DR. HILLS SCORES TAFT.
Noted Brooklyn Minister Says He Has Failed—Lamentably Tied to Aldrich and Cannon.

Detroit Special in the Baltimore Sun: "I find Speaker Cannon the most unpopular man, and I know a vast majority of the voters of the country feel that President Taft has failed lamentably in his effort to run a race with two such weights as Aldrich and Cannon tied to his feet," declared Rev. Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, of Brooklyn, today.
"Roosevelt stripped for the race, but evidently Taft got it into his head that he was too much of a physical and intellectual giant to need the training that Roosevelt gave himself. I was one of the original Taft men, but I frankly acknowledge now that I was mistaken in my estimate of the man. In this year 1910, when Providence has dealt so beneficially with the people in the matter of harvests, when our factories and mills are turning out more comforts and luxuries for our people than ever before, America, which should be the most contented of nations, is the most discontented.
"I feel confident that it is the existing tariff, causing high prices for everything that enters into the maintenance of life that has wrought the present discontent of the people. Whether they are right or not, they attribute the high prices to the tariff—make no mistake about that."
For years it has been the custom of Dr. Hillis to travel from ocean to ocean on winter lecture tours, and he is now on his way home from one of them, and is therefore well qualified to express the present condition of public sentiment.

HOW TO CURE RHEUMATISM.
The cause of Rheumatism and kindred diseases is an excess of uric acid in the blood. To cure this terrible disease this acid must be expelled. Rheumatism is an internal disease and requires an internal remedy. Rubbing with Oils and Liniments will not cure, and affords only temporary relief at best. Science has at last discovered a perfect and complete cure, which is called "Rheumacide." Tested in hundreds of cases, it has effected the most marvelous cures; we believe it will cure you. Rheumacide gets at the joints from the inside, sweeps the poisons out of the system, regulates the liver and kidneys and makes you well all over. Rheumacide strikes the roots of the disease and removes its cause. This splendid remedy is sold by druggists and dealers generally at 50c and $1 a bottle. In tablet form at 25c and 50c a package. Trial bottle of tablets by mail on receipt of price 25c. Booklet free. Write to Bobbitt Chemical Co., Baltimore, Md. For sale in Gastonia by Adams Drug Co.

DOING THEIR DUTY.
Scores of Gastonia Readers Are Learning the Duty of the Kidneys.
To filter the blood is the kidney's duty.
When they fail to do this the kidneys are sick.
Backache and many kidney ills follow.
Urinary trouble, diabetes.
Doan's Kidney Pills cure them all.
Gastonia people endorse our claim.

Mrs. J. P. Turner, 286 Loray Mill House, Gastonia, N. C., says: "I feel it my duty to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills so that other sufferers from kidney trouble may know what remedy to use to obtain relief. Kidney complaint had me in its grasp for several years and at times my condition was serious. Doan's Kidney Pills were finally brought to my attention and as I had obtained no relief from the several remedies I had previously used, I procured a box at the Abernethy-Shields Drug Co. They strengthened my kidneys and improved my health in every way. Since then I have had no symptoms of kidney trouble."

Cherub Devine
By Sewell Ford

A FASCINATING LOVE STORY Told in the Charming Style of A Master of Light Fiction. Love, Romance, Mystery and Humor Combine to Make an Exceedingly Entertaining Story and One Our Readers Will Enjoy.

Will Begin in The Gazette Tuesday, April 19th.

"CHERUB DEVINE.
The Gazette's next serial story will be "Cherub Devine," which is proving to be one of the most popular of the late novels. The story is located in Wall Street and Long Island, homes of realism rather than romance, one would say, yet the things that happen in the tale are most remarkable and romantic, without seeming at all unnatural or improbable.
As for Cherub, he's no hero of the traditional variety. He's a capital fellow but he doesn't claim to be a hero at all and he keeps you laughing even when he's telling a girl how much he loves her, for his way of wooing is certainly unique.
It's an unusual story, not only in its humor and the kind of characters it makes one acquainted with, but in its situations, for without seeming to be a novel of mystery it keeps you guessing and fools you at several turns in the plot. The latter is ingenious and full of surprises, still you can say to yourself that it is just what might happen even in the prosaic State of New York.
Yes, even the episode of shutting a count up in an ice house—that might happen with such a resourceful fellow as Cherub on the job, indeed this was a trifling performance in comparison with his smashing the Rimmer crowd and electing himself president of the P. Z. and U. But we mustn't tell all the story—read it.

A Cautious Judge.
TW-Bits.
Some years ago there was a trial for murder in Ireland in which the evidence was so palpably insufficient that the judge stopped the case and directed the jury to return a verdict of "Not guilty." A well-known lawyer, however, who wished to do something for the fee he had received for the defense, claimed the privilege of addressing the court. "We'll hear you with pleasure, Mr. B—," said the judge; "but, to prevent accident, we'll first acquit the prisoner."
Not an Early Bird.
Success Magazine.
A young college man, city bred and raised, answered the call for harvest hands in Kansas. Reaching a farmhouse late at night, he was promised work and assigned to a room. It seemed to him that he had hardly fallen asleep when he was asked to get up. Disgustedly the young man dressed himself in the darkness, and, picking up his grip, walked downstairs.
"Say, there, young fellow," said the farmer, trying to be helpful, "you don't need to take your valise out to the field with you."
"I know it," replied the young man tartly. "I'm going to look for a place to stay all night."
