

MORRIS BROS.

Our buyer has just returned from the market where he spent several days finishing up our purchases for the fall and winter season. While it's true we had bought most of our goods before our buyer went on the market, he secured while there some splendid bargains in the various lines we carry, and we will offer these to the trading public at a very small advance which will put within the range of buyers some of the best values ever offered on the Gastonia market.

Our Specialties Are

Clothing, Dry Goods, Shoes, Notions, Hats, Hosiery, Shirts and Gents Furnishings.

We Also Carry

Big line of Trunks and Bags.

In all these lines we confidently assert that we can not be excelled in STYLE, QUALITY nor PRICE.

YORK AND YORKVILLE

What's Doing Among our Neighbors Just Across the Line.

Yorkville Enquirer, 27th.

Mr. Egbert R. McElwee, of Columbia, was in Yorkville yesterday. Dr. W. Lee Hart has given up his practice at Lockhart, and is spending a few days with Mr. Geo. W. S. Hart's family before going to Washington for a course of instruction in the Army Medical school. Mr. J. Hamlet Carroll is in Greenville this week on business. Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Paris and sons, Lee and Hugh Bryson, of Bethany, attended the funeral of Mr. Wm. Sherrer at Sharon Tuesday. Invitations have been issued to the marriage of Miss Barnette Wylie Miller to Mr. John Harvey Spencer. The bride-to-be is a daughter of Mr. W. J. Miller, of Newport, and the groom is a son of Mr. J. T. Spencer, of Roddey. The ceremony is to take place on Wednesday, October 2.—Dr. Miles Walker of Yorkville, has been appointed by the governor to serve as one of South Carolina's two representatives at the sixteenth annual convention of the military surgeons of the United States to be held at Jamestown on October 14 to 18. Dr. Walker will attend if he possibly can.—A small party of Catawba Indians were in Yorkville Wednesday and yesterday offering pottery and other articles for sale.—A phone message from Clover brings information that Capt. W. B. Smith has suffered a stroke of paralysis on his right side. The captain is able to recognize his friends; but is not able to speak. Dr. Pressley, it is understood, considers the situation not altogether hopeless. Captain Smith's many friends throughout the county will sincerely hope for his recovery.

Mr. William Sherrer, of Blacksburg, died at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. Joseph M. Sims, at Sharon, last Monday morning, of dropsy. He was 72 years of age. The funeral took place at Woodlawn on Tuesday with Masonic honors, the Masons of Blacksburg officiating. Rev. J. A. McMurray conducted the religious services. The deceased leaves a widow and two daughters, Mrs. Joseph M. Sims, of Sharon and Mrs. W. L. Wilkie, of Blacksburg.

Mr. Arch Barron had the misfortune yesterday morning of having the fore finger of his left hand severely chewed by a full dog. A shepherd dog belonging to Mr. Barron and a bull dog belonging to Mr. Tom Ferguson had a mixup and the shepherd dog was chewing the bull dog's ear. Mr. Barron attempted to separate the brutes and caught hold of his dog to pull them apart; but the bull dog unable to see the helping hand got Mr. Barron's finger between his teeth, and as a result the digit had to be dressed by a physician. The dog wasn't considered mad, but Mr. Barron was!

Mrs. Margaret E. Camp died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Julia Elam in Baskerville, Va., on September 24. The sad news came in a letter to Mr. W. H. Herndon, a previously filed dispatch having been held up by the strike. Mrs. Camp was a daughter of the late Joseph Herndon, and was the widow of the late Edward J. Camp. She was married in 1882 and lived with her husband in Georgia until the latter's death, when she returned to Yorkville and remained here until a few years ago when she went to Richmond, Va., to be with her son, who had a position in that city. She leaves two children, Mr. William P. Camp and Miss Josephine Camp, both grown, and two brothers and one sister, Messrs. W. H. and R. J. Herndon, of Yorkville, and Mrs. Julia Elam, of Baskerville, Va. The deceased was a lady of exalted Christian character and had numerous friends in Yorkville and elsewhere. The funeral took place at Bethany church, near Baskerville.

Miss Armstrong Gets Piano.
The Gastonia News' piano contest, which has been on for some time, closed Saturday night. Miss Ella Armstrong, of Belmont, won the first prize, a handsome Kimball piano which has been on exhibition in the show windows of A. J. Kerby & Co. The second prize, a piano certificate worth $150, was won by Miss Elizabeth Lindsay, of Gastonia. There were four prizes of the value of $100, each being a piano certificate good for that amount and these were won by Miss Lois Torrence, of Gastonia; Miss Louise Cornwell, of Gastonia; Miss Lizzie Kennedy, of Bessemer City and Mrs. Jennie Alexander, of Newberry, S. C. In addition to these there were thirty-five smaller prizes in the shape of piano certificates for various sums. The winners of these are announced in to-day's issue of The News.

A meeting of directors of the State Hospital will be held at Morganton Thursday to elect a successor to the late superintendent, Dr. P. L. Murphy.

CLEVELAND COLLINGS

Items of Interest From an Adjoining County.

Cleveland Star, 27th.

Mrs. Clyde R. Hoey and children are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Warren in Gastonia. Mrs. E. A. Morgan and Miss Linsee Morgan, of Double Shoals, were pleasant Tuesday visitors.—Messrs. Hunter Mauney and Jim Putnam, of Long Shoals, spent Sunday here, having driven through the country in their automobile.—Mr. Robt. Durham, a prominent young member of the Charlotte bar, spent Wednesday here on business.—Mrs. Julia Hunt and little daughter, Misses Gertrude and Edna, spent this week here as guests of Mrs. J. W. Hopper.—Mr. Claud B. McBrayer left Tuesday for Wake Forest College where he will resume his law studies, with the expectation of passing his examination before the Supreme Court in February next.—Mr. O. M. Mull paid King's Mountain a professional trip this week.—Mr. Ben Suttle, who is engaged in civil engineering at Kings Mountain, spent Sunday here with his parents, Sheriff and Mrs. A. B. Suttle.—Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Anthony entertained with delightful hospitality a party of friends Saturday night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Rudisill, of Meridian, Texas.

Mr. D. S. Weathers, one of our esteemed citizens, who has suffered several attacks of appendicitis, left this week for Baltimore where he will enter Johns Hopkins Hospital for treatment and possible operation. His many friends here wish him a safe return.

Mr. W. C. McQuirter, an enterprising and energetic farmer, has bought from Mr. J. A. Anthony, real estate dealer, fifty seven acres of fine farming lands situated on Hickory Creek and within two miles of the corporate limits. The purchase price paid was $2565, or $45.00 per acre, which goes to prove that farm lands in this goodly county still command good prices.

In Police Court.

In the police court Saturday Base Craig was fined $5.00 and the costs for being drunk and disorderly. The following cases were disposed of yesterday morning: Abe Brumfield, colored, retailing, case continued because of the absence of witnesses; Frank McIntosh, colored, retailing, committed to jail to await trial in Superior Court in default of $100 bond; J. A. Lane, disorderly conduct, fined a penny and the costs; Sam Hayes, colored, assault on his wife, $2.50 and costs; M. M. Banks, drunk and disorderly, two cases, fined $7.50 and the costs.

Do You Want to Make The Women Happy?

Shopping by Mail is vastly unsatisfactory to the Female.

There isn't a woman in Christendom—or in Islam—who doesn't prefer ten times over the trip through a store to the trip to the postoffice.

Why, Lord bless their hearts, the ladies love to shop! It's just as unsatisfying and artificial to shop by mail as to make love by mail—and that's the limit.

But, while the women love to walk through aisles of bargains, they love also to read about the bargains. When a newspaper comes to the house, which page does the woman peruse first? The page with the biggest shopping ads. Sure thing! Won't fail one time in ten. Test it and see.

In communities where the merchants don't advertise big enough to tempt the women, what happens? The Mail Order Catalogue comes along, full of attractive ads., with prices put down in black and white. The women read the catalogue; they are tempted by the bargains offered; they send their money by mail.

Thus they miss nine-tenths of the glory and joy of shopping. But what else can the poor ladies do?

Now, Mr. Merchant of Our Town, be good to the ladies. Give them some interesting reading matter. Print some of your bargains in your home paper. Put the prices there in black and white.

Isn't it really a pity to deprive the ladies of one of their supreme delights—shopping, seeing things, inspecting before taking!

BE GOOD TO THE LADIES AND YOU'LL BE PROSPEROUS.

LINCOLN LOCALS

Lincoln County News, 20th.

Mrs. Jake Burgin left Tuesday to visit her mother at Waco for a few days.—Miss Jenny Bridges of Birmingham, Ala., who has been visiting Miss Neal Roseman, returned home Tuesday.—Mrs. Bartlett Shipp and Miss Bryte Crouse leave to-day for Hendersonville.—Mr. Frank Nixon returned Wednesday from a business trip to Greenwood, S. C.—Mr. J. Thomas McLean, of Clifside, was a visitor here this week.—Mr. L. M. Hoffman, of Dallas, was in town on legal business this week.—Mr. Joe Shuford and daughter, of Dallas, Texas, are visiting relatives and friends in this, the old home county. Mr. Shuford is a brother of ex-Sheriff Martin Shuford, of Gaston county.

Mr. R. M. Roseman had his left forearm painfully hurt and bruised Wednesday afternoon while working on a mowing machine, part of which fell and struck his arm.

One of the first matters taken up on the convening of Mecklenburg Superior Court yesterday morning was the presentation by Solicitor Herolt Clarkson of Mr. Kemp B. Nixon, of Lincoln, as a candidate for admission to the bar. Judge Ferguson administered the oath, telling Mr. Nixon that he might make a living, as he knows some lawyers who do. Mr. Nixon is a graduate of the University of North Carolina and of the Trinity Law School. His friends confidently wish for him success.

Messrs. R. S. Edwards, C. E. Childs, P. D. Hinson, R. S. Reinhardt and E. W. Keener returned Tuesday from Raleigh where a hearing was held by the Corporation Commission concerning the proposed Union Station for Lincoln. The officials of the Seaboard and C. & N. W. have agreed to a joint station for both roads where the C. & N. W. passenger depot now is. The Seaboard proposes to put up a passenger shed and platform between their track and the station of the C. & N. W. Capt. C. E. Childs accepted this proposition for the town, and officials of both roads will be here Monday to arrange definite plans for the joint station. A final hearing will be held before the Corporation Commission on Oct. 14th when the matter will be definitely settled.
