FRIDAY, MAY 13, 1910.

Personal Mention.

—Friday, the 13th.
—This morning was rather cool for May; the thermometer registered below 50.
—Dr. R. M. Reid has returned from Philadelphia where he attended a special course of medical lectures.
—Mr. L. H. Long, Sr., of Kings Mountain, came up this morning on a visit to his sons, Messrs. V. E. and L. H. Long.
—Rev. W. H. Hardin, rector of St. Mark's Episcopal church, spent Wednesday very pleasantly with friends at Pleasant Ridge.
—There will be a total eclipse of the moon between midnight of Monday, the 23rd of May, and 1 o'clock a. m. of Tuesday, the 24th of May. It will be visible in this section.
—Do you say a good word for Gastonia as you go along? It's the best town in the State and every man, woman and child in it should be a booster.
—Miss Jennie Pegram and Miss Marie Torrence returned Wednesday from Charlotte, where they have been attending the Presbyterian College.
—Mr. L. F. Coon returned yesterday to his home at Blowing Rock after spending two days in Gastonia on a visit to his brother, Mr. W. L. Coon.
—Loray and McAdenville are playing the second game of their series at Loray Park this afternoon. The game at McAdenville last Saturday was called on account of rain.
—Mrs. W. N. Davis has been seriously ill for a week or more, suffering from an attack of pneumonia. Her condition is much improved, however, and her early recovery is hoped for.
—Morris Bros. have a half-page advertisement in today's Gazette in which they mention a large number of special prices for their Challenge Sale. Turn to page eight and read it.
—Mrs. A. B. Williams will attend the International Sunday School Convention which convenes next week in Washington. She will be the guest there of her brother, Dr. Erskine Miller.
—Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Pursley, of Bowling Green, S. C., spent Tuesday in Gastonia attending the Memorial Day exercises, and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Jackson.
—Mr. W. B. Morris, of the Torrence-Morris Company, Mr. Robert

Adams and Mr. R. B. Babington attended the grand Lodge of Royal Arch Masons at Salisbury Wednesday.

—Miss Rebecca Flanagan was the guest Wednesday of her cousin Miss Mamie Patrick. She was en route to her home at Bowling Green from Charlotte where she has been attending the Presbyterian College.

—Rev. and Mrs. J. Frank Harrelson and child left yesterday for Cherryville to visit homelinks and attend the commencement exercises of the Cherryville graded school. They will return to Gastonia Monday.

—Elsewhere in today's Gazette will be found a notice of the first meeting of creditors of the Poole Grocery Company, bankrupt, which is to be held in the office of Attorney C. D. Holland here on the 23rd day of May at 7 o'clock p. m.

—At its meeting last night the city council went over and examined the preliminary report of Solomon Norcross & Co., of Atlanta, engineers, on the plans for the proposed septic tank for Gastonia. At a later meeting of the council the same will be taken up and adopted officially.

—Mrs. D. B. Coltrane, of Concord, and Miss Lille Howe, of Carrollton, Ky., spent Tuesday night in Gastonia as guests of Mrs. D. A. Garrison and left Wednesday morning for Asheville. Mrs. Coltrane will spend some time in Asheville, while Miss Howe will go on after a few days to her home in Kentucky.

—Morris Brothers yesterday purchased from Mr. W. H. Adams, the receiver, the stock of goods in the Heath building formerly owned by W. H. Dellinger, who recently filed a petition in bankruptcy. They will very probably consolidate this stock with their own in their building, corner South street and Main avenue.

—We are publishing again today on page seven a list of the pollholders for the twenty precincts of the county for the Democratic primaries to be held May 21st and also section 28 from the State plan of organization setting forth the requirements to be met by the candidates for the various offices. Every voter should read this carefully.

—Have you seen Halley's comet yet is the usual greeting on the streets now. Every morning quite a large number of Gastonians are out from 3 a. m. on to witness the visitation of the comet. It can now be seen very plainly with the naked eye and its tail, 15,000,000 miles in length, is also plainly visible. The comet will be nearest the earth on May 18th and on that day the earth will pass through its tail.

—Mr. R. S. Torrence, Mr. Felix Thomas and Misses Lena and Uel Quinn were here Tuesday from their homes near Fort Mill. Mr. Torrence, who is a Gaston county man, came to attend the memorial day exercises. The Misses Quinn and Mr. Thomas, his brother-in-law, came on account of the illness and death of their father, the late Mr. Laban Quinn. Mr. Torrence says that there is more corn and wheat in his section this year than ever before.

—An interesting suit has been instituted in Charlotte against the Seaboard Air Line Railway by Mr. E. L. Mason, a former Gastonian, which will be watched with interest inasmuch as it is an unusual case. A few days ago Mr. Mason was put off a Seaboard train at Lincolnton because he refused to show the conductor his mileage book after having given him his ticket. On the trip up the demand was made and Mr. Mason showed his mileage book; on the return trip the same demand was made and he refused to comply, whereupon the conductor put him off. Mr. Mason drove to Gastonia and took the Southern to Charlotte. No amount of damages has as yet been specified.

With the Sick.

Mr. Lean McLean is critically ill at his home on Chester street. He was operated on Wednesday for a head trouble. His condition has been desperate from the very start but shows improvement today and there is hope for his recovery.
Mrs. Bynum Long, who was reported in extremis Tuesday, has since improved considerably and her friends will be glad to know that there are now stronger hopes for her recovery.

A CARD.

To the Voters of Gaston County: After a full and earnest consideration from every view-point—myself, friends and supporters and the public interests with which I have been entrusted for several years—I have decided that I owe it to myself not to enter the primaries for reelection as a commissioner of Gaston county. In reaching such decision I am not forgetful of the great debt of gratitude that I owe to my many staunch and loyal friends over the county who have unceasingly given me their support, encouragement and sympathy, thereby enabling and inspiring me to discharge the arduous duties incumbent upon me. To these I have felt under obligation to consider carefully and well the step that I deem best to take.

Again it is my humble opinion that it is to the highest interests of the county that young and vigorous men should be elected to the board of county commissioners. Mr. Frank McArver has offered himself in the primaries as a candidate for commissioner to represent Gastonia township. Such being true I can but confidently and heartily recommend and support him for election, believing, as I do, that he possesses in large measure the qualities that will insure to the county a faithful and efficient service. I ask for him the warm support of my friends. With a deep sense of the obligation due the people of the county for the honors and trust conferred upon me I am

Faithfully Yours,
A. R. ANDERS.
