MRS. J. W. CULP DEAD.

Young Wife of Twenty Months Passes Away After Brief Illness—Body Taken to Lancaster, S. C., Her Old Home for Burial—Members of Family With Her When End Came.
Following an illness of scarcely two weeks, Mrs. Lillie M.
Culp, wife of Mr. J. W. Culp, of the Standard Hardware Company, died Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock. She had been desperately ill for several days, and as a last resort she underwent a difficult operation three or four days before the end came. All that friends and loved ones could do to relieve her pain and restore her if possible to health was done but to no avail. Four sisters and Mr. Culp's mother were with her when the end came.
The body was taken on train No. 40 Friday night to Lancaster, S. C., her old home, where the funeral and interment took place Saturday afternoon about 4 o'clock. The remains were accompanied by the grief-stricken husband who will remain with relatives there for several days.
Mrs. Culp was a daughter of the late Major B. F. Miller, of Lancaster, S. C., and was about 24 years of age. She was married to Mr. Culp in September, 1905, soon after Mr. Culp came to Gastonia to take charge of the Standard Hardware Company's store. She is survived by the following sisters: Mrs.
L. C. Lazenby, Mrs. William Drennan, and Miss Pearl Miller, of Lancaster; Mrs. R. B. Mackey, of Heath Springs; Mrs. J. P.
Hackney, of Charlotte and Mrs.
James Iceman, of Birmingham, Ala. Her father and only brother died soon after her marriage.
The deceased was a most estimable young woman and the entire community laments her death, and extend its sympathy to the heartbroken husband.
She was a loyal and consistent member of Main Street Methodist church.

Beard-Harrill.
At the residence of Mr. Pink Pethel on West Air Line street, Friday night at 8 o'clock Mr.
Haskell A. Beard, son of Mr. J.
B. Beard, of Gastonia, and Miss Alice V. Harrill, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Harrell, also of Gastonia, were married by Capt.
W. I. Stowe. Both these young people are well known in Gastonia where they have many friends who join The Gazette in wishing them much happiness. The marriage was a surprise affair and was to have taken place Sunday, but the young couple decided not to wait any longer than Friday night.
A Fine Showing.
Rev. J. A. Hoyle returned Friday afternoon from Maiden where he attended the commencement exercises of South Fork Baptist Institute, of which he is one of the trustees. There was no sermon or address, the exercises being conducted entirely by the students of the school, of whom there are over 100. The programme included exercises Thursday night, Friday morning and Friday night.
There were at least a thousand people present Friday, says Mr.
Hoyle. Rev. O. L. Stringfield, who took charge of the institute the first of January when it had been forced to close, has had remarkable success. He will remain at the head of the school and the trustees and friends are expecting that it will grow rapidly. At the annual meeting of the board of trustees held during commencement the president's report showed that the expense of operation this year exceeded the income only $57.49 and this amount was more than covered by a liberal donation from a friend of the institution. Under the circumstances a much larger deficit was expected.

YORK AND YORKVILLE

What's Doing Among our Neighbors Just Across the Line.
Yorkville Requirer, 17th.
The white firemen of Yorkville are to have a picnic at the Abernathy fishery on Wednesday, May 29th.
For some days past the chain-gang has been engaged in preparing the bottoms on the county home farm for a big corn crop.
Meetings of the respective township divisions of the York County Southern Cotton Association have been called to be held in the various townships, Saturday, May 25, for the purpose of taking steps looking to final organization of the proposed York County Southern Cotton Association Agency, in accordance with the recent application for charter. As has already been explained, the business of this proposed corporation will be to erect warehouses wherever they may be needed in the different townships for the purpose of storing, insuring, buying, selling and advancing money on cotton.
It is proposed that the capital stock be subscribed by cotton producers and that the business be run entirely in the interest of the stockholders.
The Winnie Davis Chapter United Daughters of the Confederacy has agreed upon the programme for the unveiling of the monument to the Confederate soldiers of York county on Friday, June 7. The main feature of the day are to be a civic and military parade and addresses by Governor Martin F. Ansel and Colonel Asbury Coward, the latter of whom it will be remembered, made the address on the occasion of the corner stone laying.
The Civic League has in comtemplation quite an elaborate entertainment to be given next fall, in the way of a presentation of "Tots in Fairyland." Some twenty or thirty children in costume will take part in the presentation, and altogether it promises to be the most ambitious attempt of the kind that has ever been made in Yorkville.
Miss Rosa Lindsay will have general direction of the undertaking.
Miss Margaret Ormand was married to Mr. Edward M. Shillinglaw, of Yorkville, R. F. D.
No. 7, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G.
C. Ormand, of Yorkville, R. F. D.
No. 6, at 4:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, the ceremony being performed by Rev. W. B.
Arrowood, of Bethel Presbyterian church.

CHERRYVILLE CHAT.

Terse News Notes from Gaston's Northernmost Town.
Cherryville Eagle, 16.
A big crowd of the young people are going to Cleveland Springs the fourth Sunday in this month.
Bob Bess shot and killed another negro by the name of Hoover at Play Sunday. The shooting is claimed to have been accidental. Particulars could not be obtained.
The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Carpenter died early Monday morning of cholera infantum after several days of illness. The sweet little one was laid to rest in the Lutheran cemetary. Rev. E. H. Kohu conducted the burial services. Our loss is Heaven's gain. We extend our sincerest sympathy to the grief stricken parents and relatives.
The furniture and drugs for Cherryville's new drug store has arrived and has been installed and they are now ready for business.
The style of the firm will be the Cherryville Drug Co. Oscar Carpenter, of Stanley, was here yesterday looking after it. This is a long needed enterprise and our people should give it support, which doubtless they will.
It is an up-to-date industry, they having bought exceptionally fine cabinets and show cases.
It is a beautiful scene to look upon and surpasses many city drug stores.
The promoters are men of fine business ability and will run a clean, servicable drug store.

ADAMS DRUG CO.
The Mills and the People.
Charleston News and Courier.
A rarely novel proposition is that of some 3,500 citizens of Union, S. C., who have signed petitions addressed to the directors of the Union Buffalo Cotton Mills, praying that they reinstate Thomas C. Duncan as president of those mills—now incorporated as one since their failure under the administration of Mr. Duncan a year or two ago.
The petitions at least manifest remarkable popular confidence in the integrity and ability of Mr. Duncan, whose reputation as a successful cotton mill manager underwent a strain of some severity in 1905.
Perhaps the most interesting phase of the affair is the apparent reluctance of the 3,500 petitioners to purchase the properties and place Mr. Duncan in control. It seems that so large a body of men interested in cotton mill investments would be able easily to raise the necessary money to obtain the control of this corporation, especially as its shares are quoted at a figure below par, owing to misfortunes and dating the present management.
Speaking in general terms, we sometimes entertain a mild doubt if persons whose stake is less than one share of the par value of one hundred dollars in a private corporation are entitled to serious attention when they offer suggestions concerning the corporation's management.

STONEWALL'S BEST MAN DEAD

Mr. C. D. Fishburne Took Part in the Great General's Wedding.
Charlottesville, Va., Dispatch, 16th. Clement D. Fishburne died this morning at his home on High street. Mr. Fishburne was 75 years old, born in Waynesboro, Va., and was educated at Washington College, now Washington and Lee University, and at the University of Virginia. He practiced law in Charlottesville for many years, but for the last 20 years he had been cashier of the Bank of Albemarle, of which he was one of the founders.
Before the war he was a teacher in Davidson College, North Carolina, and in 1857 when Gen.
"Stonewall" Jackson and Miss Anna Morrison were married, he was the best man. He served with credit throughout the war as a member of the Rockbridge Artillery.
Mr. Fishburne's first wife was Miss Sarah Waddell, by whom there was no issue, and his second Miss Elizabeth Wood, daughter of the late John Wood, of this city. She survives him with three sons.

BASEBALL

The Gastonia team won the first game of the summer series from McAdenville in a hotly contested game at the Lory ball park Saturday afternoon.
The game was interesting from start to finish. Several times McAdenville lost chances to score on account of her inability to hit Fullenwilder. Price, McAdenville's twirler, was in the game as of old and did some good work in the box, but Fullenwilder did him one better, as Gastonia presented the best aggregation of batters. The home team scored her only run in the fourth inning when Miller, A. opened with a two-base hit in left field followed by an error which scored the run.
With the exception of an hour's delay in starting, the game fully satisfied the many spectators.
Following is the score by innings:
Gastonia 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0-1 4 1 McAdenville 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0 4 3 Batteries: Fullenwilder and Miller, A., Price and Bumgarner.
Umpire, George G. Glenn, time of game 1.50.

In order to keep the interest in baseball awake the Greer's, S. C., team will be in Gastonia again Friday and Saturday to try the Gastonia team again.
The South Carolina team has been somewhat strengthened since its first appearance and is confident of a victory over the Lory aggregation. On the other hand the Gastonia boys will be there with the goods as usual and expect to carry off the diamond the greater part of the laurels. Fullenwilder and Smith will do the pitching for the Gastonia team.
Counterfeit greenbacks in denominations of $10, $20, and even as high as $100 are being circulated in High Point. The money is a very good imitation the only difference being in the paper, the counterfeit not having the silken threads interwoven as the genuine has. The banks are on the lookout and the citizens in general have been warned.
