CHRISTMAS BOOZE.

Holiday Stall Begins to Get its Work in Early—Mayor Armstrong Gives Good Advice to Court Crowd Anent John Barleycorn.

Every defendant in the mayor's court yesterday morning was brought there by old booze, the charge against all being drunkenness in some degree, this being coupled in most cases with disorderly conduct. When Mayor Armstrong called the court to order the court room was pretty well filled with spectators and the prisoner's bar had about all it could hold.

The mayor took occasion to utter some sound advice along the line of whiskey. The man who takes a drink once in a while when some friend offers it to him may be doing wrong but the man who sits down when he is cool and sober and deliberately sends off an order for whiskey is doing worse and he knows it. It would be better, he said, to throw the money in the fire.

In this connection he told of an incident that happened recently at the postoffice. A man came in after the stamp window was closed and was very anxious to get a letter mailed. He asked several bystanders for a stamp and the only man in the crowd who could accommodate him was a minister. The preacher handed him a stamp and the man proceeded to place it on an envelope which was addressed in big type to a well-known mail order whiskey house. "Here," said the preacher, "you can't send my stamp after whiskey." He buttonholed the man and talked to him a few moments, after which the man deliberately tore up the envelope, money order and all and threw the fragments on the floor. It's bad to throw away money, but it was better spent that way than if it had gone and brought the whiskey back.

The entire crowd listened with close attention to all the mayor had to say and it is more than likely that what he had to say will have an influence for good on those who are tempted to send off and get mean booze.

Following is a list of the cases disposed of, all being white men except the last named: Jim Lay, C. C. Hoffman, Ed Norman, Garland Poovie, Doc Thornburg, drunk and disorderly, fined $1 and the cost each; Boyd Black, drunk and disorderly, fined $2 and the cost; Cato Porrer, colored, drunk and staggering, forfeited a bond of $5.

INVITE A TEST.

J. H. Kennedy & Co. Ask Catarrh Sufferers to Try Hyomei on Their Guarantee.

J. H. Kennedy & Co. invite all who suffer from any form of catarrhal troubles to get a Hyomei outfit from them with their absolute guarantee that if it does not give perfect satisfaction, the money will be refunded upon request.

There is no other treatment for catarrh that in any way resembles Hyomei, none that gives such quick curative results and lasting satisfaction, no medicine that can take its place, none that can be sold on a guarantee like this, to refund the money unless it cures.

Catarrh is a germ disease and can be cured only by breathing Hyomei, so that the most remote air cells in the nose, throat and lungs are reached by its antiseptic healing powers. In this way all catarrhal germs are killed, the irritated mucous membrane is healed and catarrh is driven from the system.

This wonderful medicated air treatment does not drug and derange the stomach, but is breathed through a little pocket inhaler that goes with every dollar outfit.

The unusual way in which J. H. Kennedy & Co. sell Hyomei tests their confidence in the remedy. D24-31.

Morris-Sheppard.

At the home of the bride's father, Mr. Dock Sheppard, near the Lory, Sunday evening at 6:15, Mr. John B. Morris and Miss Winnie Sheppard were united in marriage. The ceremony was impressively said in the presence of a large number of friends of the contracting parties by Magistrate W. I. Stowe. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morris.

LOWELL LOCALS.

Schools Close for Holidays—Town Being Wired for Electric Lights—Store Entered by Burglars—Personal Mention.

Correspondence of The Gazette.
(Crowded out of last issue.)

Lowell, N. C., Dec. 19th.—Lowell is not a city but a village. It has between six and seven hundred inhabitants. There are six stores, three barber shops, two livery stables and a meat market. So you see our people are well supplied with both food and raiment, provided the cash is forthcoming. We have also three cotton mills, Lowell No. 1, Lowell No. 2 and the Peerless. The latter two are running and Lowell No. 2 is finished and part of the machinery already on hand. Mr. J. C. Rankin is Pres. and Mr. S. M. Robinson Secretary and Treasurer of these mills; Mr. P. P. Murphy superintendent of the Peerless Mill and Mr. Cicero Harris is superintendent of the Lowell No. 1. Both of these efficient gentlemen have held their positions since the turning of the first wheel.

Our people are well supplied with the Word of Life. We have six churches, two Presbyterian, one white one colored; one Methodist, white; two Baptist, one white one colored; one Congregationalist, colored. These are all supplied with ministers.

Our school being taught by Prof. Thompson and wife and Miss Annie Rutledge will close the twentieth and the teachers will spend the holidays at home. To the students there is always more glee at the close than at the beginning, for books will be laid aside for a while. The seniors have had their pleasant days and so should the juniors.

The electricians are busy wiring our town and soon we hope to have our houses and churches lighted by electricity.

Mr. Labe Lineberger and bride of LaGrange Ga. and Mrs. Lillie Robinson, of Charlotte, paid their sister, Mrs. P. W. Hand, a visit a few days ago. Mr. Lineberger is an old Lowell boy and we extend to him many congratulations and wish him success as he enters upon the sea of matrimony.

Last night some person or persons broke a glass in the store of C. W. Nipper and took various articles. There has been no clue to the guilty one so far as your scribe knows.

REUNION AT LONG CREEK.

Special Services to be Held the Last Sunday in December—All Members and ex-Members Invited.

Special services to be held at the Long Creek Baptist church the last Sunday in this month, being the 28th, will be in the nature of reunion exercises for all the members of the church and all persons who have at any time been members, together with their friends who are cordially invited to be present, both old and young. The ladies are requested to bring baskets as dinner will be had at the church.

Following is the program for the occasion:

10 a. m. Singing, led by Prof. J. L. Webb.

Prayer, by the pastor, Rev. J. A. Hoyle.

11:20 a. m. Sermon by Rev. J. L. Vipperman.

Forty minutes intermission for dinner.

1 o'clock p. m. Songs.

Prayer by Rev. C. R. Orreder.

History of Long Creek Baptist church by the pastor.

Remarks by several of the brethren.

—There will be preaching at Main Street Methodist church Christmas morning at 11 o'clock by the pastor, Rev. W. R. Ware. The pastor especially urges all members to be present and friends of other denominations are cordially invited to attend.

—The News-Letter, a monthly publication of the Nu Omega Society of St. Mary's College, Belmont, is out in new form for Christmas. It appears now in magazine shape, 12 pages, with cover in two colors. It is a creditable magazine and is of special interest to all students and former students of St. Mary's.

TELLS HOW TO MIX IT.

A Well Known Authority Gives Directions to Prepare Simple, Yet Remarkable Home Mixture.

A well-known authority on Rheumatism gives the readers of a large New York daily paper the following valuable, yet simple and harmless prescription, which any one can easily prepare at home:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces.

Mix by shaking well in a bottle, and take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.

He states that the ingredients can be obtained from any good prescription pharmacy at small cost, and, being of vegetable extraction, are harmless to take.

This pleasant mixture, if taken regularly for a few days, is said to overcome almost any case of Rheumatism. The pain and swelling, if any, diminishes with each dose, until permanent results are obtained, and without injuring the stomach. While there are many so called Rheumatism remedies, patent medicines, etc., some of which do give relief, few really give permanent results, and the above will, no doubt, be greatly appreciated by many sufferers here at this time.

Inquiry at the drug stores of this neighborhood elicits the information that these drugs are harmless and can be bought separately, or the druggists here will mix the prescription for our readers if asked to.

TURKEYS FOR CHRISTMAS.

McAden Mills Distribute Their Annual Holiday Presents and the Hearts of the Operatives Are Glad—Live News Notes and Personals From McAdenville.

Correspondence of The Gazette.

McAdenville, Dec. 23.—Mr. R. R. Ray was a Charlotte visitor Friday.—Miss Ruth Lowe, who is attending school at Concord, is home to spend Christmas with her mother, Mrs. S. E. Lowe.—Mr. Sam Reid, who is attending Catawba College at Newton, is also at home to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Reid.

The McAden Mills are giving out their annual Christmas presents to their employes, a nice turkey to each family. These are gifts which the operatives most highly appreciate.

Among the visitors from our town to Charlotte Saturday were Mr. R. H. Merritt, Mr. G. L. Webb, Mr. M. J. Ooickmore, Miss Irene Hooper, Miss Annie Hooper, Mrs. S. E. Lowe and a number of others.—Mr. J. C. Harris and family are spending Christmas with relatives in Taylorsville. They will be away a week or ten days.

It has not as yet been decided just how long the mill will close down for the Christmas holidays, although it will be long enough at any rate for the people to use up all that Santa Claus will bring this Christmas.

The McAden Mills No. 2 made their first shipment of yarn Saturday. The mills here are doing nicely and have plenty of help.

Little Willie Dunaway, the bright little daughter of Mrs. Daisy Dunaway, of Charlotte, who has been spending several months with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Walker, has returned home to spend Christmas.

It seems as if everybody were going to have a big time Christmas as they are making big preparations. Every house one passes he can either hear or see a turkey.

Mr. Robert R. Ray, Jr., of Guilford College, is spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Ray.—Miss Meta McGhee, of Catawba College, is spending Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Due McGhee.

To Open Early in January.

The McAden Library, at McAdenville, will be formally opened to the public early in January, the exact date not having yet been definitely determined. A program for the opening exercises is now being arranged. Mr. D. A. Tompkins, of Charlotte, will be the principal speaker. Miss Katherine Ray is to be librarian and she is now receiving instruction under Miss Clara Moran, of Atlanta, who is cataloguing the books. This library opens with about 1000 volumes and the list will be rapidly increased. An up-to-date reading room and a club room are to be operated in connection with the library.
