Any young lady expecting to go to college this fall will do well to look up this notice and read the offer.

—Mr. Andrew Cloninger, who lives above Dallas, has a kind of apples which he thinks cannot be beaten in the county. He can trace the strain back pretty nearly a hundred years, some of the trees having been on the land of his father, the late David Cloninger, entered that long ago. The apples are a cooking variety, somewhat like the Hoss apple, and ripen early. Mr. Cloninger has 18 or 20 trees bearing, and a number of young trees coming on.

—Erwin McLean, aged about 19 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. McLean, was locked up at the city hall this morning for safe keeping, he having evidenced unmistakable signs of insanity. Young McLean left home a few days ago and was locked up yesterday at Gaffney. On being released he came to Gastonia this morning. He will probably be taken to Dallas temporarily and application made for his admittance to the State Insane Asylum at Morganton.

—Sunday night about 10 o'clock Elliott Mack and Eli Forney, two negroes, engaged in a combat at the corner of Marietta street and Franklin avenue. Forney cut Mack with a knife or razor and the cries of "murder" from the wounded man attracted a number of people from the neighborhood. Both men, however, made good their escape and are still at liberty. Police officers gave them a lively chase but the fighters made good in getting away from town.
