Mount Holly Matters.

Correspondence of the Gazette. MOUNT HOLLY, July 11. - Miss Stella Dellinger, of Lincolnton, is the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, this week. Dr. L. L. Nash, after conducting a very successful revival in the Methodist church, returned Monday morning to his home in Sanford. Great good was accomplished by the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. John Holland chaperoned a fishing party at the river Monday afternoon. Good luck was with the whole party for many fish were caught. The largest fish caught weighed ten pounds. This was caught by Miss Bertha Jenkins, who was, indeed, the most lucky. It was certainly Mr. R. L. Jenkins' "off day" for much to his dismay, he was not able to catch a single one. Those who enjoyed this outing were: Misses Bertha Jenkins, Mildred Babington and Johnnie Lineberger; Messrs. Loyd Thompson, R. L. Jenkins and F. C. Spence. -Rev. S. L. Cathey officiated in the marriage last Wednesday evening of Miss Maggie Cherry and Mr. James A. Holland. -Miss Bessie Hoffman has returned to her home in Lincolnton after spending a few days with Miss Perrye Rozelle. She was accompanied by little Miss Roxanna Cannon.

Back from Misenheimer Springs.

Rev. John Hall returned Saturday from Misenheimer Springs, Stanly county, where he attended the Lutheran Sunday School Normal Institute July 5, 6 and 7. Other Gaston county people there were: Messrs. F. L. and A. C. Lineberger, of Gastonia; Mr. Miles Rhyne, of Bessemer City; Mrs. N. E. Jenkins, Mrs. W. G. McLean and Miss Ella Lewis, of Gastonia; Misses Mabel and Muriel Bulwinkle, of Dallas;

Mrs. W. J. Boger and Mrs. Burt Rhyne, of Mount Holly. There were 150 or more in attendance from over the State and the institute was one of the most successful from every standpoint ever held in the State.

Sunday School Picnic.

The Sunday school of St. Mark's Episcopal church went to High Shoals Saturday where the day was spent in a most enjoyable picnic. There was a large crowd, as the Baptist Sunday school of Lincolnton was also there. Music was furnished by the Clara Concert Band and the High Shoals band, and an excellent picnic dinner was served.

Mrs. Mary Leslie, a hospital nurse in Marion, Ind., had a bean removed from her ear Saturday after which normal hearing returned. It is believed the bean had been in her ear for twenty years.

Mrs. Hall Entertains.

Mrs. J. B. Hall entertained last Thursday evening from 8:30 until 11 o'clock in honor of her sister, Miss Annie Fite, of Greensboro. The guests were entertained by a chewing gum contest in which Miss Mina Lewis won the prize. After the contest delicious refreshments were served consisting of ice cream and lady fingers. Following the refreshments were the games of trail and forty-two. The parlor and dining room were beautifully decorated with sweet peas, roses and nasturtiums. Mrs. Hall was assisted in entertaining by Miss Mary Hall, while Miss Abbie Hall presided over the punch bowl.
