CHALLENGES MR. MCNINCH.

Congressman E. Y. Webb Offers to Stump the District With Mr. S. S. McNinch, Republican Nominee of the District—The Letter.

Charlotte Observer, Sunday. Congressman E. Y. Webb, of Shelby, yesterday mailed to Mr. S. S. McNinch of this city, Republican nominee for Congress in this, the ninth district of which Mr. Webb is the present Democratic Representative and the nominee of the party for re-election, a letter challenging him to a joint debate throughout the district. Mr. Webb also suggested a number of places where speaking might be held in the several counties that constitute the district and offering to accept any suggestions that Mr. McNinch might make. Mr. Webb's letter is as follows:

Shelby, N. C., July 23, 1910. S. S. McNinch, Esq., Charlotte, N. C.

Dear Mr. McNinch: As you and I are the nominees of the Republican and Democratic parties respectively for Congress in this district, and as it has been the custom heretofore for such candidates to have public joint discussions in order to let the people see their candidates and learn how they stand on public questions, I therefore invite you to join me in a canvass of the district. I suggest that we speak at the following places, to wit:

Spruce Pine and Bakersville, in Mitchell county; Mica, Burns, and Cane River, in Yancey county; Mars Hill, Marshal, Hot Springs and Spring Creek, in Madison county; Bridgewater, Morganton and Connelly Springs, in Burke; Hickory, Newton and Maiden, in Catawba; Lowesville, Iron Station, Lincolnton, and Reepsville, in Lincoln county; Casar, Shelby, Boiling Springs and Kings Mountain, in Cleveland county; Gastonia, Dallas, Bessemer City, Cherryville and Stanley, in Gaston county; Paw Creek, Huntersville, Matthews, Pineville and Charlotte, in Mecklenburg, and at any other places that you may suggest.

If you agree to a joint canvass, please name the time and place when the Democratic congressional chairman of this district may meet your chairman and make a definite schedule.

With kind wishes, I am
Yours very truly, etc.,
E. Y. WEBB.

Of course it is not yet known whether Mr. McNinch will accept this challenge or not. Mr. McNinch's predecessor for congressional honors, Mr. John A. Smith, of Bessemer City, accepted the tender two years ago, the various encounters in the several counties being ludicrous to a marked degree in the estimation of those who heard the speeches. Mr. McNinch does not pose as a public speaker or debater but yet has been attending several county conventions and making addresses. Neither did Mr. John A. Smith claim to be an orator.

It is hardly regarded as probable that Mr. McNinch will accept this challenge but if he does the various contemplated encounters will provide much interesting reading matter this fall.

MR. FRED CRAIG DEAD.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Dorie Craig Succumbs After a Long Illness—Buried Yesterday Afternoon in Oakwood Cemetery—Miss Pattie Kell Dies and Body is Taken to Sharon, S. C., for Burial.

Following a long and painful illness of nearly a year from tuberculosis, which slowly but steadily sapped his vital forces and against which medical skill and loving ministrations were powerless, Mr. Fred Craig gave up the battle yesterday morning at 5:30 o'clock, death coming at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Dorie Craig, No. 313 Willow street. All that tender and loving parents and brothers and sisters could do to lighten his burdens and restore him to health was done but without result, except to prolong his life for a time. He suffered much during his long illness but suffered without complaining. Several months ago he made a profession of faith and when death came he met it bravely and unafraid. Though not a member of the church, he signified more than once to Rev. R. C. Anderson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, that he had surrendered himself to the will of the Master and was prepared to go whenever the call came.

Deceased was in his twenty-fourth year, having been born September 15, 1886. He is survived by his parents, three brothers, William Ralph, John Henry and Robert Clyde and two sisters, Cora Lee and Ethel Bright.

The funeral was held from the late home, No. 313 Willow street, yesterday afternoon at 6 o'clock, conducted by Rev. R. C. Anderson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, assisted by Rev. W. H. Reddish. Interment was in Oakwood cemetery.

The bereaved parents, brothers and sisters have the sympathy of many friends in their hour of bereavement.

MISS PATTIE KELL.

At the home of her father, Mr. J. D. Kell, on Gaston Terrace, Miss Pattie Kell died about 6 o'clock yesterday morning after an illness of three months or more. Deceased was about thirty years of age and had lived in Gastonia for the past four or five years, having moved here from York county, South Carolina, with her father's family.

Funeral services were held at the late home last night at 8 o'clock, the services being conducted by Rev. W. H. Reddish, assisted by Rev. R. C. Anderson, and the body was shipped on No. 39 this morning to Sharon, S. C., for interment. Miss Kell was a loyal and consistent member of the Baptist church.

Surviving the deceased are her father, two sisters, Mrs. Minnie B. Gaze and Miss Eunice Kell, and four brothers, viz: Mr. Frank Kell, of Spartanburg, S. C.; Mr. Thomas Kell, of Columbia, S. C.; and Messrs. James and Dick Kell, of Gastonia.

The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the sorrowing father, brothers and sisters in their bereavement.

A Musical Treat Monday Night.

Gastonians will have an opportunity next Monday night to hear two well-known musicians, Prof. Carl Fallberg and wife, Mme. Gunhild-Sjoestedt-Fallberg, in the auditorium of Main Street Methodist church. The concert will be free and the public is cordially invited to be present. Prof. and Mrs. Fallberg are natives of Sweden. The former is director of music at Centenary College and Conservatory, Cleveland, Tenn., and his wife is teacher of voice in the same institution. Prof. Robert L. Durham, formerly of Gastonia but now a member of the faculty of Centenary College, will accompany Prof. and Mrs. Fallberg. Prof. Fallberg is a composer and concert pianist of national reputation while his wife is a noted soprano.

Former Mayor A. H. Bouseman, of Ridgeway, Va., was assassinated Sunday night while lying in a hammock in his yard. Some unknown party threw a dynamite bomb which exploded near him, horribly mangle his body. Mystery surrounds the affair and so far no person has been arrested for the crime.

CAPT. J. M. ODELL DEAD.

Aged and Honored Citizen of Concord Passes in His Eightieth Year—Was Prominent in Cotton Manufacturing Business for Forty Years—Father of Mrs. S. J. Durham, of Bessemer City.

Capt. J. M. Odell, father of Mrs. S. J. Durham, of Bessemer City, and one of Concord's most prominent citizens, died at his home there last Thursday night in his eightieth year.

Last October he suffered a stroke of paralysis but recovered sufficiently to get about. About three weeks ago, while visiting his daughter, Mrs. S. J. Durham, at Bessemer City, he suffered a second stroke which resulted fatally. The funeral was held from the Forest Hill Methodist church Saturday and out of respect to his memory all the business houses of the town were closed during the funeral.

Capt. Odell was born near Asheville, Randolph county, January 20, 1831, being a son of James and Anna Odell. He was raised on the farm where he remained until he was 21 years old. When the war came he, with his brother Laban, organized a company known as the Randolph Hornets of which he was captain and his brother first lieutenant. This was officially Company M of the Twelfth Regiment of North Carolina Volunteers, Col. J. Johnson Pettigrew being the colonel.

After the war Capt. Odell entered immediately into the manufacturing business in which he was engaged for more than forty years, up to the time of his death. He organized and operated a number of large cotton factories at Concord, Durham and elsewhere, his Concord mills at one time being among the largest in the South. He was one of the principal stockholders and directors for a number of years in the old Southern Cotton Mills at Bessemer City, this county, of which his son-in-law, Mr. S. J. Durham, was for several years secretary and treasurer.

In concluding a sketch of Capt. Odell's life The Concord Times of yesterday says of him:

"Capt. Odell's life was one of remarkable success. He was always a model of morality and integrity and was one of the finest types of Southern Christian gentleman, having for many years been an officer in the Methodist church. Though strict in all business transactions he was always very liberal and his deeds of kindness and charity have been many and large.

"As an organizer and manager of employees Capt. Odell had scarcely a superior. He was gentle, kind, urbane, yet firm in his discipline. No strikes, no friction, nothing ever occurred to mar the peaceful and pleasant relations existing between him and his employees.

"When Capt. Odell fell upon sleep, there passed one of the State's foremost citizens, a captain of industry ranking among the leading business men of this section of the nation. Concord recognizes in him the founder of its present industrial progress.

The death of few men could be a greater loss to the State and the sense of bereavement will be in the hearts of a multitude of men."

Given Month's Vacation.

The congregation of the First Baptist church has granted a month's vacation to their pastor, Rev. W. H. Reddish and he and Mrs. Reddish will leave next week for Morganton and other points in the mountains where they will spend the month of August. During Mr. Reddish's absence the regular Sunday morning and evening services at this church will be dispensed with.

Family Reunion.

On Thursday, August 11th, Mrs. Franklin Holland will give a family reunion at her home two miles north of Gastonia in celebration of her 69th birthday. THE SALARY SYSTEM.

Cleveland County Saves $1,200 Annually by Having Only Two of Its Officers on Salary.

The Gazette has for a long time advocated the placing of the officers of Gaston county on a salary basis instead of continuing the fee system as at present. We have cited facts as proven in Gullford and other counties in support of our contention.

Writing along this line The Highlander, published at Shelby, in its issue of last week, says that Cleveland county has saved $1,200 by placing two of its officers on salary and pleads for an extension of the system so as to take in all the offices of Cleveland. The Highlander says:

"The Highlander advocates a salary basis for county officials, so as to save some money for tax payers. Many counties favor this plan, which has proved to be a success in Gullford county. Here is what Gullford saved last year by putting all its officials on a salary basis. The school fund last year gained $2,224 and the road fund $8,254.

"Pay them a reasonable salary. Under the present plan some officials get from $2,500 to $4,500 per year and this heavy payment makes some extravagant and they spend several hundred dollars at each election to hold again the office and to debauch politics.

"Cleveland county has already saved in one year $1,200 by putting on a salary basis our treasurer and register of deeds, but this is partial and should apply to all our officials. It is now unjust to cut down the salaries of only two and leave those with higher salaries untouched.

"Salaries can be advanced as cost of living and labor of the position increase."

LINEMAN GETS JUDGMENT.

Beatty Morrow Gets $2,300 Judgment in South Carolina Against Piedmont Telephone & Telegraph Company.

Shelby Highlander, 23rd.

The Piedmont Telephone and Telegraph Company of Shelby were defendants in a damage suit for injuries sustained by a lineman Beatty Morrow, who fell from a broken telephone pole near Belmont cotton mill. Beatty Morrow had his arm broken by the fall and was carried for treatment to Rutherford Hospital last November, and signed a release from damages. Yet Beatty Morrow moved to Gaffney, S. C., brought suit for damages, claimed his mind was affected by the fall and got a judgment of $2,300 damages against said company. Messrs. Sims, Butler and Hall were the plaintiff's lawyers; Claude Jeffries, Esq., appeared for the defendant, who will appeal to a higher court, and claim a written release as a bar to damages. The plaintiff was shrewd in moving to South Carolina, so that he could bring suit in another State. He won his case.
