COMMENCEMENT AT BELMONT.

Bishop Haid Awards Diplomas and Medals to the Successful Students—The Well-Earned Honors of Vincent B. Martinez, of the Island of Guam.
Charlotte Observer.
Belmont, June 12.—The twenty-ninth annual commencement exercises at St. Mary's College, Belmont, were held in the beautiful auditorium of the gymnasium—a building which speaks eloquently of the rapid march of education in the South.
The Rt. Rev. Leo Haid, O. S. B., D. D., president of the college, presided and awarded the diplomas, medals and premiums to the successful students.
After a pleasing vocal and instrumental entertainment by members of the college choir and the college orchestra, honors were announced.
For having successfully completed the classical course diplomas were awarded to: Francis J. Hund, Manayunk, Pa.; Samuel A. Welsh, McKeesport, Pa.; Paul F. O'Brien, Ivesdale, Ill.; J. Clinton Allard, Richmond, Va.; Ambrose J. Sherry, Bellefonte, Pa.; James F. Gallagher, Philadelphia, Pa.; John A. Locke, Dupont, Pa.
Commercial Course: LeRoy
Lee, Washington, N. C.; Louis Lawler, Live Oak, Fla.; Howard Hite, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Wm. Wells, Knoxville, Tenn.; Leo O'Loughlin, Brookville, Pa.; Vincent B.
Martinez, Island of Guam; Georgia McGrath, Marblehill, Ga.
Gold medals were awarded to the following who attained the highest average, above ninety in their respective classes: Francis J. Hund, Manayunk, Pa.; Clinton T. Graydon, Greenwood, S. C.; Anthony Demarest, New York; LeRoy Lee, Washington, N. C.; Daniel G. Burns, Washington, Pa.; Nicholas M.
Bailey, Richmond, Va.
Mr. J. Clinton Allard, of Richmond, was valedictor.
Mr. Martinez deserves special mention. After the American occupation of the island of Guam several youths were sent to the United States to be fitted to meet the new conditions arising in the island. Among the number was Vincent B.
Martinez, nephew of Father Palomo pastor of the church at Agana, the capital, and who now, after four years of hard and unremitting toil, will return to his native home with his well-earned honors thick upon him.
He is the first of those who left Guam to receive a diploma from one of our American colleges.
This, with the ordination of Rev.
Gelaio Ramirez of Cebu, Philippine Island, which occurred at Belmont on June the 9th shows the wide influence exerted by St. Mary's on the religious and educational world.
At the conclusion of the exercises, the right reverend bishop delivered a very forcible address on the need of thorough Christian education in this age when the powers of evil are doing so much to destroy faith and overthrow the sacredness of the marriage tie, the citadel of the home and of the nation.

whole world thinking.

SOCIAL.
The following item from The Wadesboro Messenger and Intelligencer of last Thursday will be of interest to our readers:
"One of the prettiest at homes of the season was given by Mrs.
Clarence M. Burns, Saturday afternoon, in honor of Mrs. P.
R. Falls, of Gastonia, N. C.
The home was most attractively decorated. Misses Marion and Lora Little presided at the punch bowl and assisted in the dining room, which was an ingenious dell of daises, brilliantly lighted by candles. The white and gold color scheme was carried out in a most delightful lunch. The floral contest was quite interesting, and prizes were won by Mrs. Mann and Mrs. Atkinson.
The following were present: Messdames Jno. Griggs, J. D.
Leak, T. B. Henry, Eugene Little, T. Covington, Mann, Bert Bennett, Atkinson, J. G.
Boylan, P. R. Falls; Misses Constance and Portia Huntley, Blanch Smith, Goldie Mills, Estelle Moore, Bessie Dockery, Eleanor Murr, Lee, Marion, Madge and Lora Little"

TO BE OPEN THIS WEEK.
North Carolina State Building at Jamestown Exposition Will be Informally Opened Thursday—Formal Opening August 15th.
Norfolk, Va., June 14.—The North Carolina State building at the Jamestown Exposition, will, it is expected, be informally opened next Thursday. The structure is almost complete; the furniture is at the exposition grounds and ready to be installed and every effort is being made to throw the building open to the public by the middle of next week.
Joseph E. Pogue, of Raleigh, executive commissioner for North Carolina to the exposition, has been on the ground since last Saturday and is busy preparing for the opening. He stated to-day that no program would be arranged for June 20, but that he and Mrs. Pogue would be at the building and receive those who called.
The formal opening of the North Carolina home will take place on Thursday, Aug. 15, at which time North Carolina week will begin on Monday, Aug. 12, and the festivities will reach their height on the following Thursday, at which time Governor and Mrs. Glenn, the governor's staff, the North Carolina commissioners and their wives and many other prominent people of Old North State will be present and hold a reception. Mr. Pogue said to-day that he expects the greater part of North Carolina's population to visit the exposition during North Carolina week and that North Carolina Day will be the banner day of the exposition.
The North Carolina State building is on the boulevard at the extreme eastern end of the grounds and is one of the most imposing of the State structures; its wide veranda and immense columns adding much to its appearance. It contains fourteen rooms, five of which are on the first floor; five on the second and four on the third.
One of the rooms will be furnished by George Vanderbilt from his industrial department of Biltmore, another will be furnished by the White Manufacturing Company, of Mebane, and another by the High Point Manufacturing Company. It is expected that the entire building will be furnished before next Monday.

Killed Baby Sister.
Grover, June 14.—The 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A.
Turney shot and killed his baby sister early this morning. The parents of the children whose home is over a mile from Grover, were in town doing some shopping and left the lad and an older sister to take care of the baby, seven months old. The boy managed to get hold of a gun from its rack over a door and in playing with the weapon it was discharged, the entire load entering the baby's side and nearly severing its arm from the body. The child died in ten minutes after the accident.

WASTING THEIR SPACE.
Eastern Carolina Paper Makes
Some Pointed Observations Anent a Fake Advertising Agency Which Fleeced a Lot of Tar Heel Papers.
The following from last week's Henderson Gold Leaf is straight to the point and touches up in a deserved manner a fake advertising agency for having dealings with which not a few Tar Heel papers are sorry:
"We notice that some of our exchanges are still running the Casper Company's advertisement. They are wasting their space if this business was placed through the Andre Advertising Agency, self-styled, of Winston-Salem. There is no longer any Andre Advertising Agency, if there ever was, and debts contracted by the fellow who operated under that name are unpaid and will remain so, while he has skipped out and the Casper concern repudiates all liability for the advertising done for them.
Andre was a protege of Casper and those who are informed think the latter is not as innocent of fleecing the newspapers that were caught by the "Andre Advertising Agency (?) " as he professes to be. However that may be, he claims to have paid Andre for all advertising contracts placed by him besides being a loser to the amount of twelve or fifteen hundred dollars by personally endorsing for him "In the meantime the newspapers that were "touched" by Andre are out several times as much in the aggregate and the only consolation the Casper concern offers is that they are going to place their next advertising appropriation through another agent (giving the name) and when they do they will see that a part of this business goes to the papers that had the Andre contract. But a "burnt child feareth the fire," and we suspect that those publishers who have been swindled one time on account of the Casper Company will not care to have any more dealings with them however remotely, albeit the business comes through a perfectly reliable source.

CHARLES W. FAIRBANKS.
Vice president of the United States and candidate for the presidency.
Edward Ashby shot and killed Dan Overcash near Kannapolis, Rowan County, Sunday morning about nine o'clock. The shooting is shrouded in much mystery. Ashby is at large.
The Gaffney, S. C., board of trade has invited the South Carolina Press Association to hold its next annual meeting in Gaffney, Editor DeCamp, of The Gaffney Ledger, was selected to press the invitation.
Saturday Governor J. M. Terrill, of Georgia, sent a long telegram to President Roosevelt, disclaiming any criticism of the President relative to the Georgia Day exercises at the Jamestown Exposition.

COLLEGE OF CARDINALS Majority of Members Have Always Been Italians—Advisory Body for Pope.
New York Sun.
Pope Pius created seven new cardinals last month leaving still eight vacancies. In 1585 Pope Six-tus V. fixed the number of members of the college of cardinals at 70, namely, six bishops, 50 priests and 14 deacons.
The cardinals do not take their titles from the color of their vestments, as is sometimes supposed, but the color is named after the title of the man who wears it. The word comes from the Latin cardo, a hinge. From the idea of dependence upon a hinge the word cardinal has acquired the meaning chief, or prince.
Originally the cardinal bishops were bishops of sees in the neighborhood of Rome; the cardinal priests were the parish priests of Rome, and the cardinal deacons were permanent administrators of charities in districts of the city. As the organization of the Church grew and became complex, the college of cardinals, the advisory body for the Pope, was enlarged by the addition of persons away from Rome.
For many centuries the college of cardinals has exercised the power of choosing the Pope.
Always a large majority of the members are Italians, and for more than 500 years they have, with a single exception, elected an Italian as Pope. Fifty years ago there were only 18 non-Italians in the college. At present there are 37 Italians and 25 foreign cardinals. There are only two cardinals in this hemisphere—one in North and one in South America. There are also but two in the British empire—one in Ireland and the other in Australia.
At various times the Pope has been urged to appoint some non-Italian, on the ground that it would make the Sacred College more fully representative of the Church at large. The answer to the argument is that the college is not a representative body, that the members are chosen for their ability to advise the Pope.

A TWIRLER ARRESTED.
Chas. Smith, of China Grove, Locked Up on Charge of Obtaining Money Under False Pretenses—Agreed to Pitch for Gastonia Team, but Went Home a Week Ago, Coming to Charlotte Yesterday.
Observer, 16th.
To lose one's game by the score of 12 to 2 is hard luck indeed, but that was not the worst that befell Chas. Smith, of China Grove, who twirled for Highland Park against McAdenville yesterday afternoon. Hardly had he stepped from the car with defeat written in the lineaments of his countenance when he was nabbed by officers of the law and arrested on the charge of false pretense. The warrant was sworn out by Manager L.
Moore, of the Gastonia summer baseball team, the charge being the obtaining of money under false pretense.
Smith, it seems, got into trouble over in his home town, but was paid out by Mr. Moore, for the extent of $100, in return for which the young man signed a contract to play with the Gastonia team through the summer.
The privilege was allowed him, he says, to play on any other team, provided that his engagement did not conflict with the Gastonia schedule. He says he went to his home a week ago, where he worked in a mill, and Manager Froneberger, of the Highland Park team, engaged him by phone to play for them yesterday. This happened Friday and he came down yesterday. Mr. Moore, however, believing that the player had skipped and broken his obligations, made inquiry by telephone and had him arrested.
At midnight he was still in his cell, though expecting, he said, to be taken out.

It is learned that the Highland Park team management put up the necessary sum to secure his release on condition that he pitch for them.
