TUESDAY, OCT. 15, 1907.

Lincoln county's new paper, The Times, made its first appearance last week, coming out as a seven-column folio. Lincoln county is amply able, in our estimation, to support two papers, and we welcome The Times to the ranks of North Carolina journalism and wish for it a large measure of success.

As announced in the last issue of The Gazette, the congregation of the Pisgah Associate Reformed Presbyterian church has raised all of the $7,000 necessary for the erection of their new church building. They announce it as their purpose not to begin work on the new structure until next March, by which time they expect to have every dollar of these subscriptions paid and deposited in bank. This decision to wait until all the money is in hand before beginning the work, is, we think, a most commendable one. Too many churches make the mistake of beginning work when only a few hundred dollars of the necessary funds have been actually paid in, and oftentimes the result is that the church stands for years with a heavy burden of debt on it, which has a most depressing effect upon the membership and sometimes causes great difficulty and worry. We congratulate our Pisgah friends upon the businesslike method in which they propose to proceed.

The Kindergarten.

The kindergarten class, mention of which was recently made in The Gazette, was most enthusiastically entered into by a large number of mothers and the school will be opened to-morrow, Wednesday morning, the 16th, at the residence of Mrs. L. A. States, near the Central graded school building. Miss LaFar, of Charleston, S. C., a graduate of the Kindergarten Normal Institute, will have charge of the work. The following ladies constituted a kindergarten committee to whom all business matters relative to the work may be referred: Mrs. R. M. Johnston, Mrs. John F. Love, Mrs. J. Lee Robinson, Mrs. P. R. Falls, Mrs. A. A. McLean.

Mayors Court.

In the police court yesterday morning the following cases were disposed of: Wiley Robinson, colored, drunk and disorderly, fined $10 and the costs; Grant Wallace, colored, drunk and disorderly, forfeited bond of $7.50; Oliver Oates, drunk and disorderly, fined $5 and the costs; Mrs. Mary Graham, white, drunk and staggering, a penny and the costs. Mrs. Graham, who is the wife of the umbrella fixer, both of whom have figured in the police courts before, created some excitement in the negro quarters on East Franklin avenue Saturday afternoon by barricading herself in a negro cabin that happened to be unoccupied. The police were notified and she was brought under the protecting wing of the law.

FARMERS' UNION.

Two Organizations Formed in South Point Township—Farmers of the County are Joining Their Forces.

Two new branches of the Farmers Union have recently been established in the county, one at Hand's school house and the other at Piney Grove school house, both in South Point township. The former was instituted Saturday night, October 5th, with 21 members and the latter was organized one night last week with 15 members. Other members it is understood are coming in right along. The officers of the union at Hand's school house are as follows: John Lowry, president; A. L. Guy, secretary; T. H. Ford, treasurer; W. H. Jackson, conductor. The names of the officers of the Piney Grove Union have not been learned.

There are already organizations at the Lutheran Chapel, the Tanyard school house and one near Bessemer. Mr. J. G. Armstrong, of Arkansas, has been appointed by the National Union as organizer for North Carolina and is now engaged in the work of organizing in this section of the State. Twenty-eight States of the Union now have State organizations. It requires a membership of 5,000 to effect a State organization and North Carolina has not yet reached this point. It takes 15 members to get a local union and five local unions to get a county union. The object of the farmers union is to seek to obtain those things which work for the mutual benefit of the members. In cotton-producing States, like

North Carolina, one of the chief objects of the union is to devise ways and means for holding cotton for a stipulated price. It is understood that the work of the local unions will probably result in the establishment of a warehouse and holding company before the beginning of the next cotton season. In western states the unions direct their main efforts to secure just prices for grain or cotton as the case may be. It is a mutual protective organization and if the organizations become strong and have the hearty support of the farmers they will doubtless result in much benefit to the farmers, who are the producers.

INSPECTION OF BUILDINGS.

Laws Relative to the Erection and Inspection of Buildings.

Attention is called to Chapter 73 of the Revisal of 1905 of North Carolina, sub-section XI, relative to the erection and inspection of buildings. Before erecting buildings within the corporate limits of the town of Gastonia the owner of the property must obtain a permit from the building inspector and must construct such building in the manner required by the above chapter.

Sub-section XI—Parties who fail to obtain such permits or who fail to comply with the State law are liable to indictment and will be compelled to reconstruct such building. Permits and copies of the law may be had upon application to B. W. CRAIG, Building Inspector. Oct. 15, 1907. O22c3.

Negro Paralyzed.

Caleb Miller, colored, who drives the delivery wagon for McLean Bros' grocery store, suffered a stroke of paralysis yesterday morning shortly after he reached the store to begin his day's work. His left side was affected. A physician was called in and administered medicine after which he was removed to his home. Miller has been a delivery wagon driver in Gastonia for the past seventeen years and is known to a large number of people who hope that he will recover. He has the confidence of his employers.
