South Fork Association.

Rev. J. A. Hoyie will leave to-morrow afternoon to attend the session of the South Fork Baptist Association which meets this year at Long Island in Catawba county. He will be accompanied by the following delegates from the Loray Baptist church: Messrs. L. J. Waldrop, E. C. Fisher and W. H. Nolen. The association will convene Thursday morning and continue in session over Sunday.

October Days.

H. R. Harman in Charlotte Observer.
I hate the lawdry glamor of the streets—
The turfed highways through the marts
of trade
Where Show or Pretense at each corner meet
And walk in fellowship where man has made
His glory felt; where every lofty dome
Throws on the passing through its sultry shade.
Lo! just beyond the city's outer gates,
Beyond its pomp and noisy crowded ways,
The glory of our fair October waits
And lingers long the Autumn's crimson days.

Up there, along the tangled fence-way,
see
The bluish splendor of the golden-rod,
Lifting its head in royal dignity,
Bloom in sweet content for some fair god.
And there, towards you lazy creeping stream
The grassy hillside rises and falls at ease.
While black-eyed Susans down the hedge-
way dream,
Viewing the splendor of the Sumac trees.
Now slips the golden year from Autumn
skies
Into the hands of Winter, but its close
Finds still the love-light in your wistful eyes.
And leaves me well content, where'er it goes.

TEXAS PROSPERITY.

Good Crops and High Prices

—Former Gaston Countian

in the Far West.

By courtesy of Capt. W. I. Stowe we are printing the following paragraphs from a private letter received by him from his nephew, Mr. C. L. Stowe, of Sherman, Texas. Mr. Stowe is a native of Gaston, but has made his home for many years in Texas, where he is meeting with great success in the business world:

"Thanks to your kind liberality I am quite well posted through your excellent paper, The Gastonia Gazette, as to my old home county and its remarkably progressive people. Your wonderful success with cotton mills is a valuable lesson to all the people of the South, especially so to grand, big Texas. Your county of Gaston has more cotton mills than we have in all Texas. In all other roads of progress Texas not only surpasses your part of Carolina but any part of Dixie land.

"It is worth notice when I read local prices paid for cotton in Gastonia, within an arm's throw of your many spindles and looms, how it is almost invariably the same paid here on the same dates, and two-thirds of the cotton produced in North Texas and Oklahoma is shipped through Galveston to Liverpool, Havre, Bremen and points in Russia. "The year 1907 will go on record for its high prices and limitless demand for all kinds of farm produce. This section has never known such conditions as now prevail. All kinds of live stock, horses, mules, hogs, sheep, chickens, turkeys etc. are "plumb out of sight". Cotton, cotton seed, hay and all kinds of grain are going at skyscraping prices and even poor folks' living, such as yam potatoes and cow peas have got to making a bank account for many a farmer never before acquainted within the doors of a bank.

"I am too steady a Democrat to give 'Teddy, the Great' credit for bringing such prosperity to our dear Sunny South, but my old Presbyterian faith gives thanks to the only power both willing and able to reward honest endeavor of mind and brawn, who alone controls the seasons, planting and harvest times."

Harsh physics react, weaken the bowels, cause chronic constipation. Doan's Regulets operate easily, tone the stomach, cure constipation. 25c. Ask your druggist for them.

SOCIAL.

The following is from the Morganton correspondence of The Charlotte Observer of Sunday: "Miss Lottie Ray, of McAdenville, who is the very attractive guest of Miss Adelaide Erwin, has been the guest of honor at a number of delightful functions during the past week. One of the most charming of these was a bridge party on Saturday morning given by Miss Mary Moran. There were three tables of bridge and after the game a delicious lunch was served. Those playing were: Misses Ray, Olga Foster, Eloise Erwin, Josephine Laxton, Linda Tillinghast, Kate Laxton, Ediza McKesson, Jamie Pearson, Margaret DuBose, Atwood Hunt and Adelaide Erwin."

Here is a simple home made mixture as given by an eminent authority on Kidney diseases, who makes the statement in a New York daily news paper, that it will relieve almost any case of kidney trouble if taken before the stage of Bright's disease. He states that such symptoms as lame back, pain in the side, frequent desire to urinate, especially at night; painful and discolored urination, are readily overcome. Here is the recipe; try it:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce, Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.

A well-known druggist here in town is authority that these ingredients are all harmless and easily mixed at home by shaking well in a bottle. This mixture has a peculiar healing and soothing effect upon the entire Kidney and Urinary structure, and often overcomes the worst forms of Rheumatism in just a little while. This mixture is said to remove all blood disorders and cure the Rheumatism by forcing the Kidneys to filter and strain from the blood and system all uric acid and foul, decomposed waste matter, which cause these afflictions. Try it if you aren't well. Save the prescription.

REV. MR. CALLAHAN'S WORK.

A Faithful Preacher for 50 Years
—A Methodist Minister of the Old School.

Charlotte Observer, 17th.
Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Callahan of Gastonia, who have been spending a few days in Charlotte returned home yesterday afternoon. Mr. Callahan is pastor of the Ozark Methodist church in Gastonia and is closing his second year with that pastoral charge. He is one of the older members of the Western North Carolina Conference and has given to his church 50 years of faithful service as an itinerant. He is a man of pure heart and Christian spirit, a Methodist preacher of the olden type. During all of this half century of itinerancy he has received his appointments from year to year without any seeking for place and without murmur at the thought or realization of hardship and sacrifice on any work to which he has been sent. Wonderfully gifted in language and in prayer as he is, there are scores of men and women to whom he had ministered in the relation of pastor in North Carolina, Virginia and Tennessee, who will ever remember him and his faithful discharge of duty in the pulpit, in the family circle and in the sick room and death chamber, where he has in so many instances given comfort and spiritual help. Mr. Callahan is a well preserved man for his age, and with care it seems likely that his usefulness will be continued for years to come. His consistent life as a Christian, and his cheerful spirit have been a blessing to many with whom he has come in contact, and these wish for him a great lengthening of life.

Judge John W. Aiken, president of the Georgia senate and prominent in the public life of the State, died at his home in Cartersville last Friday, aged 64 years.

Protracted Meeting.

Rev. W. F. Watson, of Portsmouth, Va., is to assist Rev. J. A. Hoyie in a protracted meeting at the Loray Baptist church, beginning Sunday night November 3rd. The meeting will probably continue about ten days. Rev. Mr. Watson was formerly pastor of the First Baptist church at this place, having served in that capacity for five years or more, and his many friends and former parishioners will be glad to learn that he is to visit Gastonia again.

JUDGE LEWIS SAYS.

That when he left Gastonia some eighteen months ago and went to Greensboro, his object and hope was to better his condition; that he had not been in his new home more than three months when he saw his plans "run amuck," and his hopes all in vain; that he then turned his attention to the study and practice of law under most favorable circumstances; that, in pursuing his studies and practice, he had access to large libraries and had the assistance and advice of the Honorable E. J. Justice who is one of the ablest and most learned lawyers in the State and one of the biggest hearted, broadest minded and most unselfish men in the whole country—a man "of the people and for the people," with a heart and a hand for all that is good, and leading a life consistent and without reproach; that, upon the whole, he believes his going off to Greensboro and taking this special course and training has been beneficial both to himself and his family, and he hopes that greater benefits than are now seen will result from it in the remaining years of his pilgrimage; that his reason for coming back just when he did, and opening his law office here, was that he concluded that he had more friends already made in Gaston than he could make any where else during the remaining years of his life; that he might have done better in Greensboro in a business way, if it had not been that a large number of those who were friendly to him there, supposed that he simply moved to Greensboro to live and enjoy what he had already made; that he regretted very much that any of his friends should have reached such a conclusion, but it seemed utterly impossible to get that idea out of their heads.

The Judge says he has no desire to go back to Greensboro to live; that life is too strenuous in a city for him; that he would rather live in a log-cabin, on the hill near the spring, with his gun and his dog to keep him company, than to be compelled to live in a city and have to worry and fret from day to day in an effort to secure a fair share of the business that should come to a law-office; and that he is done with moving for a long time.

The only true constipation cure must begin its soothing, healing action when it enters the mouth. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea restores the whole system to a healthy, normal condition. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets.

Wanted in Lenoir.
Sheriff T. E. Shuford yesterday effected the arrest of Kirk Butler, a young white man wanted at Lenoir, together with two or three others, for disturbing religious worship. The arrest was made at the passenger depot where the young man, in company with his brother, Mr. Sam Butler, was waiting for a train to go to Richmond, Va. He was placed in the city lock-up and was last night taken to the Dallas jail to await instructions from the officials at Lenoir. Butler had been successfully dodging the officers for some days and was nabbed by Gaston's energetic sheriff just in the nick of time.
One policeman was killed and several wounded in attempting to quell a negro riot in New Orleans last Friday night.

BIG AUCTION SALE.

Gastonia Insurance & Realty Company Sells 190 Lots in North Gastonia—Good Crowd
Attended Sale—Property
Brought Satisfactory Prices.

Saturday was auction day in North Gastonia when the Gastonia Insurance & Realty Co. put on sale 190 choice lots, the whole tract amounting to 60 acres. The crowd was not very large but was composed of men who came for business. The sale was advertised to begin at 10 o'clock but it was 10:30 before the crowd had assembled and everything was in readiness. It required just two hours to complete the sale, the entire 190 lots being sold.

Mr. W. T. Rankin, president of the company, opened the sale by making a short talk in which he explained the terms of the sale, the location of the lots, etc. He put up a cash forfeit of $500 to go to the person who could establish the fact that there was any by-bidding for the company. It is needless to state that the forfeit was not asked for by any one. Capt. W. I. Stowe, the veteran auctioneer, cried the sale and did a good job of it. While the prices at which the land went were considered reasonable enough, the company was satisfied with the sale, inasmuch as it opens up a new suburban section of Gastonia. That the prices were extremely reasonable is evidenced by the fact that some of the lots changed hands at a profit on the grounds and others have been sold since.

Following is a list of the purchases: G. W. Ragan, 10 lots; John E. McAllister, 5 lots; C. J. Huss, 5 lots; J. M. Sloan, 20 lots; L. M. Rhyne, 10 lots; W. D. Ballard, 5 lots; M. W. Hanna, 5 lots; C. L. Chandler, 20 lots; A. C. Stroupe, 15 lots; R. A. Ratchford, 7 lots; Craig & Wilson, 32 lots; A. M. Smyre, 20 lots; S. E. Mauney, 11 lots; P. R. Huffstetler, 25 lots.
