TUESDAY, APRIL 19, 1910.

Weather Forecast: Showers Tuesday, cooler except in extreme west; Wednesday fair and warmer in west; brisk southwest to northwest winds.

Personal Mention.

—Mr. W. Darius Beam, of The Gazette force, is confined to his room today by illness.

—Several refreshing April showers have fallen within the past few days. As a result the temperature has fallen considerably but there is hardly any probability of damage by cold to crops.

—Squire B. G. Bradley and Mr. S. N. Boyce have both put in claims to having been ahead of the editors of The Gazette on the strawberry question, both having had ripe berries on their tables as early as last Thursday.

—T. L. Ware, superintendent of the Gaston county chain gang, came here Wednesday and got four good hands as a result of this week's court, three colored men and Dorus Clemmer, a young white man who goes for 60 days, because he failed to pay fine and costs aggregating $36.—Lincolnton Times., 15th.

—"Cleaning-up Day" turned out even better than was indicated by the item in The Gazette last week. Instead of seventy-five loads of trash collected and hauled off by the city there were a hundred or more. Instead of finishing their work Tuesday, the city haulers were still busy Friday.

—Mr. W. C. Warlick, formerly a resident of Gastonia but for the past five years engaged in the furniture business in Albuquerque, New Mexico, is spending today here. He has purchased land in Moore county, this State, and will engage in farming, cattle and poultry raising. He and his wife returned to North Carolina about two weeks ago.

—The affairs of the old City Grocery Company were finally wound up today when Mr. John O. Rankin, the receiver, sold the remaining assets of the Company at public auction at the city hall. A sewing machine brought $6.25, a note $1.25 and about $4,000 in unpaid accounts were bid in by Mr. F. A. Costner for $6.25.

—At Monroe the near-beer saloons are having a rough road to travel. Sunday Rev. Dr. H. F. Chreitberg, formerly of Gastonia and now pastor of the Methodist church at that place, denounced the operators of these places and the people who backed and sympathized with them in no uncertain terms. There is some probability, it is rumored, that Gastonia may have one or two near-beer saloons after the first of June, the beginning of the tax year. The local license is $1,000. That they would receive a reception here similar to that which was accorded them at Monroe is hardly questionable.

—On next Saturday night, April 23rd, an ice cream supper will be given at the Clara Mill school house for the benefit of the Clara Concert Band. Arrangements will be made to accommodate all who will come, and it is hoped that there will be a large crowd and that the affair will be well patronized. The proceeds of the supper will go into the fund which is being raised to purchase uniforms for the band. The members of the band are taking great interest in the work, and having been under excellent training are now rendering music of a high quality. They are receiving much encouragement in their determination to give Gastonia one of the best bands to be found in any town in the State.

MRS. ELIZABETH HALL DEAD.

Aged Mother of Supt. F. P. Hall Passed Away Saturday Night at Belmont, Being Found Dead in Her Room.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hall, aged about 88 years, died Saturday night at Belmont, where she made her home with her son, Superintendent F. P. Hall. Mrs. Hall was somewhat feeble on account of her extreme age, but seemed as well as usual when she retired to her room Saturday night. When a member of the family went to her room Sunday morning, however, to call her to breakfast, she was found dead, having expired at some time during the night.

Mrs. Hall was before her marriage Miss Elizabeth Neagle, and was born and reared in the South Point section of Gaston county. Her husband, the late Rev. J. D. Hall, a Presbyterian minister, died about 18 years ago.

She is survived by five sons, Mr. F. P. Hall, county superintendent of schools, Rev. J. K. Hall, and Messrs. J. D., J. Quinn and Laban B. Hall.

Funeral services were conducted at the home at noon Monday by Rev. R. C. Anderson, of Gastonia, and the remains were interred in the cemetery at Goshen Presbyterian church, of which the deceased had been for many years a loyal and faithful member.

DOING A RUSHING BUSINESS.

Since the opening of the big sale at the Gastonia Furniture Company, conducted by the WIZARD, this concern has enjoyed a most phenomenal business. In a conversation with the manager several days ago, our editor was assured that for the past few days the output has been something enormous. And on a close inspection of the stock, we have every reason to believe that this well-known firm has been setting a pace in furniture selling that will cause em' all to sit up and take notice, as we have never had the pleasure of inspecting a more complete stock of house furnishings at such a great reduction from the old prices. This sale will close on Saturday night, 23rd, and if you have not been one of the many to inspect the prices and quality of their goods, it will certainly be to your advantage to give them a call, as these genial and hustling business men will take great pleasure in showing you through their stock.

—Friday's Lincoln County News says: "Mr. C. S. Brawley, formerly of Statesville, who has been running a clothing store in Spencer for the past seven months, packed his goods last week and shipped his stock to Maiden, Catawba county, where he will go into business. Mr. Brawley, as the Salisbury Post says, is a clever young man and it is hoped he will meet with success in his new field." Mr. Brawley is a brother of Mr. F. W. Brawley, of the Brawley Clothing Company, of this city.

—The attention of our readers is called to the advertisement of the Coffey Wagon Works which appears on page eight of this issue. This enterprising firm has experienced so large an increase in its business during the past few months that it has been compelled to double the capacity of its plant. Only experienced workmen are employed in the various departments and the best materials enter into all the work sent out.
