TOWN AND COUNTY.

-Mr. Bright May has been appointed telegraph operator and assistant to Mr. E. C. Browne, depot agent of the Seaboard Air line at Cherryville.

-Torrence's drug store has an attractive Christmas window. It contains a revolving wheel of colored electric lights. The window is decorated with holly.

-This week's issue of The Biblical Recorder contains an excellent half-tone cut of the late venerable Rev. W. R. Gwaltney, D. D., of Hickory, who died last week. Accompanying the cut is a brief biographical sketch of the deceased.

-Piof. Joe S. Wray went to Belmont Tuesday night to be with the newly organized council of the Junior Order, and adaressed the council on a subject of special interest to the order. Prof. Wray was pleased to find such an enthusiastic crowd of Juniors and to find the order in such a flourishing condition.

-During the next two or three weeks there will be much coming and going. Gastonians who are away will come back to spend the yuletide season with homefolks, while some Gastonians will go elsewhere for the same purpose. If you have any visitors or if you are going away, call No. 50 and tell The Gazette about it.

-One of the prettiest Christmas windows in the city is one at Belk's. In a background of snowy cotton stands a cozy looking red brick cottage with the mistress, Miss Dollie, just out-side, while a snow bird is picking up crumbs from the snowcovered ground. The opposite window contains an elaborate display of toys for the holiday

-To day is North Carolina Day in the public schools of the State and as such is being observed by many of the schools in Gaston county. A well gottenup general program of the day was sent out by State Superintendent of Education J. Y. Joyner and in most cases this is followed. The object of this day is to teach the pupils State pride history, and patriotism.

-The Scotch Singers have been engaged for the night of the 24th inst., Christmas eve, for an entertainment at the opera house. The proceeds are for the benefit of the Central graded school library. The troupe is composed of Miss Tina Crawford, contralto; Miss Jeanette Cuthill, first soprano; Miss Ella Campbell, second soprano and pianist; Miss Agnes Hyde, first contralto and reader. They come with high recommendations from the press at places where they have appeared.

-The Gastonia Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, held regular communication Tuesday night and conferred the Royal Arch degree upon three candidates, Messrs. W. H. Adams, J. E. Lindsay and P. R. Falls. Present as visitors were Messrs. Daniel Wright and Lendon Smith, of Clover. Mr. G. H. Marvin, manager of the Gastonia Coca Cola works, and Rev. W. R. Ware, pastor of Main Street Methodist church, who have recently moved here, were present as new members of the chapter.
