TOWN AND COUNTY.

—During the absence of Rev. W. H. Reddish, the pastor, who left yesterday for a month's vacation, there will be no preaching services at the First Baptist church.

—West & Wells' railroad shows are to be here Saturday. The small boy will be in his glory.

—The South Point Methodist church has been treated to a new coat of paint which greatly changes its appearance.

—An eight-year old daughter of D. C. Walker died yesterday at the Clara Mill and the remains were taken to-day to Clover, S. C., for burial.

—Miss Attie Bostick is spending some time with friends here and at Shelby, her old home, being on a visit to this section from China where she is engaged in missionary work.

—In police court yesterday morning Dump Merrill, white, was fined $5.00 and costs for drunkenness. He was arrested Sunday at the Wesleyan camp-ground where Carrie Nation was speaking.

—The Begonia baseball team defeated Saturday by a score of 6 to 4. The batteries were Parker and Kendrick for Begonia and Sparrow and Riddle for Union. The feature of the game was Kendrick's pitching. Riddle also did good work in the box for Union.

—Mayor Armstrong has received a letter from Dr. Richard H. Battle, president of the State board of health, inviting him to attend the International Congress of Tuberculosis which meets in Washington City Sept. 21st to October 12th. The request is also made that Gastonia send a representative from the medical profession to this congress.

—The Gaston Bible Society holds its annual meeting in Main Street Methodist church Thursday beginning at 10 a. m. At 11 o'clock the annual sermon will be preached by Rev. Dr. P. K. Law, editor of the Presbyterian Standard of Charlotte. It was announced in Friday's paper that the sermon would be preached by Dr. Law of Spartanburg. All are cordially invited to be present.

—Mr. Lamar C. Pegram is at Montreat where he has been for the past several weeks resting and recuperating. He has resigned his position as teller of the First National Bank and, on his return to Gastonia in August, will go into the cotton brokerage business in connection with Messrs. B. H. Parker & Co. Mr. Pegram has been connected with the First National Bank for a number of years and has made a most capable and excellent man. To escape the confinement, which has told on his health, he seeks a more active and outdoor life. He is succeeded at the bank by Mr. K. Dixon, who has been with the bank for some time in the capacity of bookkeeper.

Three New Teachers.

The city board of school commissioners held a meeting in the office of Mr. R. P. Rankin this morning and completed the graded school faculty for the coming year by the election of three additional teachers. They are Miss Alice Daniels, of Nashville, Tenn.; Miss Mary Grey Sandifer, of Rock Hill, S. C.; and Miss Ella Lewis, of Gastonia. Miss Sandifer was a member of the faculty last year but tendered her resignation at the close of school year. Miss Lewis taught last year at the Gray Mill school. The board ordered that the city schools be opened the first Monday in September. A full list of the teachers will appear in Friday's Gazette.

Four of the Six Men Charged With Disturbing Worship at McAdenville Willing to Submit—Pastor Bumgarner and Mr. Ivory Bound to Court—Case Not Yet Settled.

An interesting hearing was had Saturday at McAdenville before Esquire C. W. Nipper in the Methodist-Baptist matter which has attracted widespread notice. The attorneys, Mr. O. P. Mason and Mr. A. L. Bulwinkle, were unable to be present, in consequence of which the matter is not as yet settled and it is understood another hearing may be had next Saturday to define the exact status of affairs.

It is not necessary to recount here the particulars leading up to the indictment of A. P. Bumgarner, pastor of the Baptist church, and five members of his church. The warrants charging them with disturbance of public worship were sworn out by Rev. J. F. Armstrong, pastor of the Methodist church.

At Saturday's hearing four of those indicted, Messrs. J. L. Webb, S. Braswell, E. D. Austin and Hallman expressed a willingness to submit to the charge and pay the costs. In the absence of the attorneys for both sides, however, the pleas were not entered and the final adjudication of the matter was deferred. Mr. Bumgarner and Mr. E. S. Ivory declined to submit and were held for trial at the next term of Gaston Superior Court, their bonds being fixed at $100 each.

Family Reunion.

A family reunion will be held August 10th at the home of Mrs. Franklin Holland in commemoration of Mrs. Holland's birthday. A number of relatives from a distance will be in attendance and the occasion will be a most enjoyable one.

ICE CREAM SUPPER.

There will be an ice cream supper on the lawn at Rev. F. W. Bradley's next Saturday evening, August 3d, from 5 to 10 o'clock, for the benefit of Franklin Avenue Methodist church. Every one is invited. A2c2

Still Grows.

Last week The Gazette announced that only about $925 of the $12,000 necessary for the establishment of a hospital had been subscribed. Since then the deficit has been reduced considerably and it seems to be a matter of but a very short time until the entire amount will be subscribed. It is probable that a meeting of the stockholders will be held at an early date to organize and prepare for work.

BIG SHOW COMING.

West & Wells' Railroad Show will exhibit at Gastonia Saturday, August 3d, and give two performances. Also a grand free street parade at 1 o'clock. They have some of the best lady and gentlemen performers and a host of funny clowns, pretty dogs and ponies, trained elephants and lions. Everybody come; bring the children and have a good time. Confederate Veterans' Reunion.

The annual meeting of William Gamble Camp of Confederate Veterans' Association of Gaston county is called to meet in Dallas on Thursday, the 8th day of August, 1907, at 10 o'clock a. m. It will be a picnic occasion. All the people are cordially invited to be present and bring their baskets. Especially are all Confederate veterans urged to be present.

We will endeavor to make the occasion as pleasant for you as can reasonably be expected for a meeting, the size of which is so uncertain. Entertainment will be provided by the good people of Dallas and the neighboring community. At 1 o'clock they will provide a good picnic dinner for all veterans who attend.

Senator Lee S. Overman has been invited and has kindly accepted the invitation to deliver an address. Let us make this the biggest and best meeting we have had. L. M. HOFFMAN, Commander. W. I. STOWE, Secretary. July 29, 1907.

An inclination to be constipated is a common symptom of the American people. This is due to indigestion, and indigestion comes from indiscretion of diet. Let foods be daily eaten like

The Ryan Brothers, Reared at Mount Holly, Have Won Success as Builders—Thomas H. Ryan Constructed Government Building at Jamestown—Mr. D. F. Ryan Here on a Visit to Old Home.

Mr. D. F. Ryan, a native of Gaston who is now a letter carrier at Savannah, Ga., is spending a few weeks at his old home at Mount Holly. He was in Gastonia yesterday, the guest of Mr. Frank Smith, and paid The Gazette office a pleasant call. Mr. Ryan showed the reporter pictures of his four brothers, Messrs. T. H., P. W., M. J. and D. J. Ryan, all Gaston countyites, all of whom are experts in the hotel building business. Six years ago they were all foremen on the famous Flagler hotel works at Nassau, Bahama Islands, having 600 men under them. The Fourth of July that year they spent on British soil. Mr. P. W. Ryan has since died.

One of the brothers, Mr. Thomas H. Ryan, has built hotels and public buildings all the way from the Bahama Islands to Seattle, Wash., where he is now engaged in constructing buildings for the big exposition to be held in Seattle next year. He has built hotels in Florida, Georgia, South Carolina and also the government building at the Jamestown Exposition.

These brothers left Gaston back in the '80s and all met with success. One of them, James, has a large wood-work-plant at Miami, Fla., where he has two other brothers working with him. They still hold old Gaston in fond memory and occasionally return to renew old acquaintances and visit their childhood home.

Colored Conference Here.

The Colored M. E. Conference of the Western District of North Carolina convened Thursday night, the 24th, in Epworth church here and adjourned Sunday night. Rev. H. L. Ashe, presiding elder of the district, was in the chair and there were about 80 preachers and delegates present. This district embraces all of Western North Carolina and much of the piedmont section. Friday night there was a special educational program, the feature being an address by Rev. S. A. Peeler, D. D., president of Bennett College, Greensboro. Rev. G. F. Hill is pastor of the Gastonia church. The preachers and delegates returned to their homes yesterday.

PERSONAL MENTION.

—Mr. W. N. Fronberger yesterday moved his family to Bessemer City, where they will reside in the future. Mr. Fronberger has just completed a nice residence which he will occupy. Their many friends regret to lose them from Gastonia.

—Mr. W. H. Adams has returned from a ten-day trip to Hot Springs, N. C., and to Knoxville and other points in East Tennessee.

—Miss Willie Hoke, of Fort Mill, S. C., and Miss Bruce, of Woodruff, S. C., who have been visiting at the home of Mr. F. T. Pegram, left yesterday, the former going to Salsuda and the latter returning to her home.

—Miss Lovry Shuford has gone to Hendersonville to spend some days with the family of her uncle, Dr. J. G. Waldrop.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Puett, Miss Ethel Stowe and Miss Ida Rankin, of Belmont, are taking in the Jamestown Exposition this week.

—Mrs. J. D. Hall, of Belmont, is spending some time with relatives and friends at Wimsboro, S. C.

—Miss Mattie Burgin, of Lincolnton, and Miss Lizzie Stowe, of Charlotte, spent several days last week with friends at Belmont. They attended the Todd-Stowe wedding.

—Miss Clara Sloan, of Belmont, is spending a few days with friends at Mooresville.

—Rev. and Mrs. R. C. Anderson and Mrs. E. C. Wilson left this morning for Montreat where they will spend a month. Mr. Anderson has been granted a month's vacation by his congregation. During his absence the pulpit of the First Presbyterian church will be filled by visiting ministers.

—Rev. J. Lowry Wilson, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Abbeville, S. C., was in town a while this morning en route to McConellsville, S. C. Dr. Wilson was at one time pastor of Bethesda church, this county, and is known to many Gaston countyites.

—Miss Emma Cornwell, of Dallas, spent Saturday night and Sunday with friends at Lowell.

—Mr. A. A. Cathey and daughters, Misses Carrie and Mattie, were in town shopping yesterday from Belmont.

—Mr. Leonard Holland is here from Fayetteville for a few days visiting his parents, Capt. and Mrs. J. Q. Holland.

There Little Girl, Don't Cry. James Whitcomb Riley. There, little girl, don't cry! They have broken your doll, I know, And your tea set blue And your playhouse, too. Are things of the long ago. But childish troubles will soon pass by. There, little girl, don't cry! They have broken your slate, I know, And the glad, wild ways Of your schoolgirl days Are things of the long ago. But life and love will soon come by. There, little girl, don't cry! They have broken your heart, I know, And the rainbow gleams Of your youthful dreams Are things of the long ago. But heaven holds all for which you sigh. There, little girl, don't cry!

The Gazette regrets exceedingly that a shortage of printers renders it impossible to get in to-day's issue everything that should appear. The paper is short three printers, in addition to which the shop has had an extra run of job work all week. This condition will be remedied before next week, we hope. Among the items which we are forced to omit this issue, but which will appear Friday, are the following: An interesting letter from our Dallas correspondent and one from our R. F. D. No. 1 correspondent; a communication from Miss Eula B. Glenn regarding the McIver loan fund; an account from Greenville, S. C., of the Sifford-Ellis wedding and several others. The Gazette begs the indulgence of its readers and ventures the promise that this condition will not prevail after this week.
