False Economy

ONE DAY SHIT SAW A PIN AND REMEMBERED THE OLD ADAGE, "SEE A PIN, PICK IT UP, AND ALL DAY LONG YOU WILL HAVE GOOD LUCK." HE STOOPED TO GET THE PIN HIS HAT TUMBLED OFF AND ROLLED INTO THE GUTTER; HIS EYEGLASSES FELL ON THE PAVEMENT AND BROKE; HIS SUSPENDERS GAVE WAY BEHIND, AND HE BURST THE BUTTONHOLE ON THE BACK OF HIS SHIRT. BUT HE GOT THE PIN.

Some people who take their watches and Jewelry to the cheapest place to have them repaired find it about as profitable as Smith's lucky (?) pin.

We keep the Quality of our Repair work to the standard which we have set in our Stock of Jewelry—not the cheapest but the best.

Rev. Dr. S. M. Smith Dies Suddenly.

Rev. Dr. Samuel M. Smith, pastor of the First Presbyterian church at Columbia, S. C., died suddenly at his home in that city at 11:30 yesterday morning. He conducted his Sunday night service as usual and was apparently as well as ever. On rising Monday morning he complained of being unwell and died within a short time. Dr. Smith was a North Carolinian, being a brother of Dr. Henry Louis Smith, president of Davidson College, and of Dr. C. Alphonso Smith, of the University. He was a scholarly man, a giant in his denomination and was greatly beloved by his people who mourn his death.

One hundred students of Tulane University, New Orleans, are infected with the hookworm disease, according to the college physician who has examined them.
