Another Great Booth Tarkington-Harry Leon Wilson Story

They said he was the worst man on the river, yet he showed them that the soul of a man and the heart of a man would not perish while the spirit willed that they should live.

THIS romantic novel of life, love, war, intrigue and revenge on the Mississippi in the early Colonial days, captures the imagination, thrills the soul, and illustrates that even an unprincipled gambler and card sharper may yet redeem the life he has bartered for illicit gain.

HOPKINS-PAGE WEDDING.

It was a Quiet Home Affair and Took Place at Home of Bride's Sister, Mrs. J. L. Rhodes, in New Orleans.

The following account of the Hopkins-Page wedding is from the New Orleans Times-Democrat of last Saturday:

"The wedding of Miss Mary Page, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Page, of Gastonia, N. C., to Mr. Charles W. Hopkins, now of New Orleans, was celebrated here very quietly yesterday from the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Rhodes, No. 220 Audubon boulevard. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Alexander, a Presbyterian pastor. Plans for the wedding had been decided upon very recently and the event was very quiet in consequence. Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins will be at home after July 1 at the residence that Mr. Hopkins has recently had erected, No. 241 Audubon boulevard.

"Miss Page and Mr. Hopkins had several informal affairs given in their honor earlier in the week by friends. Mr. James Campbell gave a dinner at Antoine's in their honor Friday evening. His guests were Miss Page, Mr. Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Rhodes, Miss May Graham, Miss Louise Hopkins and Messrs. Randolph Simpson, C. C. Rhodes and E. Conway Broun, of Richmond, Va. Thursday evening a number of Mr. Hopkins' friends gave a stag dinner in his honor. In the party, besides Mr. Hopkins, were: Messrs. S. P. Walmley, Jr., Dan Charbonnet, James Campbell, E. Conway Broun, of Richmond, J. L. Rhodes, C. C. Rhodes and Harry Stansbury."

Death of Mr. Will Garrison.

Word was received here early yesterday morning by Mr. Frank Garrison, one of the Southern Railway's telegraph operators, of the death of his brother, Mr. Will Garrison, which occurred Wednesday night at his home in Drayton, S. C., after an illness of several months. The deceased young man was about 30 years of age and is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Garrison, of Drayton, S. C.; a widow and four children; three brothers, Mr. Frank Garrison, of Gastonia, and Messrs. John and Roland Garrison of Drayton, S. C., and four sisters Mrs. Thomas Lowdermilk, of Gastonia, Mrs. Alice Workman, of Danville, Va., Mrs. Will Rodgers and Misses Georgia and Lillie Garrison of Drayton, S. C. Mr. Garrison suffered an attack of typhoid fever last December and the disease developed into tuberculosis, which caused his death. He was taken to a hospital in Spartanburg a short time ago, but this failed to stay the ravages of the dread disease. Mrs. Lowdermilk and Mrs. Workman attended the funeral, which was held at 1 o'clock this afternoon at Mt. Zion cemetery, between Drayton and Spartanburg.

The Reep Company, of Mountain Island, has been granted a charter to do a general mercantile business. The authorized capital stock is $35,000 with $6,000 paid in. Max Reep, S. C. Lowe and C. E. Hutchins are the incorporators.

Admission Examinations.

At his office, on Thursday, July 14th, our county superintendent of schools, Prof. F. P. Hall, will conduct admission examinations for the A. & M. College at Raleigh. The college officers in charge of admission urge that all who expect to enter in September be examined at this time.

Missionary Service.

At Main Street Methodist church Sunday night there will be a special missionary service, conducted by the ladies of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society. The delegates who attended the annual conference at Reidsville will make their reports and short talks will be made by several members of the society. Not only the members of the society, but all the members of the church are cordially invited to the service.

A Visitor From the West.

Mr. A. B. Jagers, of Monticello, Ark., is expected to arrive in Gastonia tonight on an extended visit to his nephew, Dr. D. E. McConnell, and other relatives in Gaston and York counties. Mr. Jagers went west from York county about thirty years ago and this is his first visit back to his old home section since that time. Mr. Jagers is a cousin of Messrs. John D. and James E. Lindsay, of Gastonia, and has a large number of relatives in the county.

But a Few Days Left.

The Gazette wishes to call the attention of its readers, especially those who are taxpayers, to the notice appearing on the editorial page of today's issue in which Tax-listers J. R. Rankin for the town and E. H. Rankin for the county call your attention to the fact that but a few more days remain in which to list your property for taxation. The month of June is set aside for this purpose and persons who wait till July first to make their returns are subject to double tax. Every citizen should attend to this important matter at once.

—Dr. Frank Anders left yesterday morning for points in South Carolina where he will spend two or three days visiting.
