Death From Pellagra.

News reached Gastonia this afternoon of the death at her home in Mountain Island at 10 o'clock this morning of Mrs. T. H. Roberts, a daughter of Mr. J. L. Grice, of Gastonia. Death resulted from pellagra from which she had suffered for many months. The funeral arrangements are not known, though it is stated she will be buried some time tomorrow.

Federal meat inspectors have shown that two per cent of the 56,000,000 hogs in this country a year ago, and valued then at $339,000,000, are affected with tuberculosis.

Senator John W. Daniels, of Virginia, suffered a slight stroke of paralysis early in the week but his condition is now reported as much improved.
