—The canning season is now on. Reports from over the county indicate that the blackberry crop is unusually large and there is an abundance of apples, peaches and plums. The State Department of Agriculture's bulletin for the month of May, recently issued, is a pamphlet on the home canning of fruits and vegetables. It consists of 24 pages and contains a large amount of very valuable information for canners. This pamphlet can be secured free of charge by any persons interested by making application to the State Department of Agriculture at Raleigh.

—Mr. W. Y. Warren received a letter Saturday morning from Superintendent John H. Campbell, of the State Insane Asylum at Morganton, stating that there was no change for the better in the condition of Mr. Lon Thomasson, who was taken there from Gastonia the Monday previous. The patient is still very much excited, threatens to sue the town for incarceration, and states the superintendent, is quite hard to handle, giving them considerable trouble. Many of his friends had hoped that he would begin to show signs of improvement right away and are disappointed at the news which comes from the asylum.

FOR EARLY CLOSING.

Mrs. L. L. Jenkins Inaugurates Movement in Behalf of Clerks—Merchants Asked to Close at Six O'clock During July and August Except on Saturdays.

Mrs. L. L. Jenkins has inaugurated a movement to get the merchants of the town to agree to close their places of business at 6 o'clock every evening of the week except Saturday during the months of July and August, beginning next Monday. She has already had assurances from a majority of the merchants that they favor the movement and will be glad to sign an agreement to that effect provided all the merchants of the town will follow suit. This afternoon or tomorrow Mrs. Jenkins will see the merchants personally and ask them to sign such an agreement.

This movement is one which should commend itself to the serious consideration of every business man. It is a very easy matter at this season of the year to close the stores at 6 and it gives the tired clerks an opportunity to secure a little much-needed rest. Very little shopping is done after that hour anyhow in the summer time and if the buying public understood that they could not make purchases after that hour they would see that their shopping was done earlier in the day. The merchants would really be gainers by adopting this measure. The Gazette heartily endorses Mrs. Jenkins' movement and hopes that it will meet with the approval of all of Gastonia's merchants.

Death of James M. Adams.

Mrs. W. Y. Warren received a message this morning bringing the sad news of the death of her brother, Mr. James M. Adams, which occurred this morning at his home in Whitney, S. C. Mr. Adams was a painter by trade, was about 50 years of age, and is survived by his widow and two children, Willie and Thelma, 10 and 12 years of age. Mr. Adams had been in bad health for some months, but his condition was not considered serious and the news of his death was a great shock to his relatives and friends. The funeral and burial will take place at Cowpens, S. C., Wednesday morning. Mr. Warren will leave on train No. 39 tomorrow morning to attend the funeral, Mrs. Warren not being well enough to go.

FOUGHT CATARRH FOR 20 YEARS.

Here is a letter that we sincerely ask every reader of The Gazette to read. If you suffer from catarrh or any nose, throat or lung ailment, read it over twice, and then consider if you can afford to ignore a prescription with the healing virtue of Hyomei (pronounce it High-o-me): Booth's Hyomei Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Gentlemen—"I suffered terribly with catarrh in the head for twenty years, and I tried many prescriptions, but never found relief. I have used Hyomei for two weeks and find it the best preparation I have ever used for catarrh. Every cold I would catch seemed to go to my throat, and I had to use gargles for days at a time. Now when I catch a cold in the throat I use the Hyomei Inhaler and this soreness disappears over night. Hyomei has put me on the good road to getting rid of my catarrh, and if you want to use this letter to publish in your advertising, do so. Perhaps it will help some other sufferer.—W. K. Engle, 703 Walnut St., Reading, Pa., Oct. 5, 1909. Complete outfit $1.00; extra bottle 50 cents at druggists everywhere and J. H. Kennedy & Co's. J28-J112.
