Moving Picture Shows.

The AmusU, the latest attraction in town in the shape of a moving picture show, opened in the Armstrong building last night and those who came out to be entertained were many. Messrs. Chas. Cavis and Fred Barkley are the owners and managers of the amusement parlor and they promise the public a high class entertainment. For the present the AmusU will be open only at night but it is probable that, a little later, it will also be in operation in the afternoon. The pictures will be changed twice each week. Illustrated songs will be added at an early date. Judging from the crowd that was present last night the AmusU promises to become the centre of attraction for the pleasure seekers of Gastonia.
