FOR PASTEUR TREATMENT.

Takes Young Son to Richmond for Treatment at Virginia Hospital—Child Bitten Last Week—Death of Woman from Rabies.

Charlotte News, 9th. Dr. Nathaniel Orr, of Belmont, Gaston county, has taken his three-year-old son to Richmond for the Pasteur treatment. The child was bitten last week.

The Richmond Virginian notes the arrival of Dr. Orr and son in Richmond, as follows:

"Dr. Nathaniel Orr, of Belmont, N. C., graduate of the University College of Medicine and formerly interne at Virginia hospital, called at the pasteur department of the hospital Thursday morning accompanied by his three-year-old son, who was bitten last Sunday morning by his setter dog that died Wednesday with unmistakable symptoms of rabies.

"The lad was bitten on the right hand and also on the part of the back. The wounds have been already cauterized and it is believed that no serious consequences will ensue. The lad will be given the full pasteur treatment.

"Dr. Orr says he had had his dog tied on the premises for some time to prevent it from hunting young birds in the vicinity of his home and so far as he knows the setter bit no one but his little son.

"Dr. Orr reports that a woman residing south of his home recently died from rabies as a result of a mad dog snagging her dress. It appears that in sewing up the rent place she moistened the thread in her mouth and thus contracted the disease."

CARD OF THANKS.

To all our friends who were so kind and helpful during the illness and at the death of Mr. Sidney S. Pittman, we wish to take this means of expressing our deep and lasting gratitude. Our sorrow, though heavy, was lightened by their friendly sympathy and kindness, and we shall ever hold them in tender memory.

MRS. S. S. PITTMAN,
MR. AND MRS. T. A. MYERS,

SUMMER HAIR DRESSING.

Ask J. H. Kennedy & Co. for Parisian Sage, if You Want the Best.

Almost everybody in Gastonia knows that there is no preparation for the hair that can compare with Parisian Sage.

It cures dandruff, stops falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks or money back.

It puts radiance and lustre into that dull, lifeless hair that many women possess, and does it in a few days.

It makes hair grow; prevents hair from turning gray and is without doubt the most refreshing and invigorating hair tonic in the world.

It is daintily perfumed and is not in the least sticky or greasy.

In summer, people of refinement use it regularly, because it keeps the scalp cool and free from odor of perspiration.

On March 25, 1910, Lulu D. Fix, of Raphine, Va., wrote: "Parisian Sage is a wonderful hair restorer; it stopped my hair from falling out and stopped my scalp from itching; also cured the dandruff. I only used one bottle, but I like it so much I am going to use more."

Parisian Sage is sold by druggists everywhere and by J. H. Kennedy & Co. for 50 cents a large bottle. Mail orders filled, charges prepaid, by American makers, Giroux Mfg. Co., Buffalo, N. Y. 6-12-A16-23

STATE FARED WELL.

North Carolinas Congressmen Looked After State's Interests—What Mr. Webb Got.

Wilmington Star.

The North Carolina delegation in Congress appears to have had a big pull during this session and evidently it was united "for the flag and an appropriation." The members secured more than $1,000,000 for public buildings in North Carolina cities and towns. It is said that in this respect North Carolina fared better than any other State that got into Uncle Sam's strong box.

The city of Charlotte is to be congratulated upon having secured an appropriation of $250,000 for a new postoffice building, which added to the value of the present property, estimated at $60,000, will give the Queen City a public building that will represent a cost of $300,000. It is said that no other city in the Union of Charlotte's size has received so large an appropriation, but it is none too small for Charlotte's size will rapidly grow up to it. The Star is glad to note also that Raleigh probably will get $225,000 for a public building, and if any city deserves it North Carolina's capital city does. Other North Carolina towns which received building appropriations were as follows: Oxford, $50,000; Hickory, $60,000; Tarboro, $50,000; Greenville, increased to $55,000; Monroe, $50,000. Shelby came in for an appropriation of $10,000 for a building site.

The Hon. E. Yates Webb, the Democratic Congressman from the Ninth North Carolina District, worked the rabbit foot for $310,000 for public buildings in different towns in his district. That amounts to nearly one-third of the public building appropriations for the entire State. While it may have been a better idea to have distributed the Federal bounty throughout the State, it can be said that North Carolina got only what she deserves. In the internal revenue taxes paid by North Carolina's tobacco industries, corporations, etc, the Old North State is one of the Government's chief tax-payers, Uncle Sam's books showing that North Carolina pays the Government more than twelve of some of the interior States.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

The Gastonia rural letter carriers are making an effort to secure for Gastonia the annual celebration which is held on the first Monday in September. It will be a joint celebration participated in by the Gaston County Rural Letter Carriers Association and the Gaston County Farmers Union, which fact insures a large attendance. Wherever it is held there will be a large crowd of Gaston county people. We want this celebration for Gastonia. In order to get it, it will be necessary for the committee to secure a small amount to defray the expenses. Within the next few days we will call on the business men of the town for small subscriptions. If the business men of Gastonia will lend us their cooperation solidly, the amount asked of any individual or firm will be so small that it will not be burdensome. This event will be a good advertisement for our town and we expect the assistance of all public spirited citizens in securing it.

York Cotton is Poor.

The Enquirer, 5th.

There is a very general complaint of the unsatisfactory condition of the cotton crop. Corn generally is very good, but cotton is small. The continued rains have made the grass very troublesome.

They Are Damaged Goods.

Monroe Enquirer.

"The friends you buy are damaged goods." This is not a quotation from Solomon's writings, although it is as true as if Solomon had written it. We ran across it in a little advertising pamphlet and it struck us as being worthy of passing on. "The friends you buy are damaged goods." That is a good text for a strong sermon. Not only are the friends you buy damaged goods, but the man who depends upon buying his friends simply finds it a case of a fool and his money parted and nothing to show for his money.

William Klutz, a North Carolinian, was drowned Sunday at New Haven, Conn., while swimming in Lee's pond.

The first regiment of the North Carolina National Guards, composed of the companies at Shelby, Dallas, Concord, High Point, Mount Airy, Hickory, Statesville, Asheville, Waynesville and Winston are encamped at Chickamauga this week to attend the United States Army maneuvers at that point.

Smithdeal's

is the oldest (43 years) and first Business College in Virginia and second in the South to own its building—one of the finest in Richmond. It is thus financially anchored, while its long and honorable record in preparing young men and women successfully for business, induces such statements as the following:

"DEAR FERRY:

Your letter received. I have this a. m. been to some of the business colleges and I wouldn't advise you to go to any except the Smithdeal. It is so much more widely and favorably known than any other that it would be worth it if it cost a great deal more, which it does not.

Its graduates find positions when those from other schools go begging."

A Richmond business man, answering his friend, who handed us letter from which above clipping was made.

"I could have gotten a scholarship at another business college in Richmond for half what it cost me at the Smithdeal, although the regular rates of all the business colleges in Richmond are about the same.

When I reached Richmond, I inquired of several business men for the best business college in the city, and without exception they all recommended Smithdeal as the best."

WILLIAM E. ROSS,
 Law Stenographer and Lawyer, Bluefield, W. Va.

Kind but firm discipline; thorough, individual instruction by scholarly and experienced teachers (four of whom are authors of valuable books), are additional reasons why this college has been steadily advancing, while several similar schools have failed in Richmond.

Bookkeeping, Stenography and Penmanship Taught by Mail.

No vacations. Ladies and gentlemen in all departments. Demand for our students to take positions greater than ever before. Positively bright prospect for intelligent, energetic young people. Catalog free. For full particulars, address the President,
