemer City last night as the result of yesterday's municipal election, the celebrants being the newely elected town officers and their friends. The members of the outgoing official family did not partici-pate; if they saw or heard the celebration it was from afar off. There were sounds of revelry by night-or words to that effect. The band played patriotic airs, Dixie" included, it is presufined; the torch light sent its glittering rays skyward (there was no moon) the new officers responded to calls and gave vent to their oratorical inclinationsand all went merry as a marriage bell.

Just what the issues were in the campaign which preceded this election The Gazette has been unable to learn; in fact a supporter of the winning faction informed the reporter over the phone last night that there were no issues. There were two factions; one won, the other was defeated. The campaign, however, it is stated, was quite a lively one and no little interest was aroused as is shown by the fact that the vote polied was the largest ever cast in a municipal election at Bessemer

Mr. John A. Smith, the wellknown cotton mill man and incidentally editor and owner of The Bessemer City Messenger which figured largely in the campaign and which was subjected to some quite severe criticism from outside sources because of its scathing attacks on the existing authority and manner of governing the town, was elected mayor, receiving 179 votes as against 52 received by his opponent, Mr. Robert Kennedy. He succeeds Mr. lke White as the town's chief executive. The town commissioners elected are: R. F. Coble, J. W. Moose, Alex Sarvice, H.

D. George and John Rollins; Mr J. L. Burke was elected treasurer and Mr. D. L. Payne town marshal. The defeated candidates are Messrs: Robert Kennedy for mayor; Jim Dixon, Henry Froneberger, D. A. Garrison, C. A Thronburg and Adolphus Davis.

Rogation Season.

Father, I've sleepless lain
Since long before the dawn:
And from Thee I would gain
A gift through Thy Dear Son—
That which I crave and need the most.
The watch-care of the Holy Ghost.

Though vile and steeped in sin, Yet there is left in me, My very heart within, A crying after Thee: Oh may the comforter impart His healing balm to cleanse my

I'd live so in Thy sight
That all I meet should see
That Thou hast sent the light
To guide my steps to Thee.
So all should hope their hearts to greet
With loving joy the Paraclete.
DAVID S. L. JOHNSON.

The Wilkesboro Chronicle says that at the Wyatt saw mill, in Union township, Wilkes county, last Friday, Jesse Oliver, an off-bearer, in picking up a plank accidentally touched it against the running saw. This threw Oliver astride the saw, which, centering his backbone, cut half way through his body. In this horrible condition the man lived nearly an hour.
