THE GASTONIA GAZETTE.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1910.

Goes to Alabama.

Rev. C. Y. Love, of Mecklenburg, who has been supplying the pulpit of the Gastonia Associate Reformed Presbyterian church, will leave this week for Camden, Ala., where he will serve as pastor of the A. R. P. church for the next three months. He goes to supply the pulpit temporarily with a view to accepting a call as the regular pastor. This leaves the Gastonia church without a temporary supply pastor. Next Sunday morning and evening Rev. Mr. Young, pastor of the Kings Mountain church will fill the pulpit and on the following Sunday Rev. Mr. Griffith, of Bessemer City, will preach for the Gastonia congregation. Rev. Dr. J. C. Galloway, the pastor of this church, has been considerably benefited by his rest but had not intended to resume his active pastoral duties for another month or two. Unless satisfactory arrangements can be made for a temporary supply pastor, Dr. Galloway will likely resume his pastoral duties this month.

Summer-Kendrick.

Last week's Cherryville Eagle says: "At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Kendrick, last Sunday evening was solemnized the marriage of their daughter, Bessie to C. C. Summer, Rev. Deitz, pastor of St. John's Lutheran church, pronounced the ceremony in a most beautiful manner. The bride is one of our choicest young ladies. From a little girl she has grown up in our midst, honored by old and young alike. She has ever been a bright star in the home circles and now she has gone to reign as queen in her own home. The groom is one of our alert young business men and merits the good will of all who know him."

To Inspect Bridge.

Sunday's Charlotte Observer says that the county commissioners expect to spend Wednesday at the new iron bridge over the Catawba river at Rozzelle's ferry inspecting the structure, either accepting or rejecting it. The bridge has been erected at a great expense and the county officials are expecting great results from the connection it affords with Gaston county. It is a fine piece of workmanship and is altogether creditable to the progressive spirit of the administration that has the glory of having built it.

Cleared Neat Sum.

The Woman's Betterment Association realized $86.35 from the sales of oysters, cream, cake, coffee and candy Friday and Saturday. This despite the fact that the weather was most unfavorable. The Kendrick-Torrence store room was most attractively and comfortably fixed up for the occasion. The ladies desire to return their hearty thanks to all who patronized them or contributed in any way to the success of the affair. They are now busily engaged in planning a chrysanthemum fair for next fall, concerning which more will be said in The Gazette at an early date. Already more than forty of the members of the association have promised to raise chrysanthemums for this fair which will undoubtedly prove to be a most interesting occasion.

A Voter at Least.

Human Life.
Aunt Spinsterly: "I hope that your opinions uphold the dignity of our sex, Mamie, and that you believe that every woman should have a vote?"
Mamie: "I don't go quite so far as that auntie; but I do believe that every woman should have a voter."

Dodging Her Duties.

Pittsburg Gazette.
The Modern Mother (to her daughter): "Look here, my dear, I am going to give a bridge party this afternoon, and I want you to stay and fill in."
Daughter (wearily): "Oh, mother, I—"
"That's it. You are all alike! Never ready to help me in my household duties."

Nell—Maude is the most careless girl I ever saw. Belle—Yes, I heard her say she had forgotten more than you ever knew.

Can't Fool the American People.

Winston Sentinel.
Republican writers may say all they please about the high cost of living being caused by the large increase in the world's gold production and the extravagance of people, but the average citizen is not likely to be much impressed with that kind of argument as long as he knows that American farm products are sold cheaper abroad than they are in this country. That this is true was shown by Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, who testified to that effect before a committee of the House of Representatives. Mr. Wilson is authority for the statement that the producer is now getting but little more than formerly for his products, while the ultimate consumer pays an excessive price.

Mr. Taft's Political Troubles.

Durham Herald.
If Mr. Taft had made even a feeble effort to stand up for his platform promises he would not now find himself hedged about by so many political troubles. The people were expecting little from his party but placed a great deal of confidence in him.
