Now is the time when the doctor gets busy, and the patent medicine manufacturers reap the harvest, unless great care is taken to dress warmly and keep the feet dry. FIGHT 12 ROUNDS

New York Cotton Exchange vs. Southern Farmer.

First round. August-Cottton scarce, farmer receiving $10,00 per bale more than New York gamblers quotations. Both sparring; gamblers confident, yet farmers have this round.

2nd Round. September.-New York pulls itself together. Forms pools, attempts to casuse panic as farmers bring in some cotton. Farmer gets uppercuts and right and left jabs, is knocked down at beginning of round. Later pulls himself together, hauls his cotton home or stores The county commissioners it in warehouses, becomes held their regular monthly stronger and gets in a few good The county's bills for the past to underhand blows and fight month were passed upon as foul. Farmer stronger and usual and other business of a heavier. New York crowd on routine nature transacted, no to every kind of trick, resort to business of any extraordinary anything when farmer shows strength by not selling. Referee knows their dirty tactics, but allows them to fight any old way they can to injure the farmer. Farmer stronger and holding his own (cotton) at end of round. New York gamblers had best of this round. 3rd Round. October.-Farmer comes up strong, selling practically nothing. New York weak-ens and stops action for the time. Farmer seems standing as a unit. Farmer realizing New York's low down methods but referee upholds the gamblers in their dirty work. It is not a fair fight, still farmer is catching on and odds appear in Farmer's favor as there are nine more rounds. Farmer been whipped (robbed) so long, didn't know until last few years he could fight, realizing more and more his strength and that he is up against dirty methods. At beginning of this round farmer puts in telling blows for the future, but New York bold and hammering, depending on dirty foul work to win. No matter whether the government report be sixty-eight, no matter whether better than dosing the stomach not over two-thirds ginned, New York gamblers are ready to hit a sneaking, dirty, underhand for your life. Be independent of New York Cotton Exchange realize they have won their last fight, and have held you as slaves long enough.

-A recent visitor to Flint Hill informs the reporter that work on the Flint Hill Baptist church completed and the brick work on the main walls commenced, The new church is to be built just to the north side of the old church. As stated, the foundations are of stone and the walls will be of pressed brick. The interior of the church and its furnishings will be of the very latest designs, and when completed we are told will be one of the handsomest country churches in this section. The church building is to cost $6,000. The cemetery at Flint Hill which was already one of the largest hereabouts, has recently been enlarged by two acres. Mr. Henry Wilds was killed on Mr. H. E. Johnson's place six miles northeast of Yorkville last Tuesday by being crushed unper a tree. Mr. Wilds and other laborers were engaged in felling trees for lumber. In felling a large tree it became entangled in the upper branches in such a way that the trunk was twisted out of what would have seemed its natural course. The butt of the tree struck Mr. Wilds in the face and knocked him down. He fell under the lives in one of the mill houses tree and it came down across his near the Union road. The deed stomach. He lived about au hour afterward. Mr. Wilds was about forty years of age, and was a member of Union church. He had no family. The interment took place at St. Paul Wednesday.

Attempts Suicide. W.H. Rowan, a telegraph operator in the Southern Railway depot at Lowell, shot himself through the breast Sunday night, inflicting a wound which though serious will hardly prove fatal. Rowan came from Charleston S. C., some two weeks ago to act as substitute for Mr. Cheek, the day operator at Lowell. It is reported that he was intoxicated at the time of the shooting and it can not be learned whether the shooting was accidental or whether he contemplated suicide. At last report his chances for recovery seemed good. Although the ball went entirely through his body, it did not pierce any vital organ. Mr. Rowan is a single man about 26 years of age.

F. Tiddy. One of the most distressing affairs in the history of this county occured Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mr. Wade Elliotte, who lives about two miles from Stice, when little Desten Borders, the 11-year old son of Mr, and Mrs. John "Bunk" Borders was shot and probably fatally wounded by his little friend and playmate, George Elliotte. The wounded boy gave this account of how it happened, He said he and young Elliott, who is about two years his senior, went into the house, and had been in there only a few minutes when his companion picking up a doublebarrel shot gun said, "look out I am going to shoot you," at the same time raising the gun to his shoulder. Young Elliott verision is, that he was playing with the gun and started to put it down when it, in some unaccountable way was discharged. The awfulness of the tragedy is hard to realize. It cannot be conceived that the author had any idea of shooting his little companion. Information has just been received to the effect that the brave little lad is dead, the end coming yesterday.

Slashed Cow With Razor.

An inhumane and dastardly deed was committed at the Clara Mill Friday night when some unknown miscreant brutally slashed up a good milch cow belonging to Mr. W. W. Church, who was evidently done with a very sharp instrument, presumadly a razor, as the loose hairs were cut in two. The gash was two and a half feet long and ranged from the animal's side towards its shoulder. In one place the cow was cut almost to the hollow. Mr. Church has no idea who committed the crime but says he is willing to pay any amount up to the full value of the cow to secure the punishment of the person who committed the deed.

A Turncoat.

After the establishment of peace he was rewarded for his fidelity by being m a de Provisional Governor of his State. At the time of secession, however, he Alabama, was one of the few time of secession, however, he was a member of the Alabama Legislature, and to the indignation of his Southern friends who had elected him to office, he voted against secession.

Soon afterward he wrote to his wife that as his supply of shirts was exhausted, he desired her to send him more as soon as possible. Mrs. Parsons, a zealons Southerner, auswered in a note remakarble for its brevity 2 and point. Without prelude or formality she wrote:

"You have turned your coat, now you may turn your shirt."

Messrs William and Thomas Garri-son, of Worth, were business visitors in Gastonia yesterday. Mr. Garri-son paid the Gazette a pleasant call. He is one of the farmers who believe in raising all the corn and wheat and other farm products they need and then putting their surplus time and land in cotton, in stead of making the latter the leading product and leaving the necessaries to making the latter the leading product and leaving the necessaries to be made side issues. He takes the view which seems to us the proper one, that it does not pay a farmer to put all his land in cotton, even when the price is good and then be forced to buy his corn and other products which he could raise.
