S. C., was a business visitor in Gastonia yesterday.

Mrs. J. W. Kirkpatrick and little son Grier and Mrs. Ellen McLaughen, of Yorkville, spent yesterday with friends in Gastonia.

Mr. Robert C. Calhoun, of Vicksburg, Miss., was among the business visitors in the city yesterday.

Rev. J. J. Kennedy will preach at the Loray Presbyterian church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock in the absence of the pastor, Rev. A. S. Anderson, who is to preach at New Hope.

Mr. E. G. McLurd, secretary and treasurer of the Gastonia Mutual Building and Loan Association, will go to Clover next week to address a meeting of the citizens of that place in the interest of the organization of a local association.

Attention is directed to the advertisement in this issue of the Mecklenburg Marble & Granite Co., of Charlotte, manufacturers of headstones, tablets and coping. This firm has a splendidly equipped plant in Charlotte and Gaston people needing anything in their line will do well to confer with them before buying.

Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Hardin returned Tuesday night from Fayetteville, where they were called Saturday night on account of the death of Mrs. Hardin's brother, Mr. Charles W. Troy, which occurred on Saturday. Funeral services were conducted at the home Sunday afternoon by Rev. Mr. Thompson, pastor of the Hayes Street Methodist church.

Mr. Perry N. Glenn is the local agent for the Victor Talking Machine Company and is now devoting his entire time to that work. He has headquarters at Kirby's music store in the Davis block where he can be found at all times. He invites the public to come and hear the new Victor records. In addition to the talking machines and phonographs he is now handling the Victrola, of which he has already sold two or three. He has one now on the way and will have it on exhibition within a few days.

Mrs. G. R. Patrick and her daughter, Miss Clara, of the Union neighborhood, had a narrow escape from serious injury Monday afternoon when the horse which they were driving became frightened at an automobile and ran away, overturning the buggy. Miss Clara was thrown from the buggy when it was overturned and fortunately escaped any injury. Mrs. Patrick was caught in the top of the buggy as it turned and dragged about fifty feet, suffering some painful bruises about the head, none of which fortunately were serious, and she has now about recovered from the shock.

There is practically no change in the condition of Mr. John H. Craig, who has been critically ill at his home in East Gastonia for several days.

This section is experiencing today the largest fall of snow and sleet in five years. It began snowing about 7 o'clock this morning, snowed for about an hour and then began sleet.

Mr. R. T. Padgett, the tailor, has just installed a Hoffman steam cleaning and pressing machine which adds greatly to his equipment. In Tuesday's Gazette Mr. Padgett will have something to say about this machine. Watch for it.

Two more aspirants for office announce themselves in this issue as candidates, viz: Mr. D. P. Dellinger, of Cherryville, for the House of Representatives and Mr. G. R. Rhyne, of Dallas, for sheriff. Mr. Rhyne has served several years as deputy sheriff in the past and is well posted on the work of this office. He is a hustling, energetic man and has a large number of friends. Mr. Dellinger is a prominent young attorney of Cherryville and has had considerable experience in public matters. That he would serve the county well in the House goes without saying.

Mr. Pleasant Cauble, aged 84, a well-do-do farmer of Rowan county, was found dead in bed at his home Wednesday morning. He was a Confederate veteran.

Much interest is manifested in the proposed legislation against dealing in cotton futures in the exchanges. The House Committee on the matter has been hearing arguments from both sides on the question this week. Wednesday the representatives of the cotton producers were heard and yesterday the president of the New York Exchange and other dealers in futures were heard.

Mr. W. M. Barber Wednesday sold The Greensboro Patriot to Mr. W. I. Underwood and will move to California. The Patriot is one of the oldest newspapers in the South and is a valuable property. Mr. Barber purchased it in 1893 and has built it up to a point where it is a splen-

Gen. Clemat A. Evans, commander-in-chief of the Confederate Veterans, is ill at his home in Atlanta from grip and some apprehension is felt as to his recovery.

Last Sunday night Rev. William McDonald, colored, was shot while in his pulpit at Waxhaw, engaged in prayer. The shot was fired through the window and caused consternation in the congregation. Patrolman McKnight of Charlotte was sent to Waxhaw to work up the case and as a result of his investigations John Crawford, colored, was arrested and held for trial on the charge of doing the shooting. Crawford, it is said, had threatened McDonald on several occasions. He is a preacher himself and was anxious to obtain the pulpit of McDonald's church.
