CONGRESS IN SESSION.

President's Message to be Delivered To-Day—Little Business Will be Transacted First Week—Cannon to be Speaker and Proceedings Will Begin Without Organization.

Charlotte Observer, Dec. 2d.

The opening of the Sixtieth Congress promises to be the most important feature of the week. Many other events of much interest, however, are scheduled. Perhaps the one in which the widest interest is felt is a meeting of the Republican national committee, which will be held at Washington December 6th. While the principal business will be to decide upon a time and place to hold the next national convention of the party, it is said to be not unlikely that the question of a candidate for president will be discussed.

Both houses of Congress will convene at 12 o'clock Monday and the session of Congress, which will be begun at that time, will continue indefinitely. Little business will be transacted during the first week of the session, and both houses will adjourn almost immediately on account of the death, during the recess, of members of each body.

The President's message will not be received in either House until Tuesday. This will consume the greater part of the second day of the session, and Wednesday and Thursday will be given up largely to the introduction of bills.

The House will begin proceedings without being organized and the first real business will be the election of a Speaker, to which office Mr. Cannon has already been renominated by the Republicans, and the election of other general officers of the House. Business of the House will then be largely suspended until committees can be appointed. Mr. Cannon hopes to complete this work before the Christmas holidays, but will not yet undertake to say when it may be done.

SESSION OF SENATE.

The Senate is a continuing body and will proceed as if there had been no interim. There will, however, be a large number of new members of that body, and it will be necessary to reorganize the committees in order to give the new men places on them and to fill the vacancies caused by retirement and death.

There will be an effort to bring about final adjournment some time in May to permit Senators and members to return to their homes before the national convention, which will probably be held in June.

A demand that Congress provide for a more liberal expenditure of the revenues of the government derived from commerce in improving the natural channels of trade and transportation will be made at the annual three days' convention December 4th. No special project for river and harbor improvements will be advocated or considered, it is said. The body is expected to place itself on record in favor of a broad and liberal policy by the national government.

Williams Again Minority Leader.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 30.—To Representative Chas. R. Thomas was delegated the honor of placing in nomination on behalf of the Democrats of the House the name of John Sharp Williams for the speakership. Mr. Williams, who comes from North Carolina ancestry, desired that a Tar Heel present his name to the Democratic Caucus. Mr. Thomas made a very happy speech, forceful and effective. He was frequently applauded and his deliverance won for him much credit.

Prof. J. B. Corlyle has raised $100,000 for the endowment of Wake Forest College this year. He expects to raise $12,000 this week. By so doing the college will receive $37,500 from the General Education Board.

GLAD DAY AT COUNTY HOME.

School Children of Dallas Treat County's Unfortunate to a Good Thanking Dinner—A Surprise Marriage—Literary Society Entertained—Live News Notes from Gaston's Capital.

Correspondence of The Gazette.

Dallas, Nov. 30.—The skies were dull and leaden on Thanksgiving Day, the wind whistled drearily through the leafless trees, and everything out-of-doors looked dismal and cheerless, but in doors by the ruddy cheer of fires and in the pleasant family gatherings there was only good cheer and brightness. No where in town, however, was there more brightness and gladness shown than could be seen on the faces of the school children as they assembled about nine o'clock to set out on their annual visit to the county home. This is a time-honored custom of the children in Dallas and when for a while it appeared as if rain would prevent the children from going their disappointment was great.

With them they know what pleasure it gives to the old friends at the Home to see their bright sunny faces and to hear the childish voices ringing through the long corridors. In a few more years these children will grow up, as others have done before them, more's the pity! and will then begin to excuse their indifference to giving pleasure to God's lonely ones by reasoning that some underserving one may be benefited, or such scenes have a saddening influence. But there will always be the little children to take their place and to give their presence and love with their gifts they carry on these holidays.

The gifts were simple but there was an abundance of fruits, cakes, and candies for each inmate and then came the requests for music. Song after song was given and many "God bless you" was heard from the lips of the old folks. These inmates are well cared for by Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Craig who are most considerate and kind in their treatment, but even at the best it is a sad and lonely life with very few bright spots, and but little pleasure to look forward to.

At 11 o'clock Rev. Cornelius Miller conducted a Thanksgiving service at the Presbyterian church. At the close of his sermon Mr. Miller announced that a marriage was about to take place. Much to the surprise of the congregation a young couple who had entered the church during the service stepped up to the altar. They were Wm. H. Jordan from Alabama, and Miss Mamie Gardner, of Gastonia. The incident created quite an unexpected diversion for the congregation.

Wednesday night shortly before midnight a small cottage owned by Mrs. Alice Mason of Stanley, and occupied by Mr. Potet, a photographer, was discovered to be afire. Mrs. Potet, who had been ill for some weeks, was carried to a neighbor's home. The house was consumed in a short time. Some of the personal effects of the occupants were rescued.

At the closing of the Graded School Wednesday a short program relating to the observance of Thanksgiving was rendered by the pupils. The opening address was made by Rev. Risinger.

The Glenn Literary Society composed of the girls from the fifth through the ninth grades will give an entertainment in the chapel next Friday evening at half past seven o'clock, for the benefit of the school library. A small admission fee will be charged, and all friends of the faculty and pupils are cordially invited to attend the entertainment and thus assist the members of this society in securing a larger and better library for the school. The program will be as follows:

1. Chorus—"You're as Welcome as the Flowers in May"
2. Recitation—Putting Robert to Bed"—Eunice Rhyne"
3. Song—"I Give My Love to Dixie"
4. Fantomime—"Love"—Maud Costner, Olive Senter, Annie Rhyne, Katie Lee Lewis, Katharine Mason, Moggie Rudisill, Ida McAllister, Bertie Rankin.
5. Recitation—"On the Other Train"—Emma Lee Carpenter.
6. Tableaux—"Dreaming"—George Shelton.
7. Chorus—"The Quilting Party"
8. Fantomime—"The Last Rose of Summer"—Jonnie Detter.
9. Recitation—"The Holy

CITY—Bertie Rankin.

10. Dialog—"The Sewing Circle"—Arletee Puett, Ruth Mason, Lela Durham, Edna Shuford, Dora Rhodes.

11. Fantomime—"Rock of Ages"—Iva Rudisill.
Play—"The Minister's Wife"—School Girls, Anna Puett, Bertie Rankin, Marie Sasser, Ella Stowe.

Lady Principal—Jonnie Detter.

The Minister's Wife—Madge White.
The Crimson Club was very pleasantly entertained last evening by Miss Less Detter. An interesting contest in which the answers were the names of well known magazines, was the principal diversion of the evening, and was enjoyed by all. Delicious refreshments were served. Miss Mary Miller from the Presbyterian College in Charlotte is at home for the Thanksgiving holidays.

Hunter is in Bessmer City visiting relatives.—Miss Hettie Shrum spent a few days at High Shoals this week.—Miss Daisy Grace spent Thanksgiving at Gastonia with Miss Helen Benson.—Mrs. Edgar Love returned home Tuesday, after spending a week with friends at Gastonia.—Miss Madge White went to Gastonia Wednesday afternoon to spend Thanksgiving.—Mr. Kemp B. Gattis, of Gastonia, and will visit friends at Yorkville, S. C., before returning.

Mr. Gus Haynes has the contract for building the large cotton warehouse at Maiden.
Mr. W. D. King, of Denver, was in town Tuesday. Mr. King is with the South & Western railroad and is located with Rhine's Division, near. He reports that the work on the road is being pushed vigorously.
Mr. Milton Ramsaur was in town Wednesday and paid the News a most welcome visit. Mr. Ramsaur is a rugged veteran and was the first wounded confederate soldier to return to Lincoln county from the front. He was shot through the throat in the first days fight at Seven Pines. He was again shot through the body, just above the heart, at the battle of Cedar Creek, in the same battle in which General Dobson Ramsaur was killed.

The Jamestown Exposition closed Saturday. A statement issued by Director General Martin shows that the total attendance was 2,800,000 and the gate receipts amounted to $1,500,000. It is possible that the exposition may be kept intact during the winter and reopened next spring.

The football championship of the South was won by the North Carolina A. & M. College, of Raleigh, Thanksgiving Day when the farmers defeated the University of Virginia by a score of ten to four at Norfolk, Va. The game was witnessed by twelve thousand people.

RECIPE MIXED OFTEN.

Druggists Hear Much Praise for This Simple Home-made Mixture of Vegetable Ingredients.

Some remarkable stories are being told about town and among the country people coming in of this simple home made mixture curing Rheumatism and Kidney trouble. Here is the recipe and directions for taking: Mix by shaking well in a bottle one-half ounce Fluid Extract Dandelion, one ounce Compound Kargon, three ounces Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla. Take as a dose one teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime.

No change need be made in your usual diet, but drink plenty of good water. This mixture, writes one authority in a leading Philadelphia newspaper, has a peculiar tonic effect upon the kidneys to sift and strain from the blood the uric acid and other poisonous waste matter, overcoming Rheumatism, Bladder and Urinary troubles in a short while.

A New York druggist who has had hundreds of calls for these ingredients since the first announcement in the newspapers last October stated that the people who once try it "swear by it," especially those who have Urinary and Kidney trouble and suffer with Rheumatism. The druggists in this neighborhood say they can supply the ingredients, which are easily mixed at home. There is said to be no better blood-cleansing agent or system tonic known, and certainly none more harmless or simple to use.

Dinner for Convicts.

The county convicts stationed on the Union road where they are engaged in laying macadam fared sumptuously Thanksgiving Day. The good people of Union neighborhood banded together and gave them a dinner which they will not soon forget. All the good things of the season were there in abundance and each of the twenty-five or more prisoners ate to his full satisfaction. The good people of the Union Community are as hospitable a folk as can be found anywhere and they will no doubt be held in fond remembrance by the unfortunates for their deed of kindness.

Exciting Runaway.

An exciting runaway took place Saturday morning on Main street when a team belonging to Mr. Lee Whitesides became frightened at the fire wagon and made a spirited dash from the corner of Main and York streets. The team was standing unattended and got a good start before any effort could be made to stop them. At the York street corner the team dashed into a tree, breaking the tongue into several pieces, smashing the front of the wagon and landing the mule on his back in the road. The animals had a miraculous escape, neither being badly bruised or hurt. The wagon contained a bale of cotton.

HON. S. B. HERMAN
IS WELL AGAIN

Noted Oregon Statesman Restored to Health on Recent Eastern Trip.

Hon. Shifler B. Herman, distinguished statesman and legislator of Portland, Oregon, who was recently on an eastern trip, is among those strongly in favor of L. T. Cooper, in the discussion over Cooper and his medicines, which has raged for the past year on his legislative campaign, as he calls them. While in Boston I heard a great deal about this man Cooper and his medicines, and one morning I talked with a Boston banker who told me that he had been relieved by Cooper's medicines after ten years' chronic dyspepsia. For the past twenty years I have been a fearful sufferer with nervous dyspepsia. It has been so bad that it all but forced me to resign from the legislature.

"I was feeling wretchedly that morning, and I made up my mind to try the medicine. I had seen leading physicians without number both East and West. They had been unable to help me in the least, and I no more believed this Cooper medicine could help me than it could bring a dead man back to life. I really don't know why I bought it. It was like a drowning man clutching at a straw.

"To make a long story short, it has been astonishingly successful in my case. Today I am enjoying a sound stomach and perfect health for the first time in twenty years. I can eat heartily without the slightest inconvenience afterward. I have a fine appetite, and sleep well. I am no longer moody and depressed, and my nervousness has entirely disappeared.

"Any man who has chronic dyspepsia owes it to his family to try this medicine."

In all our experience as druggists, we have never seen anything to surpass the famous Cooper preparations.
