TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1910.

Weather Forecast: Wednesday fair with rising temperature.

Personal Mention.

—Deputy Sheriff C. W. Fuller, of Bessemer City, was a business visitor in Gastonia yesterday.

—Among yesterday's visitors to Gastonia was Dr. O. G. Falls, of Kings Mountain.

—The county commissioners meet in regular session for February at Dallas next Monday.

—The city council meets in regular session for February next Tuesday night.

—Tomorrow, Wednesday, is groundhog day. Here's hoping the little beast won't see his shadow.

—Mr. John F. Leeper, of Belmont, chairman of the board of county commissioners, was in town yesterday.

—Mrs. J. C. Eury returned yesterday from a two-weeks stay in Rowan county where she had been at the bedside of a sick daughter.

—One month of 1910 and two-thirds of the winter season has passed. "Gentle spring" will soon be with us once again.

—Since the recent rains and snow that section of Franklin avenue recently graded for the car line is, to use a slang phrase, a "beaut." Fact is, it's almost "unnavigable."

—Her many friends will be glad to learn that Mrs. B. B. Gardner is much better. Though not yet able to sit up her condition is considerably improved.

—The last aspirant for office in the county, according to Dame Rumor, is Mr. Carl Finger, of Stanley. It is understood that he will seek

False Economy

ONE DAY SMITH SAW A PIN AND REMEMBERED THE OLD ADAGE, "SEE A PIN, PICK IT UP, AND ALL DAY LONG YOU WILL HAVE GOOD LUCK." HE STOOPED TO GET THE PIN HIS HAT TUMBLED OFF AND ROLLED INTO THE GUTTER; HIS EYEGLASSES FELL ON THE PAVEMENT AND BROKE; HIS SUSPENDERS GAVE WAY BEHIND, AND HE BURST THE BUTTONHOLE ON THE BACK OF HIS SHIRT. BUT HE GOT THE PIN.

Some people who take their watches and Jewelry to the cheapest place to have them repaired find it about as profitable as Smith's lucky (?) pin.

We keep the Quality of our Repair work to the standard which we have set in our Stock of Jewelry—not the cheapest but the best.

the nomination for county treasurer.

—The Brawley Clothing Company is today moving its stock of goods from the Boyce-Falls building to the store room in the Adams building formerly occupied by the Kendrick-Torrence Co.

—Mr. Clyde C. Armstrong will leave tomorrow for Shreveport, La., where he will spend several days. From there he will go to New Orleans to take in the Mardi Gras celebration before returning to Gastonia.

—Rev. Dr. J. R. Scroggs, of Shelby, presiding elder of the Shelby district, was in Gastonia a few hours between trains yesterday. He was en route home from Lowell and McAdenville where he spent Saturday and Sunday.

—Dr. Mc. G. Anders returned Saturday night from New York city where he spent three weeks attending special medical lectures. En route home he stopped in Baltimore and visited Johns Hopkins and other large hospitals.

—Miss Clara Patrick was the guest Saturday and Sunday of Miss Sparke Torrence here, returning yesterday morning to Dallas where she is a teacher in the graded school. Friday night she attended the "Feast of Nations" at Belmont.

—Mr. R. W. Edwards is today moving his grocery business from East Airline street, near the Modena Mill, to the Grier building on South street. Mr. Jones, who had a pool room in this building, has moved to the Johnston building on Main avenue.

—Friday night Gastonia and this section experienced a regular snow storm for more than an hour. From 8:30 to about 10 o'clock the snow fell thick and fast and quite a good deal of it remained on the ground despite the fact that everything was wet from the recent rains. For a time it looked as if there might be another snow like that of February, 1905, or January, 1902.

—Mr. L. L. Jenkins left Sunday morning on No. 36 for New York, where he and Mrs. Jenkins are spending the winter. He spent several weeks here attending the annual meetings of a number of corporations in which he is interested and looking after other business matters.

—The roller cover shop which has for a long time occupied the Dover building on the corner of North Marletta street and Airline avenue, was moved last week into the building several doors east of the old location, formerly occupied by The Gastonia News, and which is owned by Mrs. S. B. Barnwell and Messrs. J. B. and J. L. Beal.

—Mr. Andy Cloninger, and son, Mr. Burt Cloninger, of route one, Dallas, are hauling a large quantity of lumber and wood to Gastonia. Recently they bought from Charles Costner 137 acres of land which is heavily timbered. Already they have gotten out 500 cords of wood and expect to get out, with their saw —Sam Hayes, a one-legged negro well known around town is behind the bars under a $200 bond awaiting trial at the next term of Superior Court on a charge of obtaining money under false pretense. Hayes, it is said, obtained money from a number of people under the promise that he could get whiskey for them. He failed to make good, however, and was reported to the police department with the result as above stated.

—Mr. C. E. Hutchinson, of Mount Holly, one of the stockholders in and promoters of the Piedmont Traction Company, is spending the day in Gastonia on business connected with his company. He states that a practically new survey of the road has been made from Mount Holly to Gastonia, the work just now being completed. It is the purpose of the company, he stated, to give Gastonia a jam-up good passenger service. This statement has been previously made in The Gazette but Mr. Hutchinson wishes it to be emphasized as a good many people, he thinks, have gotten an erroneous idea that the freight business is to be the main feature.

—The AmuseU is temporarily out of business, pending the securing of a new location. The building which it has occupied for the past year or two is to be occupied in the future by the wholesale house of J. Flem Johnson & Co. The building belongs to Mr. Johnson. It will be connected with the building next door, now occupied by his firm, and will be used for storage purposes. The front part will be occupied by Messrs. D. M. Jones & Co. and Mr. Henry Cleveland as cotton offices. These firms will retain their second-floor rooms for storage purposes. The AmuseU

FOR SALE.

Fine Plantation containing 183 Acres on the Catawba river, Gaston county, one mile from the new Rozelle Ferry Bridge, 12 miles from Charlotte, adjoining the lands of the late Col. R. L. Abernethy, well timbered, original growth pine and oak. Write, N. P. OR E. R. CANNON, F22c8. Charlotte, N. C.

of which Mr. Charles Cavis is owner and manager, is on a deal to secure another building and, if successful, will probably re-open for business soon.

Harrill-Lewis.

Mr. R. F. Harrill, of the Loray, and Miss Clara Lewis, of the Arlington, were married at the home of the bride last week, Rev. F. W. Bradley officiating. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a number of relatives and friends of the contracting parties. The groom is a son of Mrs. M. M. Harrill and the bride is one of the most popular young ladies of the Arlington neighborhood. They have numerous friends who wish them joy in their wedded life.

Secretary Wilson says that the cause of the high price of things to eat is that there are not enough people on the farms raising food and too many people are going to the towns to be fed.
